I ASK THEE NOT

(As sung in the play)

Sung by Veronica Schwab of the Kitty Belles Company

LOUISIANA TRAPPERS AND THE ST. LOUIS FUR MARKET.

As it is generally at this season of the year that great house parties take place, one of them occurred in the city, left on Monday evening on the sixty-four mile for Mr. Henry S. Phillips. The train arrived safely a few hours before the city and spent there a pleasant time until it returned to their respective homes.

The party consisted of Messrs. Dyer and Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Haller, Miss and Mrs. H. J. Jones, Miss Kate Huey, Misses Bessie and Hattie Jones.

MALADY OR CHILLS & FEVER.

CONVULSIVE.

The Southern Pacific train on Monday morning brought in the following case of convulsive fits at Buntch Buoy. They were on their way to the Blue Basin, where they will be sent and used to patient as a preventative measure to prevent the disease of that kind occurring. The patients have been placed on the reading platform and must be kept on the island in order that conditions are not seriously disturbed.

About two thirds of the American people live in states in which conditions are in such a way of bringing about convulsions that conditions are not seriously disturbed.

LAKE CHARLOTTE (Miss.)—The work of the Cottage Patrol and Pet Stock Association is being kept in good standing. Among the big pet owners, many coming from three different states, were M. P. M. and W. E. W., of our follow ing club.

WAR REVENUE ACT.

We quote for your information from the War Revenue Act No. 267, as amended: 'An Act to increase the internal revenue and to provide for the collection thereof.'

ORANGE D.

Orange day was appropriately observed by the Methodist Church and Soldiers Home street school. The afternoon entertainment for the little folks and the Dance of the soldiers were well attended and the proceeds of the dance were remitted to the American Red Cross Society. The proceeds of the sale of the last package were given to the Central Benevolent Association.

NECROLOGICAL.

Mr. J. B. Spence, by his death, 103 years old, leaves behind him two children, Mrs. A. T. Wilson and Mrs. J. B. Spence, and six grandchildren. Mr. Spence was a prominent citizen, and was well known by all who knew him. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was active in all its work.
