TERRIBLE CALAMITY.

BURNING OF THE INSANE HOSPITAL AT AUGUSTA—LOSS OF MANY LIVES.

We gather from the Age and Journal, Augusta papers, the following particulars of this melancholy event, which took place last Wednesday morning.

As we write, (Wednesday morning, Dec. 4.) the noble structure for the accommodation of the insane, erected by the State, (aided by private munificence) at an expense of more than $200,000, is burning. Already the entire south wings are a complete ruin; all above the second story of the central section is in the same condition, and the remainder is in imminent hazard of being entirely destroyed.

The fire was first discovered this morning, between two and three o'clock. It is supposed to have originated in the air chamber contiguous to the furnace in the old south wing, (situated between the central section and the new south wing.) There are but few dwellings in the vicinity of the hospital, and considerable time elapsed before the alarm of fire was communicated to many of our citizens.

Unfortunately the engine belonging to this city was not in working condition, having a day or two since been taken to pieces for repairs. The arsenal engine went to the rescue as early as practicable, and the Hallows engines were promptly brought to the scene three miles from the fire, and did not get into play until six, and then, there being no adequate supply of water, they had to work from the river, a quarter of a mile distant, and more than two hundred feet below the elevation of the hospital.

The first efforts of the officers and attendants were divided between attempts to stay the flames, and to rescue the inmates. The last was severely impeded, and in many instances rendered impossible, by the dense issue of gas and smoke proceeding from the air chamber through the floor of the galleries. One of the attendants, Mr. James P. Weeks, was seriously injured in attempting to rescue those under his charge; we are informed that it is doubtful whether he will recover. Another, Mr. Henry Jones is at present missing; the last that was known of him being his efforts to save lives.

Owing to the wallowing inmates several of the inmates are known to have perished—how many, we cannot now say. They were all male, situated in the old south wing. Those in the female galleries were all saved.

Much difficulty was experienced in removing the inmates, some of whom had to be forced out of the building. Others, after being put out, would not budge. One poor fellow, after being twice taken away, ran back to his gallery and perished.

There were 124 inmates of the hospital, of whom we were informed, some 70 males occupied the wings in which the fire raged. Large numbers of the inmates were necessarily treated lower at once, and are wandering at random. Many others were taken to the jail, to the almshouse, and to the dwellings of our citizens.

Towns and individuals are earnestly requested to send agents and remove the insane, who are, by this calamity, left without suitable provision for their wants.

Some of the poor maniacs were found by those of our citizens who first approached the scene, wandering about, half-clothed, barefooted and almost pining from the cold. The houses on the road were readily opened to them, and the best of care bestowed.

The hospital is over a mile from the city, and our people could not be alarmed at that dead hour of the night in season to render much assistance. Over an hour had elapsed before any had arrived.

Very little water was to be found about the premises; and we think the Legislature has very wisely neglected the construction of proper and ample reservoirs, and the purchase of a small engine for the establishment. Had these been at hand last night, the whole building might have been saved. As it is, it will cost from $50,000 to $50,000 to re-construct.

THURSDAY, AFTERNOON, DEC. 5.

We have obtained from the officers of the Insane Hospital the following list of the patients known to have been saved from the fire, and of those still missing. The surnames only were furnished us; the records not being at hand, the first names and residences could not be given.

The female patients, 47 in number, were all removed in safety, having been in the north wing. The male patients numbered 70, as follows:

Known to be saved. Barlow, Vicky, Danham, Kezer, Lewis, Wheeler, Knights, Goding, McArthur, Butterfield, Morton, Howard, Moore, Robbins, Robinson, Minot, Shays, Hemmaway, Laper, John Jones, Copeland, Spencer, Stearns, Boardman, Matthews, Woodbury, Nutcrass, Colburn, White, Evans, Dargan, Mudgett, Sprague, Pressey, Coffin, Ambrose Jones, Sanborn, Hanson, Underhill, Kim, Kenon, Maxwell, Forsyth, Staples, Mc Carthy, Pond, Hart, Brown, Dwyer, Smalley, Crowley, Otis—51.

Dead or missing. Lissett of Bangor, (taken out almost suffocated, and since dead.) Armstrong of Gardner, Wyman of Readfield, Richards, Willis, M. Lellan, Pines, Holsdon, Harlow, Dennison, M'Vay, Payson, Notwood, Fuller, Perry, Blake, Atkinson, Nat. Wilson, Pierce, Kinsel, Dennet, Heath, Carnel, Flink, Foster, Green, Jacobs, McKen-indeed, for their courageous efforts in behalf of the sufferers.

Regarding the causes of this most lamentable catastrophe, and the degree of blame attributable to any one, we all say nothing; until the jury of inquest shall render its verdict. The inquest was commenced this afternoon, and will probably be continued for several days.

The building is in better condition than was at first supposed—a large portion of the walls being unimpaired. The north wing is saved entire, and part of the main building. The whole main front is saved; and the north, east and west walls of the new south wing, together with a portion of the walls of the old south wing, are in sound condition, and we think will not have to be taken down. Very little water reached any portion of the walls, as they are all lined with brick.

The stables, lodges, and out buildings were all preserved.

The "Deluge" engine of this city, (its repairs having been completed,) together with the "Uncle Sam," were on the spot throughout the day yesterday, and the Deluge during last night—extinguishing the remains of the fire.

A YANKEE AT "POKER"—A Yankee and a Southerner were playing poker on a steamer. "I haven't seen an ace for some time," remarked the Southerner. "Well I guess you haint," said the Yankee, "but I can tell you where they are. One of them is in your shirt sleeve there, and the other three are in the top of my butes."

THE CHINESE DOCTORS.—The Chinese doctors are not paid for the number of doses they give their patients and the length of their sickness, but they are paid to keep their subjects from being sick; the sick days of the subject are deducted from the doctor's yearly salary. The Chinese may well laugh at our barbarism, in the way of paying our doctors—but if we were to adopt the Chinese rule, our doctors would be very scarce, unless they had perfect command over our diet, labor, and exercise.

THE CULTIVATION OF CRANBERRIES, is a subject to which our farmers who have waste bog land should turn their attention. It is a very profitable crop, and one well adapted to the climate. Mr. Edw. Thibault, of Yarmouth, makes a statement, published by the Barnstable Patriot, concerning his first experiments. His net profits were $300 from one fourth of an acre. The Belfast Signal says that Cranberries are cultivated with much success by Mr. Stetson of Northport.

MARYLAND REFORM CONVENTION.—Annapolis, Dec. 10.—A series of resolutions were reported to-day, by the special committee, in favor of the compromise measures of the last session of Congress. The third resolution declares, that while the several acts of Congress, on this subject, are in some respects oppressive to the South, nevertheless they are dedicated from the doctor's yearly salary. The Chinese may well laugh at our barbarism, in the way of paying our doctors—but if we were to adopt the Chinese rule, our doctors would be very scarce, unless they had perfect command over our diet, labor, and exercise.

NEW YORK, DEC. 10. The meeting at Richmond, Saturday evening, to endorse the President for not quelling the Boston excitement, and in favor of non-interference, was a failure.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—REMOVAL OF SLAVES. Our present Constitution being now the sanctioned law of California, slavery will not be tolerated within its borders; and those who have brought slaves within the boundaries of the State, under the impression that they would eventually become a slave State, will have to remove them or set them free.

The coming legislature, in justice to citizens of the Southern States, who have brought their slaves into California, will no doubt pass a law specifying a time within which all slaves shall be removed. Many southern men, in ignorance of the provisions of our constitution, and others believing that at least the Southern portion of California, would be erected into a slave territory, have brought their slaves within the State. We suppose there will be no objection to their removal, and that the title to such property will not be impaired by their limited residence in this new free State.—Stockton Journal.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF OHIO.—Gov. Ford's Message to the Ohio Legislature was read on the 4th inst. The features of the State are represented to be in a very prosperous condition; the public debt having been reduced $1,273,921, in the course of 5 years, and there being $750,000 now on hand to be applied to the same purpose. The Gov. recommends a thorough revision of the statutes on Education, and the establishment of an efficient system of common schools. Another Lunatic Asylum is said to be necessary. A State Reform School is recommended. The Agricultural interests of the State are commended to the special attention of the Legislature. The Fugitive Slave Law is considered in a temperate manner. He alludes to the law as objectionable on several grounds; but deprecates violent resistance to it as essentially rebellious, and not the way to procure the repeal or modification of the law.
