George Would Not Come Home.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 12.—Rosie Drury sued her brother-in-law, Jacob Schnoberger, a well-known letter carrier, and his wife, for $5,000 damages for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections by her sister, Mrs. Schnoberger. The trial began Saturday, and Rosie testified that she followed her husband to Schnoberger's house. "Mrs. Schnoberger then went over and sat on his knee," she continued, "and put her arms around his neck. He kissed her and she kissed him in return. It was a long kind of a kiss. I rushed in and my sister jumped up. I told them that was a nice way to act, and she said that I had the same right to kiss her husband. I told George to come home and he wouldn't."

Something New In Steel Manufacture.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 12—The Pittsburg Steel Lasting Company have succeeded in rolling shaped blooms four deck and "I" beams from square ingots weighing 2,600 pounds each, reducing the section from 175 inches in the ingot to fifty-four square inches in the shaped bloom. This was accomplished in one hour from the time the material was in the cast-iron until it was in a finished steel bloom, and, with additional machinery, in less than fifteen minutes could have been in the shape of a finished beam. This is something entirely new and it is destined to revolutionize the structural steel trade of this country.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. Like an Evil Spirit.

In olden times it was thought that evil spirits came in through cracks and keyholes. The generally approved way to keep them out was to plug up the keyholes and stop the cracks with cotton. Notwithstanding these preventive measures, the evil things had their own way and often came in as they pleased.

So comes malaria now-a-days. We try to keep it out of the keyhole and it comes in by the crack. We stop up the crack, and lo! it comes from a leak in the plumbing, or an opening from some neglected drain, or from some unsuspected source and unguarded direction.

We cannot always keep malaria out, but we can give it battle and drive its effects from our systems. If BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is taken in time, malaria has not a ghost of a chance. This is the great family medicine. Your druggist sells it, and you ought to keep a bottle in the house. 1
