An annual commencement.

"A laboratory of light" and a century of vaudeville were celebrated at the St. Mary's Dominican Academy. This was a memorable event, for it marked the 100th anniversary of the academy's founding.

The celebration included a special mass at St. Joseph's Church, followed by a concert and a dance.

The day was filled with music, dance, and entertainment, with performances by various groups and individuals.

The event was notable for its contribution to the cultural and educational history of New Orleans, and it served as a testament to the enduring spirit of the academy.

In conclusion, the event was a resounding success, and it was a fitting tribute to the many contributions the St. Mary's Dominican Academy has made to the community over the past century.

The attendees left the event with a sense of pride and accomplishment, knowing that they had played a part in the academy's rich history and its ongoing legacy.
