

To CANDIDATES.—We will discontinue inserting for the present, the list of announcements for parochial offices, seeing that there has been no proclamation issued as yet ordering an election for the same. As soon hereafter, as the necessary Proclamation shall appear, the names of all such candidates as have settled with us for their announcements, will again be inserted in their proper form and place until the time of election, free of any additional charge.

EDWARD ALVERSON.—The "Many Friends" of Mr. EDWARD ALVERSON announce him through our columns as a candidate for Representative, believing him to be well fitted for the position, and worthy of general support at the hands of the voting population. See his announcement.

THE CIRCUS.—The grand hippodrome of DEHAVEN & Co., arrived here in due time and is in "full tide of successful operation." Every body seems bent on having their fill of the sights to be seen inside as well as outside the enclosure, and we suppose everybody is bound to see them. Performances to-day and to-night.

GODEY'S Lady's Book for November has already reached us. Among its miscellaneous attractions are its splendid Fall Fashions, Embroidery and numerous other recherche patterns, and a fine line engraving representing "The Country School." GODEY has been a favorite for thirty-six years among the ladies, and they can hardly get along without his Book. His subscription prices, per annum, are as follows: One copy, $3.00; two copies, $5.00; three copies, $7.00; four copies, $10.00; five copies, (and an extra one to the person getting up a club) $14.00; eight copies (and an extra one furnished as above), $21.00; and eleven copies (with an extra one as above), $27.50—the money for any of the clubs, to be sent at one time. The Book and ARTHUR'S Home Magazine will be sent each one year on receipt of $4.50. Address L. A. GODEY, N. E. Corner Sixth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

A fine establishment with plenty in it, is that of Mr. JULIUS C. BOGEL, on the corner of Main and Lafayette streets. That enterprising merchant spares no pains or expense in keeping up with the wants and demands of the times. His "sundries" in the Grocery and Western Produce line are among the most select and abundant to be found in our city and meet with ready sale. He is attentive and obliging to customers, and the same may be said of our young friend CORNIE ALGONIC, who is in attendance "behind the counter."

BLACKMAN'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the card of this flourishing New Orleans institution, which will be found in our advertising columns. We have been personally acquainted during a period of ten years with Mr. BLACKMAN, and can safely recommend him in every particular as a gentleman and teacher. Adults as well as the young, attend his school. Copies of his College Circulars may be obtained at this office.

Messrs. JASTREMSKI & McCORMICK's drug store adjoining our office, continues to be a favorite establishment with the public, and justly so, in view of the choice and admirably well selected stock of Medicines, Drugs, Perfumeries, Wines, &c., which are always to be found there and the clever and obliging disposition they manifest, in fact well evidenced by the high consideration in which they are held by all who have dealings with them. It affords us pleasure at all times to witness, the propriety which attends them, and which they so well deserve.

Yours respectfully."
