

COUNTY NEWS.

BLUEHILL.

Judge Charles J. Dunn, of Orono, is in town for a few days. E. Everett Chase, Jr., U. of M. '13, is home for the summer. Fred G. Haverlin, of Boston, was a week-end visitor in town. Mrs. Helen McKay and family, of New York, are expected this week. Ernest Wescott, of Manchester, N. H., is visiting his father, S. B. Wescott. Edward P. Tucker and C. P. Glover, of Boston, spent the week-end with Mr. Tucker's family. Miss Nellie Douglass is at home from Castine, where she has been an instructor in the grammar school. T. A. Pine and wife spent the week-end in town. Mrs. Pine was formerly Miss Lou Clough, of this town. Dr. Thomas' summer home, "The Birches," is being placed in readiness for the arrival of the family. William D. T. Trefry and George S. Hatch, of Boston, spent the week-end with Capt. Edgar Stevens. Victor O. Strobel and family, of Philadelphia, are at their summer home "Lapahawink", for the summer. Miss Eleanor Brooks, of Orange, N. J., is at "Evin Cove" for the summer. She will be joined by her parents June 29. Mrs. John C. Rose and family, of Baltimore, are at "The Oaks" for the season. They will be joined by Judge Rose later. E. C. Barrett and wife are in Waterville to attend the commencement exercises of Coburn. Basil Barrett is a member of the graduating class. The first ball of the alumni association of the Bluehill academy took place at the town hall Friday evening. Monaghan's orchestra furnished music. The grand march was led by the president, A. S. Witham, and Miss Laura Hinckley. The dance was a success in every way. The committee is deserving of much credit. "What Happened to Jones," a drama in three acts, was presented by the senior class of the academy Wednesday and Thursday evenings to large audiences. All parts were well taken. The play was staged under the direction of Miss Hallie F. Gelbart, of Midland Park, N. J. Those in the cast were: Maynard Grindie, Chester Parker, Leroy Chatto, Edgar Bowden, Luman Hatch, Edward Hinckley, Beulah Grindie, Olive Bettel, Abby Partridge, Belle Davidson, Carolyn Snowman, Elinor Howard, Roy Grindie.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES. The graduation exercises of the academy were held at the town hall on Friday. The hall was tastefully decorated; the class motto, "Proceed not Recede," was prominent. Each part was perfectly taken. The school should be very proud of the class of 1912. The music was furnished by Monaghan's orchestra. Prof. A. W. Boston delivered a fine address to the class. The program was as follows: March Prayer Music Salutatory, What the Modern School Should do for the Modern Pupil, Beulah Estelle Grindie Class history.....Chester Robert Parker Music Class prophecy.....Edgar Brooks Bowden Essay, What Education is Doing for Agriculture Maynard Charles Grindie Music Valedictory, The Advantages of Domestic Science in Schools, Olive Bettel Address to class.....W H Patten Presentation of Diplomas.....Prin A W Boston Class Ode Benediction June 17. BROOKLIN. Capt. Judson Freethy, who has been ill, is better. Mrs. H. M. Joyce returned to Brooksville Saturday. Miss Rachel Cole, who has been teaching in Dexter, is home. Miss Gladys Bridges returned from Newburyport, Mass., Tuesday. C. Roy Tapley and Mr. Chatto, of Brooksville, were in town last week. H. M. Pease was called to Rockland Saturday by the death of his grandmother. Miss Alice Herrick and Mrs. Weston Gott are employed at West End dining hall. Mrs. W. T. Parsons and sons, of Providence, R. I., are at their cottage for the season. Mrs. Charles L. Sturtevant and family, of Washington, D. C., have arrived for the summer. Miss Ella Griffin is spending a few weeks at South Bluehill with Katie and Bertha Sylvester. Herbert Brown, of Philadelphia, and Charles H. Purdy and family, of Brookline, Mass., have arrived for the summer. A fine piece of State road is being made at Haven. The West end road to the Eastern Steamship Co.'s wharf is being travelled. Miss Grace Tapley, W. F. Cousins and wife and Master Kenneth are at West Brooksville to attend the Tapley-Farnham wedding. Ground was broken Wednesday for the library building. The excavation is nearly completed, and work will be begun on the stone work in about two days. Following is the program for graduation week, beginning with Sunday, June 15. Baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening, in the Baptist church, by Rev. J. L. McKay; Wednesday evening, junior exhibition; Thursday evening, concert by Commonwealth quartette, of Boston; Friday evening, graduation and ball; Saturday evening, alumni reunion and banquet.

WEST BROOKVILLE. The I. O. O. F. memorial services were held at Mount Rest June 9. Miss Lucy Hale Tapley, president of the Spelman seminary, Atlanta, Ga., is at home for the summer. M. H. Stanhope arrived here Saturday with his artesian well drill to sink a well for C. Ray and Harry Tapley. Capt. Ira W. Tapley, of the Old Dominion steamship Princess Anne, arrived Saturday. He was called here by the illness of his father, Capt. Thomas Tapley. June 10. TOMSON. Mrs. Carrie F. Smith and son Kenneth are visiting relatives here. Merrill Arthur Farrow is home from the M. C. I., Pittsfield, for the summer. James H. Jones, of Boston, and Fred D. Jones, of Belfast, were guests of their sisters Sunday. Maurice L. Tapley, who has been sailing out of New York, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Emily S. Tapley. A delightful social affair was the linen shower given in honor of Miss Stella M. Farnham by Miss Maggie F. Tapley at her home last Saturday evening. Miss Blanch Snow, of Castine, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maggie Blodgett. Miss Snow will graduate from the high school at Castine next Wednesday. A telephone has been installed in the residence of Capt. George H. Tapley. It was ordered to be placed there by his nieces and nephews, all of whom seem bound that he shall outlive the stars. Mrs. G. K. Tapley and daughters Grace and Mabel, of Brooklin, are in town to attend the wedding of Mrs. Tapley's son Herbert and Miss Stella M. Farnham, which will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Lewis G. Farnham and wife. June 17. TOMSON. A whole family will fight to poke an open fire, but not one will offer to tend the furnace.

WEST BROOKLIN. Mrs. Izora Bridges is spending a few days in Rockland. Mrs. Gilbert Carter has moved to Naekeag for the summer. Miss Gaynell Bridges, who has been attending school at Hebron, is home.
