

Advertisements.

Do Your Banking By Mail.

Since this Bank was established it has never lost a letter sent it by U. S. Mail. You can free yourself from the care of having surplus currency on hand by opening an account with us.

The First National Bank, Capital, $50,000. ELLSWORTH, MAINE. Surplus, $50,000.

COUNTY NEWS.

Additional County News, see other pages

EAST FRANKLIN.

George Maddison has had a telephone put in his house. Miss Ruth Marston, of Millinocket, is visiting Miss Clara Dunn.

SOUTH BLUEHILL.

The chapel is receiving a new coat of paint. Miss Beulah Eaton is visiting friends in Rockland.

EAST LAMOINE.

School begins Tuesday, taught by Miss Mary Garland, of Ellsworth. Mrs. Joseph McMahon and family left Saturday morning for Providence, R. I.

Advertisements.

FIFTY CENTS

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children.

Scott & Bowne, 409-415 Pearl St. Chemists New York

COUNTY NEWS.

For additional County News see other pages

BROOKLIN.

Frank Jones, of Portland, is visiting his family. Willis Brady, of Beverly, Mass., returned home Friday.

Saturday night, and left Sunday for North-east Harbor.

A severe thunder shower passed over Atlantic last week and did quite a lot of damage to flag and telephone poles.

CAPE ROSIER.

The dedication of the Union chapel took place Sept. 10. Mrs. M. A. Blake went to Brewer for a few weeks on Friday.

EAST FRANKLIN.

Miss Vivian Scammon leaves to-day for Bucksport, to attend the seminary. Lloyd and Carroll Blaisdell start for Waterville Sept. 11, to attend Coburn classical institute.

TRENTON.

Miss Mary Joy, with a friend, of Boston, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Carpenter. Mrs. K. L. Moore, Jr., and children are visiting Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Eben Hodgkins.

HALL QUARRY.

A typographical error in last week's items made it appear that there was only $2,000 worth of machinery in the wrecked schooner Joe, instead of $20,000, as the correspondent wrote it.

Advertisements.

CURES PAIN. BROWN'S INSTANT RELIEF cures colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, etc.

Worms. Hundreds of children and adults have worms, but are treated for other diseases.

TRUE'S ELIXIR. The best worm remedy made. It has been in use since 1851.

PATENTS. Send model, sketch or photo of invention for free report on patentability.

GASNOW & CO. OPPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

KEY WEST RIVAL. Best 10c. CIGAR. Has been on the market 12 years.

WHY? They have MERIT. BEST DEALERS EVERYWHERE. GEO. S. HARRIS & CO. Distributors Boston, Mass.

Advertisers, Publishers and Printers. SAVE TIME and MONEY BY USING Challen's Record Books.

THE AMERICAN has subscribers at 107 of the 117 post-offices in Hancock county.

COUNTY NEWS.

For additional County News see other pages

WEST TREMONT.

Capt. William Hannah left for Bangor Monday, having hauled his vessel up.

The sewing circle had its first meeting Wednesday, Sept. 6, with Mrs. Charles P. Lunt.

Capt. James Rich and family have gone to housekeeping in the J. B. Thurston house.

Capt. R. H. Lunt, schooner Pochasset, came in Sunday from Black island, where he has loaded.

Mrs. Zulma S. Clark is at Manset visiting her two daughters, Mrs. L. A. Clark and Mrs. Nettie C. Tinker.

Capt. Charles P. Lunt, schooner J. M. Harlow, arrived Friday from Danversport, Mass. He has not chartered.

Mrs. Lillian F. Murphy went to Boston Friday to join her husband, Capt. George W. Murphy, schooner Helen L. Martin.

Mrs. Carrie Thurston came last week from Northeast Harbor, where she has been taking care of a cottage for the season.

Roy Eaton took a party out in his naphtha last week. Mrs. Nettie Bain and baby, Mand Dow, Julia Clark and Ray Dow composed the party.

Capt. Adams Reed, wife and baby, of Duck island, are at their old home, putting it in repair for winter.

Miss Millie Reed, who has been working at Northeast Harbor, came home this week. She went to Duck island Friday to help her sister Lucy keep house.

Mrs. Charles A. Rideout and daughter Gertrude, who have been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George W. Lunt, since July, left Friday for their home in Allston, Mass.

Miss Zulma E. Lunt left Friday to resume her work as teacher in the Hyde school at Newton Highlands, Mass., having spent her vacation with her parents, George W. Lunt and wife.

Mrs. Walter Lunt and daughter Doris Irene, who spent the past month with her parents, Solomon Thurston and wife, have gone back to Prospect, where her husband works in the sardine factory.

Sept. 11. THELMA. PROSPECT HARBOR. S. J. Clement, of Bar Harbor, has been a recent guest at Dr. Larrabee's.

Mrs. Ruth Frelove, of Waltham, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Moses Stanley.

Miss Gladys Pennington, of Monson, has been a guest of Miss Sybil Tracy for a few days.

Clarke Blance and Wilbur Cole went to Waterville Saturday where they are to attend Coburn classical institute.

Mrs. John O. Foss, who arrived in Winter Harbor late in the summer from New Orleans, is visiting relatives here.

Lorenzo Cole, of Nashua, N. H., accompanied by his father-in-law, John Hodlin, has been visiting Mr. Cole's parents for a week.

George Cole, of Guilford, is spending his vacation here with relatives. Mr. Hussey, who came with him, has returned home.

Schools begin this morning with Miss Ethel Dodge, of Searsport, in the grammar school, and Miss May Young, of West Gouldsboro, in the primary.

Alfred Wass, who has been at Dr. Larrabee's for the past three years, left Tuesday for Addison to visit relatives before going to Waterville, where he is to be a student at Coburn classical institute.

Sept. 11. C. PROSPECT HARBOR. LETTER FROM ABROAD.

Mrs. E. G. Abbott, a native of this place and well known in this vicinity, who, in company with her husband, Dr. Abbott, of Portland, is making a tour of the British Isles, writes most interesting letters to friends here describing her travels.

Your correspondent, who has special interest in Scotland, as the home of her ancestors, received one written Aug. 19 which will no doubt be of interest to other readers. She says:

"We came up from Edinburgh yesterday through the Highlands, and had the most glorious ride through the heather-covered hills where the scenery is superb. Edinburgh is a beautiful city with modern, splendid buildings, wide streets and roomy, beautiful parks.

real estate and building business, etc., with $10,000 capital stock. Officers: President, Albert F. Smith, of Bangor; treasurer, Peter Abbott, of Verona.

FRANKLIN ROAD.

Miss Jennie Eaton, of Partridge Cove, is employed at A. E. Tracy's.

Emery DeBeek, wife and young son, of Clifton, were at E. R. Tracy's last week.

Miss Bernice Franklin, of Ellsworth, visited Miss Myra Young a few days last week.

Mrs. G. P. Clark has returned to her home in Boston on business, to be gone a week.

Bertie Miles, of Gardiner, visited his grandparents William Miles and wife, Friday.

E. R. Tracy and wife, Mrs. Stella Shaw and Eddie Graves spent Saturday at Hancock Point.

Miss Pearl Gallison went to Mount Desert Ferry last week for a day's stay with her parents.

Frank Miles and wife, of Gardiner, spent their vacation with their parents, William Miles and wife.

Lyndal Herrick and Georgie Hutchins, of Old Town, last week visited Georgie's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Robinson.

Miss Effie McFarland has returned from Sullivan. She is at present with her sister, Mrs. George Stewart.

Charlie Piper spent a few days last week with his uncle, H. A. Butler, before resuming his studies at Castine normal school.

Nathan Bogle, who has been boarding in H. A. Butler's family through the summer, returned to his home in Caribou last Tuesday.

Mrs. Maude Herrick, with little son Herbert, of Old Town, spent Thursday and Friday with her mother, Mrs. Freeman Robinson.

Frank Kenniston and wife, of Guilford, recently visited Mrs. Kenniston's parents, Nelson Stewart and wife. Mrs. Stewart accompanied them on their return home.

Mrs. Josie Gogins is in Cherryfield, caring for her husband's mother, Mrs. Emma Burk, who was injured in the recent railroad accident at Gardiner.

Maurice French and wife, of Boston, recently visited Mrs. French's mother, Mrs. Mark Mullan. Mr. French returned home, but Mrs. French remains for a longer visit.

Friends of John Marshall and wife sympathize with them in the death of their little son, Walter Joy. He was named for his great-grandfather, Rev. Walter J. Marshall, for his grandfather and his father. The little fellow was ill only about twenty-four hours. He leaves five little sisters, who miss him. Funeral was held Monday afternoon, Rev. J. P. Simonton speaking words of comfort.

Mrs. Victoria Butler, Miss Sadie Mullan and Levie York sang appropriate selections. The flowers were beautiful.

"There is silence in parlor and chamber, There is sadness in every room, The dear little one of our number Has gone to his heavenly home."

Sept. 11. G. WEST BROOKSVILLE. Wallace Stevens has returned from Brewer.

Paul Tapley has returned to Boston, where he resumes his duties in the office of Cummings & Pierce.

Mrs. James H. Surtzer, of Searsport, and Mrs. Fannie Stover, of Bluehill, were guests of Mrs. Isiah Lord the past week.

Full terms of school began Tuesday, September 5, with the following assignment of teachers: District 1, Chrissie M. Gott, primary; Lillian F. Gray, grammar; 2, Grace Stover; 3, Viola Haskell; 4, Brooks Grindle; 5, Olive B. Condon; 7, Grace Gray; 8, Alice Mills; 2 1/2, Bernice Perkins.

Saturday morning about 7 o'clock the dwelling-house owned by Melvin Green and occupied by Olden D. Tapley was destroyed by fire. The building was valued at $500, and was insured for $300.

Mrs. Tapley, who was confined to her bed by illness, had a narrow escape. The fire originated in the upper portion of the house, and she was removed by neighbors a few minutes before the roof fell to the ground floor. The furniture and personal effects of Mr. Tapley were saved by the efforts of those who were in the vicinity.

The house was erected sixty years ago by the late Capt. Elisha Darby. This part of the town has been fortunate in regard to fires, as this is the first dwelling burned in thirty years.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS. Resolutions adopted by Gov. Brooks Lodge, No. 142, L. O. O. F., of West Brooksville, Sept. 5, 1905, in the death of Brother Chester Perkins, are as follows:

Resolved, That the supreme ruler of the universe has seen fit to remove by death our friend and brother, Chester Perkins, therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Perkins Odd Fellowship loses one of its best and most useful members, society one of its best citizens and the family of our deceased brother is deprived of the companionship and presence of one who endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact.

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the chastening hand which has been laid so heavily upon us, the memory of our brother will be held by this lodge in sweet remembrance.

Resolved, That in this hour of their affliction we offer to the family of our deceased brother our most tender sympathies as they mourn the loss of a husband and father, son and brother; we also fully feel the loss of our most devoted member, and while we mingle our tears with those around his grave, we will claim a share in the good name he has left behind and point to him as one of the brightest jewels of our order.

GEORGE H. TAPLEY, GEORGE W. BLODGETT, ISRAEL WEBBER, Committee.

NORTH SEDGWICK. John Hooper is attending the high school at Sedgwick.

School began last Monday with Minnie S. Clement as teacher.

Jesse Wessel, wife and little son Philip have moved to Brooksville.

Sept. 11. SPZC.

funeral was held at the church Rev. S. W. Sutton officiating.

Sept. 3. H. LAMOINE.

Miss Margaret Springer has gone to Mariaville to teach. Capt. Fred Hodgkins is at home to remain during the fall.

Miss Carrie Johnson, of Fryeburg, was the guest of Miss Clara Hodgkins last week.

Miss Olive Coolidge goes to Franklin to-day to resume her work in the Ryefield grammar school.

Howe Smith has gone to Milo, where he has employment in the construction of a railroad station and car shops.

Miss Mabel Young, of Bangor, who has been visiting her grandparents, Benjamin Young and wife, returned home Thursday.

Misses Ethel Reynolds and Vera Berry returned from Northeast Harbor Friday. Miss Reynolds will teach the fall term of school at North Lamoine, and Miss Berry will continue her course at Castine normal school.

She will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Curtis, who will enter the school.

Sept. 4. H. Roy Stratton leaves this week to enter Coburn classical institute, Waterville.

Capt. Fred Hodgkins and wife are spending a few days at Southwest Harbor.

Misses Flora and Grace Stratton have gone to Massachusetts for an indefinite stay.

Miss Clara Hodgkins has gone to Beverly, Mass., to teach in the public schools.

William Springer, wife and son, who have been ill for more than two weeks, are still very ill. Mrs. Springer is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Pearl Wardwell, of Bucksport, Mr. Springer's sister, arrived Saturday to assist in their care.

The past week has witnessed the departure of the following summer visitors: Mrs. Esther Whitaker; Mrs. Charles Cushing and daughter; C. A. Reynolds and family; Prof. A. W. Reynolds and family; Mrs. Betsey Young; Mrs. Lionel Hodgkins and son.

Sept. 11. H. WEST SULLIVAN. Charles Mann, of Bangor, spent a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Nellie Mitchell.

Mrs. Liza Welch, of Franklin, visited her sister, Mrs. Simon Ashe, and called on relatives and friends this week.

Mrs. Mabel Gerrish and son Freddie have returned from an outing spent with relatives in Portsmouth and Kittery.

Miss Gussie Robertson, Harvey Robertson, Harry Patten and Harold Cook left to-day to attend the academy at Hebron.

Mrs. Mary Rideout Taylor and sister, Mrs. Helen Garland, former residents of this place, are visiting the old homestead, renewing old acquaintances and visiting places of interest.

The Golden Rule society met at Mrs. Barbara Taylor's Wednesday. Among the pleasant events of the day was the presentation of a sofa pillow to Mrs. Taylor by the society as a token of regard, Wednesday being her birthday.

Joseph Cameron died at his home Saturday, Sept. 9. Mr. Cameron arose Saturday morning as usual, but not feeling well, retired to his room. He was called at noon and did not respond. Later he was found dead. Mr. Cameron was about sixty years of age. He was a good citizen and much respected by all who knew him. The family has the sympathy of the community.

Schools commenced Tuesday, Sept. 5, with the following teachers: Clarence Havey, grammar school; Miss Bessie Gordon, intermediate; Miss Jane Hamilton, primary; Miss Alice Farnsworth, Sullivan Harbor. Herbert Hall, of Brooks, has been elected principal of the high school.

Mr. Hall is a graduate of Colby college, and is a student at the Maine medical school. He comes highly recommended. The term will begin Sept. 18.

Sept. 11. MAE. EGYPT. Mrs. Nellie Foster, of Waltham, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. S. H. Savage.

W. G. Hardison and wife have returned from Eastbrook after an absence of a few weeks.

Mrs. Selden S. Smith, of Welleley Hills, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Charles J. Smith and wife.

There was a very interesting meeting at Egypt schoolhouse Sunday evening. There were sixty present. Special music was furnished by Mrs. Sarah Mullan, Mrs. Sawyer and Mr. Springer, with accompaniment by Mrs. Minnie McKenzie. The next meeting will be led by Miss Gilley, of Northeast Harbor. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Sept. 11. C. V. S. ATLANTIC.

Jefferson Torrey and wife have gone to Winter Harbor for a few days.

Mrs. Abbie Joyce, who has been employed at Southwest Harbor since July, has returned home.

The sailing yacht Agatna, Capt. W. S. Eaton, of Boston, came into the harbor

Sept. 3. H.

LAMOINE.

Miss Margaret Springer has gone to Mariaville to teach.

Capt. Fred Hodgkins is at home to remain during the fall.

Miss Carrie Johnson, of Fryeburg, was the guest of Miss Clara Hodgkins last week.

Miss Olive Coolidge goes to Franklin to-day to resume her work in the Ryefield grammar school.

Howe Smith has gone to Milo, where he has employment in the construction of a railroad station and car shops.

Miss Mabel Young, of Bangor, who has been visiting her grandparents, Benjamin Young and wife, returned home Thursday.

Misses Ethel Reynolds and Vera Berry returned from Northeast Harbor Friday.

Miss Reynolds will teach the fall term of school at North Lamoine, and Miss Berry will continue her course at Castine normal school.

She will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Curtis, who will enter the school.

Sept. 4. H. Roy Stratton leaves this week to enter Coburn classical institute, Waterville.

Capt. Fred Hodgkins and wife are spending a few days at Southwest Harbor.

Misses Flora and Grace Stratton have gone to Massachusetts for an indefinite stay.

Miss Clara Hodgkins has gone to Beverly, Mass., to teach in the public schools.

William Springer, wife and son, who have been ill for more than two weeks, are still very ill. Mrs. Springer is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Pearl Wardwell, of Bucksport, Mr. Springer's sister, arrived Saturday to assist in their care.

The past week has witnessed the departure of the following summer visitors: Mrs. Esther Whitaker; Mrs. Charles Cushing and daughter; C. A. Reynolds and family; Prof. A. W. Reynolds and family; Mrs. Betsey Young; Mrs. Lionel Hodgkins and son.

Sept. 11. H. WEST SULLIVAN.

Charles Mann, of Bangor, spent a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Nellie Mitchell.

Mrs. Liza Welch, of Franklin, visited her sister, Mrs. Simon Ashe, and called on relatives and friends this week.

Mrs. Mabel Gerrish and son Freddie have returned from an outing spent with relatives in Portsmouth and Kittery.

Miss Gussie Robertson, Harvey Robertson, Harry Patten and Harold Cook left to-day to attend the academy at Hebron.

Mrs. Mary Rideout Taylor and sister, Mrs. Helen Garland, former residents of this place, are visiting the old homestead, renewing old acquaintances and visiting places of interest.

The Golden Rule society met at Mrs. Barbara Taylor's Wednesday. Among the pleasant events of the day was the presentation of a sofa pillow to Mrs. Taylor by the society as a token of regard, Wednesday being her birthday.

Joseph Cameron died at his home Saturday, Sept. 9. Mr. Cameron arose Saturday morning as usual, but not feeling well, retired to his room. He was called at noon and did not respond. Later he was found dead. Mr. Cameron was about sixty years of age. He was a good citizen and much respected by all who knew him. The family has the sympathy of the community.

Schools commenced Tuesday, Sept. 5, with the following teachers: Clarence Havey, grammar school; Miss Bessie Gordon, intermediate; Miss Jane Hamilton, primary; Miss Alice Farnsworth, Sullivan Harbor. Herbert Hall, of Brooks, has been elected principal of the high school.

Mr. Hall is a graduate of Colby college, and is a student at the Maine medical school. He comes highly recommended. The term will begin Sept. 18.

Sept. 11. MAE. EGYPT. Mrs. Nellie Foster, of Waltham, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. S. H. Savage.

W. G. Hardison and wife have returned from Eastbrook after an absence of a few weeks.

Mrs. Selden S. Smith, of Welleley Hills, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Charles J. Smith and wife.

There was a very interesting meeting at Egypt schoolhouse Sunday evening. There were sixty present. Special music was furnished by Mrs. Sarah Mullan, Mrs. Sawyer and Mr. Springer, with accompaniment by Mrs. Minnie McKenzie. The next meeting will be led by Miss Gilley, of Northeast Harbor. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Sept. 11. C. V. S. ATLANTIC.

Jefferson Torrey and wife have gone to Winter Harbor for a few days.

Mrs. Abbie Joyce, who has been employed at Southwest Harbor since July, has returned home.

The sailing yacht Agatna, Capt. W. S. Eaton, of Boston, came into the harbor

Sept. 3. H.

LAMOINE.

Miss Margaret Springer has gone to Mariaville to teach.

Capt. Fred Hodgkins is at home to remain during the fall.

Miss Carrie Johnson, of Fryeburg, was the guest of Miss Clara Hodgkins last week.

Miss Olive Coolidge goes to Franklin to-day to resume her work in the Ryefield grammar school.

Howe Smith has gone to Milo, where he has employment in the construction of a railroad station and car shops.

Miss Mabel Young, of Bangor, who has been visiting her grandparents, Benjamin Young and wife, returned home Thursday.

Misses Ethel Reynolds and Vera Berry returned from Northeast Harbor Friday.

Miss Reynolds will teach the fall term of school at North Lamoine, and Miss Berry will continue her course at Castine normal school.

She will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Curtis, who will enter the school.

Sept. 4. H. Roy Stratton leaves this week to enter Coburn classical institute, Waterville.

Capt. Fred Hodgkins and wife are spending a few days at Southwest Harbor.

Misses Flora and Grace Stratton have gone to Massachusetts for an indefinite stay.

Miss Clara Hodgkins has gone to Beverly, Mass., to teach in the public schools.

William Springer, wife and son, who have been ill for more than two weeks, are still very ill. Mrs. Springer is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Pearl Wardwell, of Bucksport, Mr. Springer's sister, arrived Saturday to assist in their care.

The past week has witnessed the departure of the following summer visitors: Mrs. Esther Whitaker; Mrs. Charles Cushing and daughter; C. A. Reynolds and family; Prof. A. W. Reynolds and family; Mrs. Betsey Young; Mrs. Lionel Hodgkins and son.

Sept. 11. H. WEST SULLIVAN.

Charles Mann, of Bangor, spent a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Nellie Mitchell.

Mrs. Liza Welch, of Franklin, visited her sister, Mrs. Simon Ashe, and called on relatives and friends this week.

Mrs. Mabel Gerrish and son Freddie have returned from an outing spent with relatives in Portsmouth and Kittery.

Miss Gussie Robertson, Harvey Robertson, Harry Patten and Harold Cook left to-day to attend the academy at Hebron.

Mrs. Mary Rideout Taylor and sister, Mrs. Helen Garland, former residents of this place, are visiting the old homestead, renewing old acquaintances and visiting places of interest.

The Golden Rule society met at Mrs. Barbara Taylor's Wednesday. Among the pleasant events of the day was the presentation of a sofa pillow to Mrs. Taylor by the society as a token of regard, Wednesday being her birthday.

Joseph Cameron died at his home Saturday, Sept. 9. Mr. Cameron arose Saturday morning as usual, but not feeling well, retired to his room. He was called at noon and did not respond. Later he was found dead. Mr. Cameron was about sixty years of age. He was a good citizen and much respected by all who knew him. The family has the sympathy of the community.

Schools commenced Tuesday, Sept.