MINOR LOCALS.

Melinda for sale by E. L. Bowes.

We had our first seed of Italian beans come out on Tuesday last.

New market in 10 lbs. kits at 7 cents per lb.

The farmers think they did not need the heavy rains of Tuesday night.

Grason's Elegant Tea New, cheap.

The Oxford Agricultural Society will hold their spring Fair on June 23 and 24.

"Pete" W. Wilson has sold his stock of hay, etc., to C. C. McWier, and will return to Oxford, Pa.

The continuous rainy weather of last week and the death of our farmer's corn not planted.

New invoice of French Satins in black and white at small figures at E. R. Bosting's.

We don't know that the apple crop is in, but it is a matter of some concern for the colder weather.

A movement has been started to build a church by the M. E. Congregation of Rising Sun.

The last session of the Legislature passed a bill authorizing the purchase of all the post office materials which is expected for its future use.

A nice line of ladies slippers just arrived at W. J. Atkins.

Rev. Mr. Jewell will preach on the subject "Losing Our New Sunday evening, in the M. E. Church, Rising Sun.

R. J. B. Bristor got into the way last night. George had better leave the ministry and engage in some other occupation.

Go to E. R. Bosting's and compare Black rock with any sample you may have given in the city.

John Lamb, caught a stove in his breakfast and had another one knocked over.

Peter Roberts rode his sheep raised by Hughy on Wednesday last. One sheep was killed and another wounded.

The Public Schools of the County close up the half term today. Miss Owens will open a subscription school in the school building in Rising Sun after the close of the public school.

The constant wet weather for the last two weeks has stimulated the wheat to an extent which threatens to lower the price by a few hundred growth and some dangers and it will take time to correct the damage.

CABBAGE CURED, health and may be purchased for a penny a head. Brinton's Price 25c. newborn, Price 25c. New.

The large sale of Jersey stock at Maryland City was held Thursday last. We cannot give a fair price, 200 dollars for a cow and $90.00 for a heifer, at a large number of cattle sold at fair prices.

Our branch at Oxford on line Wye at May West Wye near Oxford, delivered corn, during this week to 1500 bushels, and many more are expected to reach Oxford weekly.

For a fine line of ladies and men's slippers.

They have been desirous of the change of the false bottoms in the men's room in the n cessary. A solution in soap and water will be the next best treatment.

Mrs. Black will deliver a temperature a little_ It's just down the street from the fire house and it did not have the roof over it. The hall was large and all the ladies and gentlemen were invited to attend the banquet.

You will suffer with Dys-and should not be beyond music. It is one of the best ways of getting rid of the disease. It is one of the best ways of getting rid of the disease.