

FOR PRESIDENT. JOHN BELL, OF TENNESSEE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. EDWARD EVERETT, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Electoral College list including names like Rivier, Giddens, etc.

Constitutional Union Party Platform

Whereas experience has demonstrated that platforms adopted by the National Conventions...

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNTRY, THE UNION OF THE STATES, AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

And that as representatives of the Constitution...

Position of Mr. Breckinridge

In 1850, Mr. Breckinridge did not consider it indelicate upon the dignity of his position...

OF AN CONNECTED WITH NO PARTY THAT HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY...

IT HAPPENED TO BE IN CONGRESS WHEN THE NEBRASKA BILL PASSED AND GAVE IT MY OTE...

Yanceyism

It is said that R. A. Hunter one of the leaders from the Charleston Convention...

"LET THE UNION GO TO HELL"

"I had the power, I would dissolve this government in two minutes."

"Let us break up this rotten, stinking, and oppressive government."

"Resistance! Resistance! to death against the government is what we want."

"Break up and dissolve this rotten Yancey government."

"Let the union go!"

"My voice is for war!"

IT IS TRUE!—The Washington correspondent of Fernoy's "Press" telegraphed...

"Surrounding and overhauling the stand here the speakers appeared, was a large British flag..."

It is true!—Exchange

It is true!—Not only was there a British flag, but a French flag and a Spanish flag...

It is true!—The Alexandria (Va.) Gazette recently published a notice...

It is true!—The Washington correspondent of Fernoy's "Press" telegraphed...

It is true!—The Washington correspondent of Fernoy's "Press" telegraphed...

For Whom Shall I Vote?

In the present dismemberment of old party ties and associations it is natural there should be many undecided as yet in what direction to throw their influence...

Our purpose is based upon the supposition that all are actuated by one and the same desire, viz: to defeat Lincoln...

Altogether there are three objects to be done by the Republican party...

In the first place we affirm, he is the nominee of the North...

That nothing better could be done than to consider as authoritative and binding the introduction of slavery...

For this nomination, Seward, Chase, Fremont, and others voted...

Here we again find Mr. Douglas voting with Seward, Fremont, Chase in the affirmative...

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude otherwise than upon conviction for crimes...

With these and many similar remarks, Mr. Douglas's odious doctrine of equivoqueness...

We cannot but regard Mr. Douglas's doctrine as opposed to the true spirit and genius of our institutions...

The next candidate that demands our attention is Mr. Breckinridge...

Mr. Douglas is the nominee of that faction, he was selected by seceders from the regular Democratic Convention...

Mr. Douglas is the best man for the Southern people.

Mr. Douglas is the best man for the Southern people.

Mr. Douglas is the best man for the Southern people.

Mr. Douglas is the best man for the Southern people.

READ AND REFLECT.

As one of the sentinels upon the watch tower of the political liberties of our common country...

We have a fair proposition to make to all those who honor us with a personal and that is, we start out with the positive asseveration...

Remember that this enormous increase has occurred in a time of profound peace...

There was no necessity for wasting or squandering the people's money...

Now these figures are facts, stubborn facts, and we challenge a scrutiny with a political microscope...

Our contemporary of the Louisiana Democrat, in accordance with his manner of parting his own precepts...

Breckinridge men, 24. Douglas men, 2. Bell men, 5. Aggregate 34!!!

THE U. S. FREGATE CONSTITUTION.—Old "Ironsides" is now moored at the United States Naval Academy...

Too Numerous.—The Augusta Constitutional, commenting upon the recent grand Bill and Everett demonstration...

Those Bell meetings, by the way, are getting too numerous of late to be pleasant...

The President's election takes place on Tuesday, 6th of November.

The law fixes it for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November...

The reason for this discrimination is that by law the Electors must be appointed within thirty days previous to the first of November...

Lincoln is a candidate in this country.

Like other "abolitionists" he will be sent to Washington.

The beautiful woman and girls are within this contest—they are all Bibles.

The Breckinridge Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the only hope now left for the defeat of Lincoln is in the Douglas-Bell movement of the North.

A very large Bell and Everett Club was organized in Ephraim, on the 18th inst.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.

FOR WHOM SHALL I VOTE?

As one of the sentinels upon the watch tower of the political liberties of our common country...

We have a fair proposition to make to all those who honor us with a personal and that is, we start out with the positive asseveration...

Remember that this enormous increase has occurred in a time of profound peace...

There was no necessity for wasting or squandering the people's money...

Now these figures are facts, stubborn facts, and we challenge a scrutiny with a political microscope...

Our contemporary of the Louisiana Democrat, in accordance with his manner of parting his own precepts...

Breckinridge men, 24. Douglas men, 2. Bell men, 5. Aggregate 34!!!

THE U. S. FREGATE CONSTITUTION.—Old "Ironsides" is now moored at the United States Naval Academy...

Too Numerous.—The Augusta Constitutional, commenting upon the recent grand Bill and Everett demonstration...

Those Bell meetings, by the way, are getting too numerous of late to be pleasant...

The President's election takes place on Tuesday, 6th of November.

The law fixes it for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November...

The reason for this discrimination is that by law the Electors must be appointed within thirty days previous to the first of November...

Lincoln is a candidate in this country.

Like other "abolitionists" he will be sent to Washington.

The beautiful woman and girls are within this contest—they are all Bibles.

The Breckinridge Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the only hope now left for the defeat of Lincoln is in the Douglas-Bell movement of the North.

A very large Bell and Everett Club was organized in Ephraim, on the 18th inst.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.

OPPOSITION.

Readers of the CONSTITUTIONAL, we are called by the Yancey-dissension wing of the Democracy the Opposition party...

First and foremost, we are opposed to Yancey-Breckinridge-Sidell-dissension Democracy.

We are opposed to the enormous and unnecessary increase of the public expenditures...

We are opposed to Presidential interference, or that of minor office-holders...

We are opposed to the exciting and fomenting of jealousies between the various sections of the country...

We are opposed, determined and undyingly opposed, to a dissolution of the Union...

We are opposed to the further agitation of the slavery question...

We are opposed to the division of the country into two sectional parties...

We are opposed to the borrowing of money and the creation of a public debt by the National Government...

We are opposed in fine to the disunion Democracy, whose leader is Wm. L. Yancey of Alabama...

Opposition! Why we like the name, particularly at this juncture of ornamental affairs...

We are willing to fight under a banner that has upon its ample folds OPPOSITION...

Too Numerous.—The Augusta Constitutional, commenting upon the recent grand Bill and Everett demonstration...

Those Bell meetings, by the way, are getting too numerous of late to be pleasant...

The President's election takes place on Tuesday, 6th of November.

The law fixes it for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November...

The reason for this discrimination is that by law the Electors must be appointed within thirty days previous to the first of November...

Lincoln is a candidate in this country.

Like other "abolitionists" he will be sent to Washington.

The beautiful woman and girls are within this contest—they are all Bibles.

The Breckinridge Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the only hope now left for the defeat of Lincoln is in the Douglas-Bell movement of the North.

A very large Bell and Everett Club was organized in Ephraim, on the 18th inst.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.

A Chapter of Breckinridge.

Readers of the CONSTITUTIONAL, we are called by the Yancey-dissension wing of the Democracy the Opposition party...

First and foremost, we are opposed to Yancey-Breckinridge-Sidell-dissension Democracy.

We are opposed to the enormous and unnecessary increase of the public expenditures...

We are opposed to Presidential interference, or that of minor office-holders...

We are opposed to the exciting and fomenting of jealousies between the various sections of the country...

We are opposed, determined and undyingly opposed, to a dissolution of the Union...

We are opposed to the further agitation of the slavery question...

We are opposed to the division of the country into two sectional parties...

We are opposed to the borrowing of money and the creation of a public debt by the National Government...

We are opposed in fine to the disunion Democracy, whose leader is Wm. L. Yancey of Alabama...

Opposition! Why we like the name, particularly at this juncture of ornamental affairs...

We are willing to fight under a banner that has upon its ample folds OPPOSITION...

Too Numerous.—The Augusta Constitutional, commenting upon the recent grand Bill and Everett demonstration...

Those Bell meetings, by the way, are getting too numerous of late to be pleasant...

The President's election takes place on Tuesday, 6th of November.

The law fixes it for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November...

The reason for this discrimination is that by law the Electors must be appointed within thirty days previous to the first of November...

Lincoln is a candidate in this country.

Like other "abolitionists" he will be sent to Washington.

The beautiful woman and girls are within this contest—they are all Bibles.

The Breckinridge Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the only hope now left for the defeat of Lincoln is in the Douglas-Bell movement of the North.

A very large Bell and Everett Club was organized in Ephraim, on the 18th inst.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.

BRECKINRIDGE ON THE KANSAS BILL.

"Did not the non-slaveholding States (generally) insist that the true policy was the prohibition of slavery in the Territories of the Union by act of Congress...

Who, then, by advocating intervention, is violating the compact of 1850? Who is violating the compact of 1854? Who are the disturbers of this final settlement? Who are the agitators? Who are unfaithful to the compromises of 1850 and the acts of 1854? John C. Breckinridge and his Disunion party.

Among the many misrepresentations of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, perhaps none is more flagrant than the charge that it proposes to legislate slavery into Nebraska and Kansas.

We are opposed to the exciting and fomenting of jealousies between the various sections of the country by misrepresenting the aims and opinions of the people of the different sections...

We are opposed, determined and undyingly opposed, to a dissolution of the Union...

We are opposed to the further agitation of the slavery question...

We are opposed to the division of the country into two sectional parties...

We are opposed to the borrowing of money and the creation of a public debt by the National Government...

We are opposed in fine to the disunion Democracy, whose leader is Wm. L. Yancey of Alabama...

Opposition! Why we like the name, particularly at this juncture of ornamental affairs...

We are willing to fight under a banner that has upon its ample folds OPPOSITION...

Too Numerous.—The Augusta Constitutional, commenting upon the recent grand Bill and Everett demonstration...

Those Bell meetings, by the way, are getting too numerous of late to be pleasant...

The President's election takes place on Tuesday, 6th of November.

The law fixes it for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November...

The reason for this discrimination is that by law the Electors must be appointed within thirty days previous to the first of November...

Lincoln is a candidate in this country.

Like other "abolitionists" he will be sent to Washington.

The beautiful woman and girls are within this contest—they are all Bibles.

The Breckinridge Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the only hope now left for the defeat of Lincoln is in the Douglas-Bell movement of the North.

A very large Bell and Everett Club was organized in Ephraim, on the 18th inst.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.

It is said that Mr. Dallas, our Minister to England, has declared for Douglas.