Health of Miss Gipson Fox Broken Down by Strain of Tireless Energy.—Friends Pray For Recovery

Miss Gipson Fox, until recently a teacher in the Winchester Public Schools, was Tuesday morning adjudged insane. She was taken to Lexington in an auto for rest and recuperation.

Miss Fox is one of the loveliest young ladies in Winchester. Gentle and charming always, she was tenderly loved by schoolmates and teachers and in later years by her pupils with a true and abiding affection.

All health and her tireless energy are the causes of the trouble, and it is the earnest prayer of all her friends, that she will soon be restored to a normal condition.

QUACK! QUACK!

But This Time Only The Feathers Were in Evidence As They Were Blown About College Campus.

Fire which originated from loose papers being blown against the grate caused a great deal of excitement at Clark Hall, the College dormitory, Tuesday morning. An overcoat and suit of clothes belonging to Mr. McHenry Holbrook were destroyed and the furniture in the room, which was occupied by Mr. Holbrook and Mr. Oscar Galloway on the second floor, was considerably damaged. A large place was burned in the feather bed, and hundreds of snowy feathers swayed gracefully on the smoke-laden breeze.

The flames were confined to one room, and were soon extinguished by the quick work of the Fire Department.

YOUNGSTER GETS SIX-YEARS SENTENCE

Stole A Locomotive While Intoxicated and Caused Collision Resulting in Many Injuries.

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 23.—In consideration of his youth Ralph I. Jardine, 18 years old, who stole a big mogul locomotive from the South Worcester freight yards on the night of January 3, and started on a joy ride, which culminated in a collision with the New London boat train at Webster, injuring 20 passengers, got off with a six-year sentence in the Superior Criminal Court.

The boy was brought into court a badly seared youngster. A strong plea was made for mercy, and this was not opposed by District Attorney Stone.

It appears that Jardine was intoxicated. He wandered about in search of some instrument of amusement came upon the locomotive, with steam up. He mounted to the cab, experimented with the levers, and started away at a seventy-mile-an-hour clip, with two freight cars bumping the rails behind him.

The charge against him was recklessly endangering lives. He changed his plea to guilty, and will go to the reform school.

BEER DECLARED A COMMODITY

Railroads Must Carry it From One State Into "Dry" Counties of Another State.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Beer is a commodity and railroads must carry it when offered for transportation, from one state into "dry" counties of another state, regardless of the laws of the latter state.

The Supreme Court of the United States made this ruling Monday regarding a proposed shipment from Indiana into "dry" Kentucky counties.

The case arose when the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company refused to carry beer offered by the P. W. Cook Brewing Company at Evansville, Indiana. The railroad declined the shipment because a Kentucky law of 1906 forbade bringing liquor into local option districts.

M'MANIGAL IS CORROBORATED

Government Attorney Says the Probe has also Unearthed Things the Confessor Knew Nothing About.

Indianapolis, Jan. 23.—Ortie McManigal's confession concerning the widespread dynamite plots has been more than corroborated and we have unearthed things which McManigal knew nothing about.

James W. Noel, special assistant to the United States District Attorney, so stated Monday in reference to the government's investigation of the dynamite conspiracy. Mr. Noel had just come from a noon conference at which was prepared a long list of many witnesses to the cause.

"Has the government learned anything which it did not expect to learn?" Mr. Noel was asked. "A great deal more. The investigation has been thorough, with a view of making it reasonably certain that conviction might be had where indictments had been returned."

Attempts to blow up a hotel in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1909 and 1910 were described before the Federal grand jury Monday in its investigation of the dynamite conspiracy. The witnesses included two police officials of Salt Lake City, a former guard at the Utah State prison, and a tailor who sold clothing to one of the McNamaras.
