ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM OVER STATE.

State Convention Held in Opelousas Tuesday Last.

Local K. of G. Handsome Building Dedicated—Successful Session.

The Annual Convention of the State Council of Knights of Columbus, held in Opelousas last week, was not in its usual formation and fraternities, but as the weather was better than usual and the festivities of the new building of the K. of G. were due to open, the enthusiasm of the members was such that it would have been impossible to prevent these from coming in numbers sufficient to make the convention a grand success.

In speaking of the growing influence of the Knights of Columbus in this State, the grand officers expressed themselves in enthusiastic terms.

The real aim of the Knights of Columbus is not to make converts, but to stimulate the religion of our Catholic country among the masses and to bring them back to the Church, where they are sure to find a home.

The order has always been approved by the Pope and is recognized as a great improvement for the Church.

The Knights of Columbus are a great social body of good men who are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The members of the Knights of Columbus are always willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The Knights of Columbus always have a special appreciation of the Church, and many of them are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The Knights of Columbus always have a special appreciation of the Church, and many of them are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The Knights of Columbus always have a special appreciation of the Church, and many of them are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The Knights of Columbus always have a special appreciation of the Church, and many of them are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.

The Knights of Columbus always have a special appreciation of the Church, and many of them are willing and ready to help any worthy cause.