NOTICE.

THE Copartnership under the firm of WATSON & CLARK, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.—All persons who have accounts open with said firm, are requested to settle the same by the first of August next.

SAMUEL WATSON, SETH CLARK

Portland, July 14, 1806.

TAKE NOTICE.

AS the subscribers are about dissolving partnership, they request all those who have any demands against them, to exhibit them;—and all indebted, either by note or account, to make immediate payment.
Those who do not settle their notes and accounts that are now due, within sixty days, may depend on being prosecuted without further notice;—but we hope no one will dis-oblige us so much as to put us to that trouble, nor subject themselves to the unnecessary expense attending it.

Wm. R. & C. Stockbridge.
Northyarmouth, July 14.

THE subscriber hereby gives public notice to all concerned, that she has been duly appointed, and has taken upon herself the trust of Executrix of the last Will and Testament of

ISAAC LOBDELL,

late of Falmouth, in the county of Cumberland, gentleman deceased, by giving bond as the law directs.—She therefore requests all persons who are indebted to the said deceased's estate to make immediate payment; and those who have any demands thereon, to exhibit the same to MARY LOBDELL.
Dated, July 10th, 1806.

To the Proprietors of a tract of land

Newbury, July 14.

Oxford, ss.—Court Common Pleas,
June term, A. D. 1806.

ON the petition of John Stevens, of Concord, in the county of Rockingham, and state of New Hampshire, administrator of the estate of Sarah Stevens, late of said Concord, widow, deceased, shewing that said Sarah was duly appointed administratrix of the estate of John Stevens, late of said Concord, deceased, and in said capacity was, on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, authorized by the Legislature of Massachusetts, to sell eight thousand acres of wild and unimproved land in Penycrook, (now Rumford) in the province of Maine, part of said deceased's estate, and in pursuance of said Resolve, the said Sarah, in her said capacity, had since made a bond to one Nathan Adams, conditioned to execute and deliver to him a quitclaim deed of said deceased's right to part of said lands, and that said Sarah, before the fulfillment of the condition of said land, died.—And praying to be authorized to carry into effect the contract of said Sarah, and to be empowered to execute a deed of said land, in conformity to said bond.—The Court order, that the petitioner cause the substance of his petition to be published, with this order thereon, three weeks successively, in the Portland Gazette, printed in Portland, the last publication to be at least thirty days before the setting of this Court, that all persons interested therein may then and there appear, and shew cause (if any they have) why the prayer thereof should not be granted.

Attest—
Cyrus Hamlin, Clerk.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Oxford, holden at Paris, in and for said county on the second Tuesday of June, Anno Domini 1806.

THE petition and representation of Zeb-ebus Kingman, of Waterford, in said county, administrator on the estate of Molbory Kingman, late of said Waterford, gentleman, deceased, humbly shews: That the goods and chattels belonging to said deceased's estate, are not sufficient by the sum of two hundred dollars, to answer the just debts which the said deceased owed at the time of his death; the whole of the real estate of said deceased consists of forty-seven acres and three quarters of an acre of land, with the buildings thereon, situated in Waterford, aforesaid; and that, by a partial sale, the residue thereof would be greatly injured. He therefore prays that your Honors would grant him licence to sell the whole of the real estate of said deceased, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy the said debts, with incidental charges. And as in duty bound will ever pray, &c.
ZEBEBUS KINGMAN.

Oxford, ss.—Court of Common Pleas,
June term, A. D. 1806.

ON the petition aforesaid, ordered by the Court, that the petitioner notify all parties concerned in said estate, to appear at the next Court of Common Pleas, to be holden at Paris, within and for the county of Oxford, on the second Tuesday of October next, on the second day of said term, to shew cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Attest—
CYRUS HAMBLIN, Clerk.

To the honorable Justices of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the county of Oxford, to be holden at Paris, within and for the county of Oxford, on the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1806.

THE subscribers inhabitants of the town of Jay, Thompson plantation (so called) and Plantation No. one, on the southwardly side of Androscoggin river, humbly represent—That a public highway, or county road would be of public utility on the southwardly side of the river aforesaid; beginning at the county road in Jay, near Whitney brook, (so called) from thence following up said Androscoggin river, in the most convenient place, to Fox's grant, (so called) in said No. one; thence through said grant, to Lunt's grant, so called; thence through said Lunt's grant, to Widgery's grant, so called; thence through said Widgery's grant, (which said grants are not within any incorporated towns) to the town of Rumford; thence through the town of Rumford, to the county road in Bethel. Said road to follow the river as near as convenience will admit. We pray your honors to cause said road to be laid out, so that it may be made and repaired, that the people may pass and repass with safety and convenience; and your petitioners as in duty bound, will ever pray.

DAVID AUSTIN, Jun. and 27 others.
Oxford, ss.—At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, begun and holden at Paris, within and for the county of Oxford,
