

Advertisements

Confidence

The man who keeps his money in the bank while he has plenty creates a friend in the bank to whom he can turn when he has little. Having confidence in this bank begets its confidence in you, and we can't, any of us, get very far on the road to success without giving and receiving confidence. This bank has fairly earned your confidence through twenty-five years of square dealing and helpful service. It will appreciate your account, check, savings or safe deposit.

Burrill National Bank OF ELLSWORTH.

WHEN YOU WRITE CHECKS.

Instead of handing out cash, you make payments by the simplest, safest, easiest method—and avoid all possibility of making losses through mistakes. We tender you the services of this bank on most favorable terms: urge your immediate inquiry for details how YOU can easily open a check account with us.

EASTERN TRUST & BANKING CO.,
Bangor, Maine.
Branches at Old Town, Machias and Dexter.

Correspondence Solicited. Telephone.

O. W. Tapley, FIRE INSURANCE, ELLSWORTH, MAINE.

Prompt Adjustments. Lowest Rates.

C. W. GRINDAL, Water St.

Drain Seed Oats Pipe
Fertilizers

Sheathing Paper. Amatite Roofing.

A BURNING BUILDING

should cause you to think and ponder whether or not your home and business are protected by insurance. Don't let the demon FIRE catch you without protection. Let's get together for mutual benefit TO-DAY.

C. W. & F. L. MASON, INSURANCE, REAL ESTATE
ELLSWORTH, MAINE.

NAVAJO RUGS

Just a few left. Will only be on sale a short time.

Topographical Maps from Maine to Mass. and to White Mountain district.

Auto and yacht Pennants.

J. A. THOMPSON, Main St.

Property owners will be protected from fire by placing their

Fire Insurance

with E. J. WALSH, ELLSWORTH.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS WEEK.

Admiral notice—Est of Cynthia Carter.
Com inland fisheries and game—Public notice.
Frank S Lord—Motor boat for sale.
EAST SURRY:
George H Wasson—House for sale.
SOUTH BROOKSVILLE:
Willie E Chatto—Stallion for service.
BANGOR:
Eastern Trust & Banking Co.
WATERVILLE:
Bluehill steam laundry for sale.

SCHEDULE OF MAILS AT ELLSWORTH POSTOFFICE. In effect April 14, 1912.

MAILS RECEIVED.
FROM WEST—7:18 a m; 4:14, 6:25 p m.
FROM EAST—11:06, 11:57 a m; 5:47, 10:52 p m.
MAIL CLOSURES AT POSTOFFICE
GOING WEST—10:30, 11:30 a m; 5:15, 9 p m.
GOING EAST—6:45 a m; 3:45, 6 p m.

Registered mail should be at postoffice half an hour before mail closes.
Sunday train arrives at 8:11 a m; leaves 5:20 p m. Mail closes at 4 p m for 5:20 train at 4:50 p m. Postoffice open on Sunday from 9 to 10 a m.

TEN PAGES.

Fourteen new voters were registered in Ellsworth last week.

Miss Margaret Palmer is at home from Boston for the summer.

Miss Florence G. Smith is at home from New York for the summer.

Norris Hodgkins is home from the Boston Latin school for the summer vacation.

Sidney R. Bonsey, railway mail clerk on Searsport-Bangor run, is home for a week.

Mrs. F. Carroll Burrill arrived last Thursday from Portland, for the summer.

Mrs. Jason Leighton, of Cherryfield, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. N. Burke.

Miss Lenora G. Higgins, a teacher at Woodfords, is at home for the summer vacation.

Stetson Foster and family, of Boston, opened their bungalow on the Surry road last week.

Miss Margaret Woodward, of Springvale, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Woodward.

Miss J. A. Thompson has installed a soda fountain and opened an ice-cream parlor in her store.

M. E. Thibodeaux, of the U. S. S. Tripp, is spending a furlough of five days in Ellsworth with his wife.

There will be a regular meeting of Irene chapter, O. E. S., Friday evening. Supper will be served at six o'clock.

Mrs. Hoyt A. Moore and son, of New York, are in the city preparing to open for the summer their cottage at Shady Nook.

Dr. Charles C. Knowlton and wife, of Hartford, Conn., arrived Monday to spend a month in Ellsworth with their parents.

The families of Capt. Samuel and Sidney Goodwin are in Bangor while their vessel, the Harry W. Haynes, is discharging.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Anderson announce the engagement of their daughter, Vera Hazel, to Howard A. McLellan, of Princeton.

Prof. Henry C. Emery, chairman of the tariff board, arrived in town Friday to spend a few days with his parents, ex-Chief-Justice Emery and wife.

There was a slight fire at the house of Herbert E. Scribner on Elm street last Friday forenoon. The damage was trifling, and is covered by insurance.

Ellsworth friends of Mrs. Chester L. Bailey, of Searsport, who has been seriously ill after an operation for appendicitis, are pleased to know that she is now improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers, of Manor avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence M., to Arthur I. Studer, of Ellsworth, Maine. — Richmond Hill (N. Y.) Record.

Mrs. J. T. Crippen, who has spent the winter with her daughters in Boston, is now at Southwest Harbor, where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. George Harmon.

Only a small party left Ellsworth to-day for Jacksonville to attend the annual reunion of the Eastern Maine Veterans.

Advertisements.

Card of Thanks

Not realizing the value of the Ellsworth Enterprise, as an advertising medium, I did not put any card in the paper. Now, I wish to thank the Enterprise for the free advertising given me, as being in the steam heating business. I am in that business, do good work, and am ready to receive proposals from any organization, city, town or individual for a GOOD HONEST JOB.
J. P. ELDRIDGE.

association, only eight tickets being sold at the Ellsworth station.

Edmund G. Hopkins, who was so critically ill last week, has improved gradually since the second operation, performed last Wednesday, and his friends feel much encouraged at his condition.

Forrest R. Treworgy, an Ellsworth boy, a graduate of the Ellsworth high school and now taking a course in electrical engineering at the University of Maine, was awarded the $30 Western alumni scholarship at the U. of M.

W. A. Allen and wife, of Portland, were guests a few days last week of their daughter, Mrs. Harry E. Rowe. Mr. Allen renewed old acquaintances here, made some years ago when he paid several visits to Ellsworth as grand warden of the N. E. O. P.

Hon. E. C. Burleigh, of Augusta, was in the city for a few hours last Thursday. He was accompanied by ex-Secretary of State Byron Boyd and a friend. They came from Augusta by auto, which they left here, and proceeded to Bar Harbor on the 6:25 p. m. train.

The pastor will preach at both services next Sunday at the Methodist church. The morning theme is: "The Re-emphasis of Religion." The evening lecture-sermon will be upon New York in the series on "Religion in Great American Cities." All are invited.

Friday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, the supper to close the contest in the "two ships to Palestine" in the Methodist Sunday school will be given in the Methodist vestry. All teachers and members of the school will be seated; the parents of each scholar are invited also.

Miss Marion L. Woodward, who is teaching in an institution for the deaf in New York, arrived home to-day, for the summer. Miss Phyllis Macomber, of Seal Harbor, who has just completed a training course as teacher in the same institution, accompanied her to remain in Ellsworth for the high school graduation.

William T. Moor, of Waltham, Mass., spent from Friday to Monday in the city, closing up the sale of his two houses on Fourth street. One, the John L. Moor homestead, has been purchased by W. G. Brooks, the other by Willis E. Dunn. Mr. Moor, on his return, was accompanied by his wife, who has been in Ellsworth a few weeks.

At the morning service at the Congregational church last Sunday, the pastor, Rev. R. B. Mathews, announced the following committee of the society to prepare a suitable acknowledgment of the highly-appreciated gift of an organ, and forward it to the donor, G. Nixon Black: Mr. Justice King, J. F. Knowlton, Mrs. F. G. Allinson.

The "Story of the Orient", an exercise called a song-story, is to be given at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. It embodies parts for a reader following a group of incidents referred to in the gospel narrative, with music appropriate to the theme rendered by the choir. A chorus of ten voices assisted by Leone Wilbur, tenor, will render the musical parts.

The semi-annual tax upon loan and building associations has been committed to the State treasurer by the State assessors. The Ellsworth loan and building association pays the second largest tax of any association in the State. The Dexter association leads, with a tax of $70.53; Ellsworth, $32.51; while the third, Sanford, is $45. All the others are far behind—Casco, with a tax of $13.02, being fourth, all the others paying less than $10.

Donaqua lodge, K. of P., entertained knights from Bangor and West Sullivan lodges last Wednesday evening. Supper was served for the visitors at 6:30. After supper, the rank of knight was conferred on three candidates by a degree team from the Bangor lodge, in long form. The Bangor knights have recently received new regalia, and this, with the excellent manner in which the work was performed, made the work beautiful and impressive.

There was a good-sized congregation at Hancock hall Sunday evening, when Rev. R. B. Mathews, of the Congregational church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the high school. Rev. E. D. Kizer, of the Methodist church, assisted in the service. The superintendent of the schools, members of the school board and the teachers of the high school occupied seats upon the stage. There was music by a choir of mixed voices from the several churches, with a quartette composed of Miss Mary F. Hopkins, Mrs. J. A. Cunningham, O. W. Tapley and J. A. Cunningham. Mr. Mathews spoke from the text, "Pay Me that thou owest." His address was scholarly and eloquent.

Lawn Party Next Tuesday. Arrangements are completed for the lawn party to be given by the Congregational parish next Tuesday afternoon and evening on the spacious lawn at the residence of Col. C. C. Burrill. There will be many and varied attractions—music, illuminations at night, a sale of cooked-food and ice-cream; also a sale of aprons. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

The fortune-teller may be consulted afternoon or evening. Let none stay away on account of the "white elephants"—they will all be tied.

If the day should be wet, the party will be postponed until the next day. The public is cordially invited. Every member of the parish is requested to send cooked food.

Smith Family Reunion. The Smith family reunion will be held at the town hall, Franklin, Saturday, June 22. All connections of the family are cordially invited.

UNION TRUST COMPANY OF ELLSWORTH.

CAPITAL, $ 160,000
SURPLUS and PROFITS, 75,000
STOCKHOLDERS' LIABILITY, 100,000
ASSETS, 1,400,000

Absolute security, absolute permanency, conservative management and painstaking service—these four form the foundation upon which this bank has been erected. These four we guarantee to you in connection with any and all business which you may place in our hands.

Your account is respectfully solicited. We are empowered by law to act as trustees for the estates of persons deceased. The reasons why its services are more desirable than those of individuals are many.

Our experience is more extended, and our investment opportunities are better. Our relations with clients are confidential always. Trust funds and securities in its charge are kept absolutely apart from its commercial banking assets. An additional guarantee of perfect security lies in the fact that the transactions of this bank are under the constant supervision of the State banking department.

Your business will be welcomed whether it be small, or large and every possible accommodation will be accorded to you that is consistent with sound banking.

MOUTH OF THE RIVER.

Roy Ray, who has had employment in Ellsworth, is home.

Capt. F. N. Closson went to Bar Harbor last week to take command of the schooner C. Taylor, 3d.

Friends of LaGrand Dodge are sorry to hear of his serious illness in Bangor hospital.

Mrs. Byron Catlyn and little daughter, of Portsmouth, N. H., are with her parents, Capt. H. B. Holt and wife.

Mrs. Celia Fullerton, who has made an extended visit with her son in Augusta, is home. Her granddaughter, Miss Greta Hodgkins, returned with her.

GRADUATION.

School in district 13 closed June 14. There were two graduates—George W. York and Mildred H. Fullerton. The decorations and exercises did justice to both teacher and pupils. Program:

Singing. By School
Salutatory, Legend of the Bells, Mildred Fullerton
Graduation Day. Agnes Bowden
Somebody's Mother. Virginia Ray
One Thing Missing. Frances Closson
Modesty and Vanity. Gladys Pinkham
Our Heroes. Lester Bowden
Be true! Be true! Guy Closson
Mary Had a Little Cold. Dannie Murch
Song, Sleep baby, Sleep, Gladys and Virginia Pinkham
How Many Twos. Paul Patten
The Boyless Town. Otton Clough
Patience. Anna Murch
Before it is too Late. Virginia Pinkham
If I Had a Little Girl. Beatrice Jones
Daisies. Frank Ray
We Separate, Valedictory. George York
Presentation of diplomas, Alice B Moore, teacher

WEST ELLSWORTH.

Mrs. A. K. Guptill is seriously ill of pleurisy fever.

Lucy Astbury, of Bluehill, is the guest of Robert T. Carlisle and wife.

Mrs. Cora Grindle had a mess of wild strawberries and cream June 15.

Charles Carter, of Lynn, Mass., is visiting his parents, C. J. Carter and wife.

Georgia Meader, with her son Cecil, who has been working in Mariaville, has returned home.

Irving Carter, wife and family were guests of his mother, Rowena Carter, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Josie Clark went to Bangor Saturday to meet her husband, who has been teaching in Benedita.

The dance and supper planned for June 20, to raise money for new gates for the cemetery has been changed to Aug. 15.

Mrs. Rowena Carter will go to Bluehill to-day with her son Irving, for an extended visit with relatives there and at North Sedgwick.

School closed Wednesday, after a successful term of ten weeks; Emma Reed, teacher. Miss Reed went to Castine to attend the normal school graduation. Her sister Rena was graduated.

COMING EVENTS.

Wednesday, June 19, at Hancock hall—Graduation exercises of high school in afternoon. Class play and ball in the evening.

Tuesday, June 25, at residence of C. C. Burrill on High street—Lawn party by Congregational society, afternoon and evening. Admission, 10 cents.

COUNTY.

Monday and Tuesday, June 24 and 25—County W. C. T. U. convention at Winter Harbor.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 3, 4 and 5—Bluehill fair.

Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 11 and 12—Eden fair.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 25—Amherst fair.

FAMILY REUNIONS.

Saturday, June 22, at Franklin—Smith family.

The thirty-second annual reunion of the Sixth Maine Veteran association will be held at Dover and Foxcroft, Wednesday, July 10. Tickets will be on sale at all stations on the Maine Central railroad at reduced rates, good from July 9 to 12.

GREEN LAKE.

Mrs. Ryder and daughter, of Bangor, are here for July.

Mrs. E. E. Race and daughter have gone to Boothbay for the summer.

Mrs. Arthur Moore is seriously ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Bert Spencer, is with her.

S. Daub and Mr. Anderson landed ten salmon the past week. The fish seem to be biting, but very few people are fishing.

Advertisements.

Bordeaux Mixture, Lime and Sulphur, Arsenate of Lead, Pyrox Copperas, Paris Green, Blue Vitriol, White Hellebore, Prepared Lime, Bisulphide Carbon, Moth Balls, Sheep Dipping Powder, Lambert's Death to Lice,

FOR SALE AT

Parcher's Drug Store.

Everybody

can save a little at a time. Financial success is simply a matter of sticking to your saving plan—making your Character stronger than any Temptation to spend.

Hancock Co. Savings Bank

Ellsworth, Maine
Commenced Business
May 1, 1873.

Money to Loan

ON Improved, Productive Real Estate; on Collateral and Commercial Paper

ALSO DEALERS IN Municipal and Other Bonds of approved legality and ascertained strength.

C. C. Burrill & Son
16 STATE STREET, ELLSWORTH, ME

Percy E. Higgins, agent for Maryland Casualty Co.

Surety Bonds

All kinds of state, county and municipal officials' bonds. This company is on approved list of Fire Insurance Commissioners of Maine.

Office over Burrill Nat. Bank.

IF YOU PLANT SWEET PEAS

You want the best varieties and the best quality of seed. You can obtain Burpee's (and there are none better) at the ELLSWORTH GREENHOUSE.
Telephone 48.

Wear HUB RUBBERS next winter