"Give God A Chance"

Who Is This Gipsy Smith?

Gipsy Smith, now more than 60 years of age, is a man of remarkable attainments. From the humble Gipsy tent of his birth, he has attained an enviable reputation, not only as a preacher of the Gospel, but as an orator as well.

Gipsy Smith does not resort to sensationalism, but speaks with a directness and an earnestness that carries conviction. In Boston, Chicago, Indianapolis, Pittsburg, and the scores of other cities where he has spoken, thousands were turned away nightly for lack of accomodation. Even Kansas City's enormous auditorium, seating 18,000 people, was inadequate.

New Orleans' Largest Auditorium

The Gipsy Smith Tabernacle, Clip between St. Charles and Prytania, seating more than 5000, is the largest auditorium in the city. The seats are so arranged to give everyone a clear view of the speaker, and an amplifier over the platform will carry his voice to all parts of the building.

Choir Of 500 Voices

One of the biggest features of the Gipsy Smith Meetings will be the singing of the big choir of 500 voices. This is possibly the largest chorus that has ever sung in the South, and will be under the direction of Wm. McEwan, Gipsy Smith's Song Leader.
