GEO. W. KENDALL,
JOHN G. RICHARDSON,
GILBERT E. R. PATTON.

Bath, March 23d, 1848.

To Nathaniel Walker, Esq., one of the Justices of the Peace within and for the County of Lincoln.

RESPECTFULLY represent Francis T. Purinton and Jesse D. Wilson, owners of a double saw-mill commonly called the Embargo Mill, situated at Grand Hole so called, in Topsham in said County—that they, together with James Derby, Nahum Perkins, Joshua Haskell, David Scribner, John Barron William Barron, James Thompson, Nathaniel Green, Charles White, Mark Morse, Woodbury E. Purinton, Sarah Purinton, heirs of Ezekiel Purinton, deceased; John W. Alexander and wife, Hugh Wilson, Arthur L. Wilson, William W. Patten, heirs of Humphrey Purinton, late of Bowdoin, deceased; heirs of James Purinton, late of Lisbon, deceased; Pelatiah Haley, Abel Merrill, William Sprague, William Whitten, and divers other persons unknown, are owners of a certain Dam commonly called the Long Dam, lying partly in Lincoln and partly in Cumberland Counties, extending from Fish rock island, otherwise called Derby's island, to the rocks on the Great Mill Brook so called; that the said Long Dam is necessary to the working of the said Embargo Mill, and is out of repair, and that it has become necessary that the said Dam should be immediately rebuilt or repaired; and the petitioners therefore request you, pursuant to law: to call a meeting of all the owners of said Long Dam, to be held at the Counting-room of Nahum Perkins, in said Topsham, on Saturday the twenty-second day of April next, at two o'clock, in the afternoon, for the following objects, viz:

To choose a moderator, clerk, and all other necessary committees or agents; and
To determine whether the owners will rebuild or repair the said Dam; and to raise money, make contracts, and take all other measures necessary or proper to rebuild or repair the same, if they conclude so to do.

Dated at Topsham, this eighteenth day of March, A. D. 1848.

FRANCIS T. PURINTON,
JESSE D. WILSON.

LINCOLN, ss.—To Francis T. Purinton and Jesse D. Wilson, Petitioners as above.

YOU are hereby authorized and required to call a meeting of the above named James Derby and others, and all persons owners of said Long Dam, to be held at the time and place and for the objects mentioned in said application, by publishing a copy of your application and this warrant, and of your notification thereon, three weeks successively in the Northern Tribune, a newspaper printed at Bath in the County of Lincoln, and the Portland Advertiser or some other newspaper printed at Portland in the County of Cumberland, the last publication to be not less than ten or more than thirty days before the meeting.

Witness my hand and seal this eighteenth day of March, A. D. 1848.

NATH'L WALKER, Justice of the Peace.

To James Derby and all the other owners named or described in the foregoing application, and all persons interested in said Dam:

PURSUANT to the foregoing warrant, to us directed, you are hereby notified to meet at the time and place and for the objects above specified in our petition.

FRANCIS T. PURINTON, Petitioner.
JESSE D. WILSON, Petitioner.

Topsham, March, 1848. Honors. 3w24

SPRING STYLE HATS!

NOT ALVORD'S, BUT BEEBE & COSTAR'S.

THE only "style" issued, except at second hand, which any one can easily ascertain by taking the trouble to inform himself correctly on the subject; albeit, a man by the name of Alvord did once hold the position before the public now occupied by BEEBE & COSTAR, but his "glory has departed from him."—We respectfully ask the public to call, examine and compare before purchasing elsewhere. Let it be remembered, that it is not Alvord or "Alford" who issue "the style", but BEEBE & COSTAR. We shall always consider ourselves "fortunate" in being able to serve the public by introducing the new style of Hats as soon as (but not "before") it is "issued."
