A RECIPROcity treaty between this country and Mexico will be considered as soon as the Senate gets to work again.

Why go about with that aching head? Try Ayer's Pills. They will relieve the stomach, restore the digestive organs to healthy action, remove the obstructions that depress nerves and brain, and thus cure your headache permanently.

A St. Louis judge refused to grant an injunction against the proprietors of the Post-Dispatch restraining them from publishing or destroying short hand notes of testimony made before the grand jury against the gamblers.

COMPULSORY attendance at school in England appears to be a moral success. In 1869 English boys and girls to the number of 10,314 were convicted of crime.

THE Colored Baptists in convention at Wyandot, Kansas, representing a number of the Western States and territories adopted resolutions protesting against the late decision of the Supreme Court on civil rights.

PROGRESSIVE public opinion and the natural instincts of humanity and fair play to all are doing more for the plain rights of the colored people than the Civil Rights bill ever did or could do by force of legislation.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says: Kentucky justice is sometimes almost as swift as the New Jersey article. Judge Perkins opened Court in Bracken county Friday morning, heard the Smith murder trial, sentenced the defendant to the penitentiary for life, heard arguments for a new trial in the Brockman case, overruled the motion, confirmed the severe sentence previously announced, and adjourned Court in time for an early dinner.

For and About Women. A lady's school for wood carving and modeling is to be opened in St. Louis. The admission of women to the University of Louisiana is being agitated.

Anna Dickson has the honor of having taken the first mule to the top of Pike's Peak. George Elliott's greatest novel, according to Turgeneff, was "The Mill on the Floss."

Educational Notes. All other callings are by calm best. Resigned to those who understand them best, but every worthy, theoretic leech can tell the teacher how he ought to teach.

The number of children now at school in Great Britain is 4,330,000, while at the time the compulsory education act was passed, it was 1,600,000.

During the last decade nearly one hundred million dollars have been given to aid in educational work in the United States by individual citizens.

The young ladies in La Sella Seminary (Illinois) in time past have had courses of lessons in dressmaking, millinery and cooking. Another wise step in advance will give them instruction this year in photography by one of the best reporters in Boston.

In making a little farewell speech at the close of her school, a Boston teacher told her pupils she hoped they would all return after vacation, resolved that they would give up all bad habits.

Mrs. Amanda Smith, well known in religious circles as one of the hardest workers in the cause of Christianity, has just reached Monrovia, Liberia.

An Arkansas Criminal Captured. CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 21.—Sheriff Haskins, of Osceola, Ark., together with Mound City Marshal Ross and Deputy Sheriff Painter effected the arrest of an Arkansas desperado named J. P. Maupin, near Villiaridge, who is wanted in Arkansas for grand larceny, and about all the other crimes in the calendar. Maupin was out on bail, having been indicted for grand larceny, and suddenly disappeared. His wife swore he was drowned, and soon after came to Villiaridge to join the fugitive. Having been closely watched by officers, she was followed and her husband apprehended. Hastings being prepared with a requisition, the prisoner was taken to Osceola immediately.

Missouri Granite. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—The Supervising Architect of the Treasury received a sample of Missouri granite in connection with a bid of a granite company in St. Louis on the Pittsburg public building. This particular variety of stone attracted considerable attention in the Architect's office, and Mr. Hill pronounces it the finest specimen of building stone he has ever seen. It is deemed chiefly remarkable for its dark, rich color and susceptibility of polish. Mr. Hill thinks the Pittsburg building should be granite, and from the lively competition and low prices deems it not improbable that it will yet be so.

True if Important. CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A special from Lisbon, Dakota, says that H. W. Griswold, E. P. Baker, W. F. Sargent, and Dr. Geo. C. Fry, all of Chicago, have just astonished the natives by opening up a rich gold discovery in a ledge of rocks in a gulch nine miles west of Lisbon. The gold was discovered about three months ago, but kept secret until now. Capitalists from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago, Fargo, and Grand Forks have arrived. The wildest excitement prevails. One hundred and twenty assays have been made of samples, some assaying $210 and averaging $25 or $30 to the ton.

A Railroad War. CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—There seems to be no way out of what looks like an inevitable war over passenger rates between New York and Chicago. The Delaware, Lackawana & Western is in position to fight. Its connection to Buffalo is pronounced by railroad men one of the finest roads in the country. Samuel Sloan, the President of the Company, is generally regarded as an aggressive man, and he has brought that corporation up to a solid basis financially, so that it means to push its way to the front and command no small share of the business of the trunk lines. The war once commenced, it will extend both ways.
