PROSPECTUS OF THE NATIONAL LABOR UNION

OF THE BUREAU OF LABOR OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Below citizens and workmen of the United States:

The question of the hour is, How can the workingman best improve his condition?

It should be the aim of every man to become a capitalist; that is, every man should try and receive an exchange for his labor.

It is the duty of our National Labor Union and more particularly the Bureau of Labor created by your delegates assembled from nearly every State in the Union.

We look with painful emotion upon the present condition of colored labor in the several States. Disorganized, poorly paid, assaulted, and in many cases, rotting in different kinds of jails.

We advise you, first, to immediately organize, because labor can only protect itself when organized.

It is worth without organization, you stand in danger of being returned. You cannot expect to be profitably employed, and the trader will cheat you out of the result.

We would call your attention to, and advise, and that you form yourselves into cooperative Trade Unions.

Trade Unions. While these are the most beneficial associations of men in times, they require much judgment, and intellectual ability to make them a success.
