Miss Alice Drummey has returned from a visit with her sister Mary in Old Town.

John H. Brimmer is making extensive repairs and improvements on his house on Pine street.

There was no quorum at the meeting of the city government called for last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. L. M. Moore is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. William H. Cheney, at South Portland.

W. E. Clark, wife and baby, of West Ellsworth, are visiting Mr. Clark's parents, W. J. Clark.

Miss Margaret Dresser has returned from Boston, where she has been studying music the past winter.

Clarence B. Day, who sold his automobile recently, has ordered a new one—a Buick eighteen-horse-power runabout.

Several girls of the junior class of the high school will give a musicale and dance at Society hall to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Julia A. Henderson, of Rowley, Mass., arrived in this city Tuesday for a visit to her niece, Mrs. H. W. Dunn.

An examination of candidates for State teachers' certificates will be held at Ellsworth Friday, Aug. 27, beginning at 9 a. m.

Miss Lillian G. Mowry, of Searsport, who has been the guest of Miss Evelyn M. Bonsey the past week, returned home Monday.

Miss Margaret Drummey left to-day for Winter Harbor where she has accepted a position as telegraph operator at Grindstone inn.

The dates of the North Ellsworth fair have been changed from September 15 and 16 to September 22 and 23, because of conflict with other dates.

The board of registration completed its work of revising the voting lists last week. Eighty-one names were stricken off the lists, because of death or removal.

Sarah Louise, daughter of Carleton S. Donnell and wife, entertained nineteen of her little friends last Thursday afternoon, in celebration of her seventh birthday.

Mrs. J. W. Tatley, of Montreal, with son David, little daughter and maid, arrived to-day to spend the summer with her parents, Col. C. C. Burrill and wife.

The Salvation Army will hold special service Thursday evening, led by Capt. Helen Rice, of Bath, also Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Sunday services at 3 and 8 p. m.

J. W. Holmes and wife, of New York, spent a few days during the past week in Ellsworth, the guests of Mr. Holmes' brother, Roscoe Holmes. They left yesterday for a short visit in Belfast.

Rev. W. F. Emery, pastor of the Methodist church, will spend his vacation at Brooklin, preaching there every Sunday of his stay. He will be in his own pulpit next Sunday, leaving on his vacation the second week in July.

Mrs. E. S. Andrews, who with her infant son, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. G. P. Smith, in Ellsworth the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Carmel. Her mother accompanied her for a short visit.

Clerk-of-Courts J. F. Knowlton and wife arrived home Saturday from their trip of several weeks, during which they visited Boston, Washington, London, Ont., and other points of interest. Mr. Knowlton's health is improved.

Postals and letters received from the Ellsworth boys en route for Wyoming, indicate that they are enjoying the trip. They missed their train out of Chicago by fifteen minutes, and had twenty-four hours in which to see the sights of the "windy city".

The Ellsworth loan and building association has declared its thirty-fourth semi-annual dividend, at the rate of 6 per cent. A financial statement of the condition at the close of the six months shows the association to be in good condition, with a large surplus fund.

The auction sale of E. H. Greely's horses at Maplewood park, Bangor, resulted in the change of ownership of twenty-six fine bred Maine horses Wednesday afternoon. The twenty-six horses sold for $6,410, or an average price of $246.50. John R. Graham, president of the Bangor Railway & Electric Co., paid the highest price on any horse sold when he bought Bligen's First, a bay mare with a mark of 2.10%, for $510.

Misses Bertha Hopkins and Mae Studor, of Ellsworth, and Winslow B. Stephens, of New Bedford, Mass., who were with a party at the Woodruff cottage, were among the successful fishermen last week each getting a salmon, the smallest weighing three pounds and the largest five pounds.

A very pretty party was given at Society hall last evening, by Roy C. Haines, in honor of Ernesto Reyes, who left this afternoon for New York, to spend the summer with his sister. Some novel Porto Rican features were introduced at the party, confetti and serpentine being much in evidence. Mr. Reyes expects to return in the fall to resume his studies at the high school, and probably will be accompanied by other Porto Rican students.

Capt. Edwin L. Haskell and wife and Miss Elizabeth Dow came from Deer Isle to Ellsworth Saturday in Capt. Haskell's new cruising launch Uncas. They remained over Sunday as guests of B. T. Sowle and wife, and went to Bar Harbor Monday of this week on the launch, accompanied by Mr. Sowle, wife and son Wesley. Capt. Haskell is spending a few days in the vicinity, cruising and enjoying his launch, which he constructed during the past winter. It is a fine boat, well fitted for cruising.

Chief-Justice Emery in Ireland.

(From a personal letter to the editor.)

LONDON, S. W., June 16, 1909.

It was a pleasant greeting to be met with the old familiar ELLSWORTH AMERICAN on our arrival here last night. We devoured every word of it—even the editorials. Thank you very much.

We had a wonderfully pleasant passage, and a wonderful week in Ireland—being taken both at Cork and Dublin into Irish society and clubs.

In Dublin we were the guests of the lord chief baron who lives in great style, as he can afford to do on his salary of $25,000 per year. His hospitality was royal. He gave three dinner parties and one luncheon for us, at which we met the legal luminaries and their wives and daughters.

I did the Irish courts thoroughly, and was immensely interested in their peculiarities.

We shall stay here and about here for some three weeks and then for the continent. We are both well; we get tired, but keep happy.

L. A. E.

G. A. R. Excursion.

As previously announced, Past Department Commander James L. Merrick, of Waterville, has made arrangements to take a party from Maine to Salt Lake City to the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and the national convention of the W. R. C., August 9 to 14.

The route will be over the Grand Trunk railway from Portland and Lewiston to Montreal, Toronto, Port Huron and Chicago; thence over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway to Omaha; thence over the Rock Island railroad to Colorado Springs and over the Colorado Midland railway to Salt Lake City. Returning the route will be over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad from Salt Lake City to Colorado Springs; thence over the Rock Island railroad to Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago; thence Grand Trunk railway to Detroit, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal and to Lewiston and Portland.

The party will leave Portland Wednesday evening, August 4. A train will also leave Lewiston that will accommodate people living in Lewiston, Auburn and on the back road, so called, and save expense of going into Portland. A complete itinerary of the trip will be mailed upon application to Jas. L. Merrick, Waterville, Maine.

Haines Prize Contest.

The prize contest at the store of Roy C. Haines closed last Saturday. The result was announced at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Clara Johnson, of Hancock, won the first prize, a sewing machine, but exchanged with Mrs. George E. Davis, of Ellsworth Falls, who won the second prize, a sideboard. Miss Goldie Raymond, of Ellsworth, won the third prize, a couch.

The standing of those having over 10,000 votes at the close of the contest was as follows:

Mrs. Clara Johnson, Hancock.....	96,243
Mrs. Geo. Davis, Ellsworth.....	87,593
Miss Goldie Raymond, Ellsworth.....	77,382
Mrs. J. B. Holmes, Ellsworth.....	67,681
Mrs. W. F. Emery, Ellsworth.....	33,262
Mrs. A. Foss, Hancock.....	22,261
Mrs. R. B. Evans, Ellsworth.....	21,551
Mrs. H. H. Hooper, Ellsworth.....	10,963

Changes in Postal Service.

Mountainville, Hancock Co., postoffice reestablished. Isaiah Pickering, postmaster.

Star service established. Asticon to Northeast Harbor, one mile and back, from July 1 to Sept. 30, each year. Ernest M. Higgins, Asticon, $100, for the period, each year.

Fire at Gouldsboro.

GOULDSBORO, June 28 (special).—Sidney Ashe's house burned to the ground this afternoon. It is thought that the fire started from the kitchen chimney, as the flames were breaking out through the roof of the ell when the fire was discovered.

By the timely aid of the neighbors and mill crew, the stable was saved, and also all the furniture on the first floor and the bed from one room on the second floor. There was some insurance.

ELLSWORTH FALLS.

Miss Laura McCarthy is the guest of A. W. Ellis and wife.

Miss Sadie Farish, of York, is the guest of William E. Joy and mother.

Arthur W. Salisbury is building a barn at the Moore place which he recently purchased.

Leon H. Brown has gone to Northeast Harbor, where he has employment at carpentry.

The gang at Whitcomb, Haynes & Co.'s mill is shut down on account of the breaking of a shaft, which will take some time to repair.

Arthur B. Mitchell is home from Cherryfield where he has been since early spring. He will return there to resume work in about ten days.

Warren Jordan returned to Brewer Monday, after having been here over Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jordan's sister, Mrs. Lewis M. Welch.

Mrs. Alden K. Haslam and daughter, Mrs. George S. Stanley, were here Monday on their way to Waltham from Brewer, where Mrs. Haslam has been visiting her daughter.

Rev. Mr. Klock, of Bucksport, preached here Sunday morning and evening, in exchange with the pastor, Rev. J. D. Prigmore, who, with his family, went to Bucksport Saturday, returning home Tuesday evening.

The news was received here with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Lewis M. Welch which occurred Thursday morning of last week at West Somerville, Mass. Mrs. Welch had been ill for some time, but had been critically ill only about three weeks. Mrs. Welch was born and lived here most of the time up to about four years ago, when she married Mr. Welch, and since then they have lived at West Somerville, Mass., where they were well located and had a pleasant home. The deceased was favorably known, and had many friends both here and at her late home; the abundance of beautiful floral offerings testifying to the high esteem in which she was held. Her age was thirty-two years. She leaves besides her husband, her parents, Charles Lynch and wife; one brother, James Lynch, and a sister, Mrs. Warren Jordan, of Brewer, who was with her and cared for her during her illness; also an aged grandmother, Mrs. Aphia Lord. The relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends. Funeral services were held at the home of the parents Sunday at 1 o'clock, Rev. P. A. A. Killam officiating. The burial was at Juniper cemetery.

WEST ELLSWORTH.

Miss Mary A. Smith is home from Portland.

Miss Ella M. Jude has been the guest since Wednesday of her grandparents, G. B. Floyd and wife.

Miss Martha J. Barron left Monday morning to care for Mrs. D. B. Smith at Northeast Harbor.

Miss Lura P. Carter closed her school at Presque Isle Friday, and after visiting her father and brothers at Ludlow, expects to be home Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of George M. Barron took place last Thursday morning at the Methodist Episcopal church, Ellsworth. Rev. W. F. Emery officiated, assisted by Rev. Gideon Mayo. The choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee", "Abide With Me" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul". The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The bearers were four cousins—J. G. and A. R. Barron, J. L. Floyd and W. A. Bonsey. Interment was at Woodbine cemetery, Ellsworth. Relatives from out-of-town present were Mrs. Belle Eldridge, son Merritt and daughter Alice, of Franklin; Mrs. Agnes A. Salley and daughter, Mrs. Hattie Reed, of New York; Nathaniel Bodge, wife and son Wallace, Miss Georgia Hamor, of Bangor; B. J. Franklin and wife and Irving Wilbur, of Lakewood; F. M. Wilbur, of Ellsworth Falls; Mrs. Annie Bemick and sons, Melvin and Homer Wilbur, of Marlboro, and Mrs. B. B. Jordan, of Bar Harbor.

GREEN LAKE.

Col. Fred Parkhurst is at his cottage for the season.

The hatchery launch made her first trip Monday and runs well.

Miss Frances Lord, of East Holden, who has been attending the Boston high school, spent Monday with Mrs. Horace F. Lord.

An excursion to and from the hatchery will be made on the Fourth, by Capt. Horace F. Lord, in a capable launch that will hold twenty-five or thirty people.

Fishing has never been any better than during the past week. Not a day has passed but several fish have been landed. Sunday was a record-breaker. Over thirty boats were on the lake, and not one came in without one or more fish.

MOUTH OF THE RIVER.

Mrs. Robert B. Carter and Mrs. Cordelia Bemick are in very poor health.

Mr. Edwards, of Bangor, was the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Ray, Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Sadler and daughter Gladys have gone to Bangor for a few days with Capt. Sadler on board his schooner, the Portland Packet.

"What are they moving the church for?" "Well, stranger, I'm mayor of these diggins, and I'm for law enforcement. We've got and ordinance what says no saloon shall be nearer than 300 feet from a church. I've give 'em three days to move the church."

WEDDING BELLS.

HURLEY-DUFFY.

The wedding of Miss Abigail Frances Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Hurley, and John J. Duffy, both of Ellsworth, took place this afternoon. The ceremony was performed at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 3 o'clock, Rev. J. D. O'Brien officiating. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Miss Nancy M. Dutton. Six young lady friends of the bride acted as ushers and ribbon-bearers.

The bride's gown was of ivory white batiste. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Catherine A. Hurley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of pink muslin. Charles W. Hurley, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the new home of the bride and groom on upper Main street, where a large number of friends and relatives extended congratulations. Six young ladies served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy will leave this evening for a wedding trip. On their return they will begin housekeeping in their new home.

The bride has been one of Ellsworth's successful school teachers for several years. The groom has been engaged in the tailoring business here many years and is very popular. They have the congratulations of their many friends.
