Saint Mary's Beacon.
COUNTY NEWS.

Lett.

The first contest this season between Osage and St. Mary's was played on Monday, the 20th inst., the former having seven players and St. Mary's eight. The score was forty-four to thirty, the St. Mary's team winning. The score was low and the contest hard.

Baltimore Orioles.

The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Continentals by the score of four to zero, the former team having the better of the game.

JACOB BENTON.

As the report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.

The report of the regimental officers of the Fifty-sixth Pennsylvania, which was addressed to the state at the close of the war, shows, a large number of the regimental officers were connected with the service.