

The Gazette & Comet

THE SPICE ISLANDS.

BY FRED. A. COZENS. "The Isles of Tidore and Tidor, whose merchants bring their spicy drugs..."

Once, in a day-dream, on the deep, No touch of fragrance filled the air, No odor-laden breeze blew...

Deep in the deep rock and tree Was imaged through the sapphire clear The cloud-land dome in the sea...

But o'er the tide, as near we drew, No touch of fragrance filled the air, No odor-laden breeze blew...

Like to those Isles some nature clear In quiet, voiceless peace repose, Till to some storm soul hovering near...

TRUST.

It's wiser being good than bad; It's safer being meek than fierce; It's better being sane than mad...

A NEW RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.—A singular religious movement has begun in England. It is proposed to unite the members of the English, Roman Catholic and Greek churches...

"An institution has been formed under the title of 'The Association for the Promotion of the Unity of Christendom'...

The names of members are to be kept strictly private, and the only obligation imposed upon those who join the association is the daily use of a short form of prayer...

OLDER THAN MASONRY.—The following mentioned society is more ancient than Masonry, and was undoubtedly in existence ages before the Christian era...

There shall be no public or private meetings of the society on any appointed days, to manage its concerns, or to hear lectures delivered before it...

It is called the "Self-Examination Society." If people would generally join the order, the world would be reformed in one generation.

We have often read pathetic speeches of Indian warriors, but have seen nothing more touching than the following, by a Comanche chief...

The Mississippi Central Railroad came through to Grand Junction yesterday. The road is now in running order to Canton, where it connects with the road to New Orleans.

Charles gave seven hundred and eighty votes for Orr for Governor, and six hundred and sixty-one for Hampton.
