

DEALING WITH THE UN-DEPORTED

America consists of Americans and of nothing but Americans. Those, who within the past few years have come to think of America as a vast mixture of languages, races and clashing doctrines, have had the wrong viewpoint. They have been thinking of America as a place, and not as an ideal. Millions of immigrants have crossed the ocean from the Old World. They have reached our shores, but many of them have never reached America. On the other hand, many of our native born are not now and never have been Americans. There is no such thing as an "American Red." There is no such thing as an "American I. W. W."

most noxious of these intruders, but these are but a small percentage of the unfit. What about the remainder? There is but one answer: They must be Americanized. This, however, is not a task for the Department of Justice, not even for Congress and the various state legislatures; it is a task for the rank and file of American citizens. It is a task of education plus, and of influence plus; it is really a task of moral coercion. It is a task for swift and energetic action, wherein American citizens in all their vast numbers must seize opportunities when they exist, and create opportunities when they do not exist, to Americanize all who come within their own circles or else to cast them out of their circles. It is no time to talk of "broad-minded sympathy," or of "conciliation," where a great question of right and wrong is involved. You cannot "conciliate" evil any more than you can "conciliate" a conflagration. Dr. S. P. Dean and James Graves, sales manager for the Riley Taylor Company, were the week-end guests of C. S. Moss.

NOT TOO LATE TO SEND YOUR CHECK

If you have not sent your check to M. Marx for the Jewish Relief Fund, it is not yet too late to give some child who has not known a full meal in five years, who has no home or friends—$10.00 will keep one of these children for a month, and possibly save its life. If you could just realize how much good a few of your dollars would do, you would send your contribution now. Suppose your little child was without a full meal in five years, had no place to sleep and no one to care for it when it was sick. Then think that there are 800,000 of them in Europe. No canvass will be made of the city to solicit funds, as those in charge feel that the cause is so worthy that no solicitation should be made, or will be necessary. It is the first time the Hebrew citizens of Bogalusa have asked for your help. You'll not only be helping a worthy cause, but sowing your appreciation of the many times that they have assisted in every civic, charitable or patriotic work.

350 NEW SCHOOL CHILDREN HERE

When the plant of the Great Southern Lumber Company and the Bogalusa Paper Company were closed last fall, there was a falling off in attendance at the schools of the city, until just prior to the holidays there were 500 less than at the opening of the schools. How fast the schools are refilling is best explained by the superintendent, Professor Ratliff, who announces that since the holidays there have been about 350 new pupils enrolled, and at the present rate the schools of the city will have a larger attendance by March 1 than when the schools opened last fall. Families from as far away as Oregon, are coming to Bogalusa and almost every state in the Union has contributed to Bogalusa's population since the early part of December.

TEACHER VERY SICK

Miss Anne Mayers, one of the popular teachers of the Bogalusa High School, is reported to be very sick at her home in Brandon, Miss., where she went a week ago to attend the funeral of her brother. During her illness, a Miss Eskridge of Carrollton, Miss., is teaching her classes.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hennick wish to sincerely thank neighbors and friends for their kind sympathy and floral offerings in our hour of bereavement in the loss of our daughter, Beatrice Hennick, who died in Kansas City, Mo., February 2, and was buried in Bogalusa February 5. All have our most sincere and heartfelt gratitude. MR. AND MRS. J. H. HENNICK AND FAMILY.

GOVERNOR SANDERS

Governor J. Y. Sanders left Bogalusa for a few days last week left Sunday for Washington to resume his congressional duties. Governor Sanders says since his announcement that he will seek the nomination of Senator Gay, he has received hundreds of letters from influential citizens stating they would support him. He expects the race to be a close one, and he predicts he will lead the ticket in the first go-round.
