THREE FIRES.

Ellsworth Has Had More Than Its Share the Past Week.

Ellsworth has had more than its share of fires during the past week, three occurring within as many days.

Saturday night about midnight the house of Michael Shee, on the eastern road, was burned flat. This house was new, being built by Mr. Shee on the site of one burned in August, 1912. Being beyond the water limits, the firemen could do nothing. A portion of the furniture was saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from an over-heated parlor stove. There was an insurance of $1,000 on the house and $700 on the furniture.

The second fire of the week occurred Monday morning about 1 o'clock, when the building on South street, formerly occupied by the late Capt. S. L. Lord as a carriage factory, was burned. The building was owned by Fred H. Osgood, who used it as a storehouse for carriages and sleighs, a few of which were saved. A quantity of furniture owned by Capt.
Nehemiah H. Means was also stored in the building. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Tuesday afternoon the Burnham tenement house on Third street, owned by A.
F. Burnham, was damaged by fire. The fire started in the upper part of the house, evidently around a chimney, and burned through the roof. The fire did not reach the lower part of the house, but the building was pretty thoroughly wet down.
Three families were occupying apartments in the house. The building was insured.

Attacked by Cat.

Mrs. George Harris, of Boston, formerly Marion Stevens McCoy, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. W. Wooster, at Washington Junction, while stooping to pet a kitten, was attacked by the mother cat and deeply scratched upon her face and hands. After shaking off the infuriated animal, she ran into another room, but before being able to close the door she was again attacked and badly scratched upon the ankles.

It was necessary to summon a physician to treat the wounds. Mrs. Harris will remain with Mrs. Wooster until May.

Fatal Accident at Seal Harbor.

Mrs. Linda M. Lynam, of Seal Harbor, aged seventy-two years, was killed last Wednesday by a fall through a trap door into the cellar, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Lynam. Her skull was fractured by the fall. She lived about two hours after the accident.

Mrs. Lynam was the widow of Capt. E.
V. Lynam. She leaves two daughters—Miss Mabel Lynam, of Dover, and Mrs. R.
E. Campbell, of Portland.

CITY ELECTION.

REPUBLICANS REGAIN CONTROL OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

DR. HAGERTHY ELECTED FOR HIS SEVENTH TERM AS MAYOR — RE-PUBLICAN STREET COMMISSION-ER AND FOUR ALDERMEN.

In the municipal election Monday the republicans wrested the reins of government from the hands of the democrats, re-electing Dr. Hagerthy as mayor, and with him four republican aldermen. George F.
Newman, republican, was elected street commissioner.

The election was devoid of special features. Dr. Hagerthy's majority, 34, was just twice that of last year. In four of the wards the vote for alderman was close, the majorities being nine, eight, seven and five. Horace F. Wescott, republican, in ward 1, had a liberal majority of 53. The other republican alderman elected are Owen H. Trewworgy, in ward 3; Eugene H. Moore, ward 4, and Timothy F.
Mahoney, ward 5. John A. Stuart, of ward 2, is the lone democratic alderman.
He and Ald. Trewworgy are the only members of last year's board re-elected, excepting, of course, the mayor.

Following is the vote of the city in detail, from the official returns, with the vote for mayor in 1914 for comparison:

	1	2	3	4	5	Total	1914

In ward 5, Daniel E. Hurley, the defeated candidate for alderman, requested an inspection of the ballots. This was held yesterday at the clerk's office. The inspection showed an apparent loss for Mr. Hurley of seven votes, his vote being 92 instead of 99 as shown by the returns.

H. B. Estey has asked for an inspection of the ballots for alderman in ward 2.
