

The Gazette & Comet

BATON ROUGE THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1865.

ADDRESS TO VOTERS.—An address from Dr. R. H. Day to the voters of this parish will be found in another column. It is commendable for its high-toned views and sentiments and will be read with interest.

W. C. MCGIMSEY.—Our talented young friend, W. C. MCGIMSEY, is announced as a candidate for Representative from this parish. We have known him, as have many others of our fellow-citizens, from early boyhood, and speak knowingly when we say, that he has the ability and reputation of character to reflect honor and usefulness upon the position of legislator.

ED. D. CHEATHAM.—The friends of this worthy young gentleman, appreciating his merits, from a knowledge of his character dating back to boyhood, have announced him as a candidate for Representative to the Legislature. See his announcement, and give "Ed." a "lift."

FIREMEN'S BALL.—We refer our readers to the programme elsewhere inserted of the forthcoming Ball to be given by the Firemen of our city on the 4th proximo.

Rev. Dr. DOREMUS called on us yesterday to say, that his school would be opened on the 23d in the fine large building belonging to Dr. ENDERS, opposite the Presbyterian Church.

He will also hold regular service in the Presbyterian Church hereafter, commencing on Sunday next. A Sabbath School will also be instituted in said Church.

RARE AND ELEGANT GOODS.—Ladies and gentlemen will be interested in looking over the advertisement of Mr. JACOB KUHN to find mentioned therein a great many elegant and useful qualities of goods suited to the season—all of which he is selling at the lowest possible rates. Drop in and examine his splendid assortments.

"THE PEOPLE'S STORE."—This is the title given by our friends, S. M. ASHER and D. DAVIDSON, to their mercantile establishment on Lafayette street, and from all we can gather, the name is by no means undeserving. Those gentlemen keep a large and general assortment of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, &c., which they are selling on terms as cheap as the cheapest. Having long experience in their business and being of an accommodating turn, they cannot fail of reaping an advantageous patronage, and of bestowing advantages on all who patronize them.

"QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS."—This is the motto adopted by our friend N. WAX, in his dealings with his purchasers. Judging from the rapid manner in which he is disposing of his excellent stock of Family Groceries and Western Produce, and the satisfaction evinced by his customers, his motto is faithfully adhered to and is a very popular one. WAX deserves all the patronage he is receiving.

Furniture buyers are offered great inducements by our friend BAUMSTARK, who advertises that he is closing out his large and varied assortment of Furniture at cost prices. Now is the time to call on him and make your purchases. The chance is a rare one.

The officers of the steamer Gen. Quitman will accept our thanks for late New Orleans papers and Messrs. AUCHEZ & HENRIKSSON for attending to the delivery of the same.

DESTINATION OF EX-GOV. HENRY W. ALLEN.—A gentleman of this place has received a letter from Gov. Allen now in Mexico, who states that he is destitute, and is learning the Spanish language for the purpose of teaching school for a livelihood. In consideration of this fact it has been determined to raise a subscription for his benefit; and when we reflect that had it not been for Gov. Allen's determined protest, Gen. Smith would have pressed every bale of private cotton in the State and thus made it the property of the United States Government; and when we recall his untiring efforts for the good of the people, we are satisfied they will liberally respond to this call; although the Governor positively refused a donation of $5,000 before he left here, yet we are satisfied he will accept a subscription under the circumstances, as a compliment which he will gratefully acknowledge. Subscription lists will be sent to different parts of North Louisiana, and will be placed at the drug stores in this place, and at the warehouses. When completed, the name of each subscriber, and the amount subscribed, will be published, and the proceeds transmitted through the well known house of R. C. Cummings & Co., New Orleans.—Shreveport Gazette, Sept. 29th.

The Republican party has carried Indiana, the Democrats making no opposition.
