Barrett may enter the Naval Academy.

The Naval Academy will be the first stop for the new sentence of a naval cadet.

Barrett's sentence will be immediately followed by his arrival at the Naval Academy, where he will begin his training.

Barrett's sentence will include attending classes and participating in various activities at the Academy.

Barrett will be expected to follow the rules and regulations of the Naval Academy, including punctuality, discipline, and academic performance.

Barrett's sentence will last for a period of three years, during which time he will be required to complete his training and earn a diploma from the Naval Academy.

Barrett will be assigned to a specific station, where he will be required to perform a variety of tasks.

Barrett will be expected to participate in all cadet activities, including physical training, sports, and social events.

Barrett's sentence will include a period of military service, during which he will be required to work with other cadets and officers.

Barrett's sentence will include a period of academic study, during which he will be required to attend classes and complete assignments.

Barrett's sentence will include a period of marine service, during
which he will be required to work on naval vessels and ships.

Barrett's sentence will include a period of executive service, during
which he will be required to work in the Naval...