TWENTY-EIGHT SNOWS are predicted this winter.

THERE is talk again of the mediation of England in the Tonquin trouble.

THE decrease in the public revenue the past fiscal year is estimated at $40,000.

CONGRESSMAN W. M. SPRINGER announces that he is still a candidate for Speaker.

It is stated that the Vatican has consented to appoint a Nuncio to the United States, in accordance with the wishes of the American Bishops now in Rome.

THE collections in the Cincinnati Diocese ordered by the Pope for the support of missions and schools among the colored people and Indians amounted to $2,050.

ANNA DICKINSON will take to the platform again. She will lecture under the auspices of the Knights of Labor, and will keep it up until after the next Presidential election.

AMONG the Masonic bodies of Cincinnati unusual interest is being shown in the approaching election. The merely "good fellows" will not be put forward for office as has sometimes happened.

JOE BLACKBURN has a considerable following in Kentucky for the U. S. Senatorship. His friends complain that Cerro Gordo Williams went too far in the matter of fixing things up previous to the election of the Legislature in August.

THE uniform railway time went into effect on nearly all the roads of the country, and no accidents from the change is reported. The Western Union Telegraph Company will adopt the time, and the Chicago Board of Trade is also to be called to order by it.

NAVIGATION has closed on the lakes, with a heavy stock of grain in Chicago. Prices fell off a little on Saturday in consequence. There were 313,000 hogs received during the past week, and 250,000 more are expected this week. Slaughtering has been actively begun.

A POSSIBLE topic at the coming session of Congress will be the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians' lease of 3,117,800 acres of grazing land at two cents an acre. The syndicate which got the lease, which runs for ten years, have just made the second half-yearly payment, aggregating over $31,000. Every man, woman and child of both tribes was paid $5, the money being in $1 and $2 greenbacks. The next payment will be in cattle, as the lease calls for half money and half cattle. In the Indian Territory it is believed that a number of United Senators and members of the House of Representatives are indirectly interested in the lease.

Numerous are the interesting facts which appear in the report of the Surgeon General of the army for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1883. None are more interesting, however, in the suggestions involved than that which states that among colored troops there is a larger proportion of the diseases of the nervous system than among the white. There is a peculiar reason for dwelling upon this feature, seeing that it is accompanied with the statement that the preponderance remains unexplained. This would imply that an effort had been made to discover the causes, but that these baffled skillful research.

The organization of the average white man is commonly supposed to be more susceptible to the encroachment.

THE Westchester (Pa.) Local says: An interesting illustration of the manner in which dime novels act upon boys' brains has recently been given at Cleveland, where a boy aged fourteen was the organizer of a secret society, to be called "The Society of the Silver Skulls." The principles set forth by this delightful association included an unmitigated curse upon all those domestic and friendly relations which men hold dear, and the invocation of various appalling calamities upon whoever should prove a renegade. In the present age there is no reason why good and entertaining reading should not be furnished to boys and girls of all ages. Never has reading of this kind, intended especially for juveniles, so great abounded as at present. Never before have so many writers of talent, so many draughtsmen of skill and so many publishers of respectability, backed by money, lent their aid to supplying children with reading matter of the first order. The class of "literature," therefore, which comes under the denomination of dime novel ought to die. Those parents must be very unwatchful or extremely foolish who can allow their sons to pursue a course of reading, the tendency of which is to arouse the worst instincts and extinguish all the best. The Cleveland youth recently disappeared from his home, taking with him two revolvers. This looks as if he were going to join either the cowboys or the Indians, a little fraternization with whom would perhaps dissipate his ideals.

Card from Mr. Taylour. MAYSVILLE, November 19, 1883. Editor Bulletin—Dear Sir: A reduction in the price of seats has been suggested. There are several strong reasons which forbid my consent. Permit me to quote two of the wisest practical importance. First, I cannot afford it; I pay Mr. and Mrs. Chanfrau considerably over $100 a night, my company (the best I could procure in New York) travel and printing cost $140 a night more; crowd the hall at $1 a seat and I should barely get back my expenses. I visit Maysville almost annually, because I like the town, but to ask me to confront a certain loss in order to gratify that liking, is neither wise nor fair. A second, and equally potent reason is that I have tried the "reduced price" experiment, but never with success; and how could I play for 75 cents here when the same accommodation commands $1 in Lexington and elsewhere. In New York and thereabouts $1.50 is charged for reserved seats. True the scenic equipments, &c., are superior, but to enjoy them the cost of a fare to that city should properly be counted. I am not responsible for the scenic deficiencies of your hall, but the same performance that one pays $1 to see in the north can here be witnessed for 75 and 50 cents. Cheap enough in all reason. Besides one cannot fairly expect to buy silks at prices usually paid for calicoes. I bring here two "stars," and a company crowned with the applause of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, New Orleans, Louisville and every other American city, and surely they are worth being seen by the intelligent public of Maysville at a less average price than is demanded in the cities named. Respectfully, CLIFTON W. TAYLEUR.

PROHIBITION has made great advances in Georgia within a few years. In order to ascertain just what the existing situation was in that respect the Atlanta Constitution recently addressed to county officers a circular which has elicited replies from 125 of the 146 counties in the State. From these responses it appears that total prohibition obtains in 55 counties and partial prohibition in 36; while from 25 comes reports that the prohibition movement has either been defeated or is regarded with indifference.

A Murder Explained. From the Vanceburg Courier. The Maysville BULLETIN, of last week, publishes what it claims to be a perfect picture of Zora Burns, the young girl so mysteriously murdered at Lincoln, Ill. That picture settles it. She ought to have been killed and her carcass hung up for a scarecrow.

Public Opinion. Sunday Morning Call. The hog must go. Strangers as well as citizens consider him the greatest drawback to our city.
