

Seasport Locals.

Mr. E. L. Simonton was in town Saturday. Capt. William Meyers is spending a few weeks at home.

Capt. Charles M. Nichols returned from New York last week.

Sch. Benette arrived Saturday with wheat for A. J. Nickerson.

George Delano, William Towle and Mrs. John Towle are on the sick list.

A. E. Nickerson has loaded schooner Passport with hay for Green's Landing.

Robert Cardon, who has been employed at Saxtonville, Mass., returned home Monday.

J. M. McDonald and wife left Thursday for Boston, where they will spend the winter.

E. H. Coleman, who was injured by a hay press at Sandy Point last week, is gaining slowly.

Edward Ford arrived here Saturday. He made the voyage from China in the ship, Shippo.

Mrs. Frank T. Carter left for Boston Monday to visit her mother, who is ill.

Sch. George O. Quinn, Capt. E. W. Clark, from a good run from New York, Boston and other ports.

Sch. Henry E. Kelly, Capt. R. S. Nichols, from a good run from Boston, Boston and other ports.

Charles Johnson and wife, who were on the schooner, ran away from the coast of New York.

Andrew and family, Dec. 20, from New York will make a collection in prison all their Christmas goods.

Shipping Extra, Captain Henry Rollins went Friday to East, paying at Green's Landing for New York.

A. F. Clement and family have moved to Boston, where they will spend a long time on Columbus avenue.

Samuel Marshall and Helen Rollins have been drawn to serve as jurors for the January term of court.

Rev. B. G. Hubbard expects to be at home and occupy his pulpit next Sunday morning. In the evening there will be a Christmas concert.

The farm buildings of Stephen Larrabee, situated very near the Seaside and Swan-town lines, were burned Monday.

A meeting will be held in the upper corner of the town Friday evening with Miss Julia Hamilton and Miss Lucy Hamilton. All are cordially invited.

A contribution will be called for next Sunday morning at the Congregational church to supplement current expenses and pay balance of the past year. A general meeting is needed.

Do not forget the school entertainment to be given at Union Hall next Saturday evening. A good program has been prepared by the teachers and pupils, and it is hoped that all will be cordially attended by a full attendance.

An assembly meeting of Freeman M. Gilchrist, Nov. 10, G. A. B., Dec. 10, for the year 1894, was held in the evening.

They held a service at the Grange hall last Thursday evening, and met at the hall, which was open to all who desired to attend.

Living School, composed of a group of pupils, has lately been established in the town, and will be under the supervision of Mr. George Stovess, who is now while from here.

Mr. Frank Heriman is teaching school in the town, and is doing well. He is now quite well, and is expected to return to his home in the town.

Miss E. L. Moxley left last week for Castine, where she will attend the winter term of the Normal School. Mr. and Mrs. Charles French have arrived from Trenton, Mount Desert, where they have been since early spring.

Master James Stovess of Bowser is spending his vacation here with his father, Capt. J. P. Stovess. One evening last week several of the friends of Miss Emma J. Black gave her a birthday surprise. The evening and dance were very successful.

Mr. Frank Springer of Bates College is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Curtis. Mrs. Emma Heriman spent several days of last week with friends in Seasport Harbor.

Mr. Frank Heriman will move into Mr. S. G. Staples house, A. G. Black & Co. has a fine display for Christmas. Margaret, wife of Capt. R. S. Black, had very pleasantly Dec. 10th of last month. She had been in usual health, and her husband had gone to the barn to do the work for the night and on returning to the house was very much shocked on finding her dead. Services were held Tuesday afternoon.

Harvard P. is expected that Rev. J. Washburn will preach at the Vase school, next Sunday evening. The next meeting of the Ladies' Circle will be at Mrs. Alice Gilchrist's, Dec. 27th. Mrs. Ruth Hamilton went to Lowell, Mass., last week to spend the winter with her children. J. B. Stevens left last week for the northern part of the State, where he will spend a few weeks hunting.

J. E. Hall is in Bangor this week attending the State Grange meeting. J. W. Plummer is at home from Massachusetts for the winter. Albert E. Brown, who has worked in Salem, Mass., the past summer, has returned home and is pressing hay at Weyland Hall. E. J. Stevens went to Boston this week on business. Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lamb, who have been spending a few weeks in this vicinity, left for their home in Portland last Wednesday.

The family of G. L. Wright, who have been living here a few months past, moved back to their home in Belfast last week. Enos Emery was obliged to have his horse killed last week. E. J. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there.

It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

WASHINGTON. At the recent annual meeting of the town agricultural society the following officers were elected: President, A. G. Siskoforth; Vice Presidents, P. M. Leffert, B. D. Sprague; Secretary, A. E. Johnson; Treasurer, T. S. Bowden; Trustees, J. F. Bryant, E. A. Sidelinger, John N. Luce.

NORTH HAVEN. The town is to have a public library. Dr. C. G. Weid has presented the town with a large and valuable library, which has been increased by about two hundred and fifty volumes of the works of Chandler, Bowditch, Little and Davis. A meeting was held last Friday evening to consider the hiring and preparing a suitable room. Rev. Mr. Purvis was chosen chairman and it was voted to solicit funds to pay expenses.

SWANVILLE. The Ladies' Aid Society met at Albert S. Nickerson's Dec. 17th. Forty-five were present and had a very enjoyable meeting. They are to meet with Mrs. Margaret Greeley Dec. 27th. Old December is laughing at our idleness, which consists in muddy streets with drizzling rain, when the time of year would warrant tip-top sleighing, but it is an all-winter that hovers nobody any good, it remains the men-folks may help out over the beam.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Apple harvest here has been trying to buy apples for one dollar per bushel, but very few will sell at that price. Perhaps we may give them away later in the season. It takes about one-fourth more money to satisfy stock than it did last year.

PROSPECT VILLAGE. A goodly number of Old Fellows with their ladies went to Winterport, Dec. 13th to the dedication of the new hall. Jerry Harrison has recently moved and moved on the Harrison place, recently occupied by P. Ladin. Roscoe Harriman has moved into the J. Emerson house and Pierre Ladin into the George Haley house. More apartments are needed for the stone workers.

WINTERPORT. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Emerson left on Monday for Livermore, Colorado, where they will spend the winter on Mr. Emerson's ranch. Mr. Robert Thompson books his leg while at work at the mill one day last week. It is a hard case, as he has a family of small children and is dependent on his labor, but much sympathy is expressed for him and it will probably take a substantial form. Sch. Minerva and yacht Emma are laid up in winter quarters. Farmers who want to find a market for their wool should call on F. C. Young for he proposes to buy about 50,000.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two double rooms for offices and a banquet hall, 24x30, with a convenient dining room for the ladies, and a waiting room for the ladies. The stairways are handsome and airy, and the roof is tiled. The walls are 15 feet high. It is beautifully free and has a handsome and airy appearance. The furniture, carpet, draperies, etc., are very nice, and everything is in excellent taste. It is heated by a furnace from the banquet room.

Brooks. Mr. Edwin Littlefield of Thorndike passed on our desk Dec. 12th, a donation of blood in yellow bloom just opening from the hind. Elson, son of Harrison Roberts of this place, has set up a harness shop in Reading, Mass. He has worked at the business for some time in Williston, New Hampshire. Mr. Fred Richards, formerly of this village but now a traveling salesman for C. A. Browning & Co. of Boston, has built a nice house at Reading, Mass., and moved his family there. Lyle Bessey has disposed of his place in Jackson and is living in Brooks Village at present. Will Bessey, who for some years lived in the Progress, has moved on to the Elijah Bennett place and will make business here these winter months. Mr. August Emerson has taken the place of his brother Hannan in the Swan & Shibley great mill. Judge Houghton and wife are spending the winter here with their son-in-law, E. A. Elliott. The friends of Charles Pierce and wife have the sympathy of the entire community. They have left their only son, a young man of 17, and promise and upon whom they depend to depend on their remaining years. The friends of Isaac Leathers will remember him to Sheffield, N. York, for appointment as deputy sheriff. David Brockett has sufficiently recovered from recent illness to attend to his general business. Mr. F. W. has increased his out going and photograph album, and purchased wood and paper boxes in great variety. Mrs. Julia M. Hesse of Cass, Me., has been in town for a few days. Charles E. Small has joined the Hiram Parson and left it in a happy mood. It will be used for dances this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there. It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

STOCKTON SPRINGS. The Penobscot Bay Land Company property was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Arthur H. Soden of Boston, for $36,000. Messrs. J. M. Ames & Son and Mr. E. F. Staples each had an invoice of flour arrive by schooner Brunette, last Saturday. S. B. Merritt, Esq., was drawn to serve on the jury in the January term, 1895. Capt. Elden S. Shute has arrived home to spend the winter with his family.

BELMONT. Mr. Horace G. Jordan, who works in Boston as driver for the Jamaica Pond Ice Co., is at home on a vacation. Miss Grace Miller of Lincolnville, who is in town last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cammett, returned home Sunday. Next time you go by Mr. Fred A. Marmer's car and he will show you some good goods. Mr. M. runs a private dairy and is a good dairyman. If you call, Fred and his good wife Nettie will tell you what they know about cows and butter-making. There will be a social at Mystic Grange Hall tomorrow evening, evening for the purpose of getting a centenary song for the centenary in the Press neighborhood. There will be a picnic supper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb have moved into their new house and they look as good as new. We wish them many long years of happiness. Past state Master M. B. Hunt, Mr. Miles Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Churchill are in Bangor attending the State Grange.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Apple harvest here has been trying to buy apples for one dollar per bushel, but very few will sell at that price. Perhaps we may give them away later in the season. It takes about one-fourth more money to satisfy stock than it did last year.

PROSPECT VILLAGE. A goodly number of Old Fellows with their ladies went to Winterport, Dec. 13th to the dedication of the new hall. Jerry Harrison has recently moved and moved on the Harrison place, recently occupied by P. Ladin. Roscoe Harriman has moved into the J. Emerson house and Pierre Ladin into the George Haley house. More apartments are needed for the stone workers.

WINTERPORT. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Emerson left on Monday for Livermore, Colorado, where they will spend the winter on Mr. Emerson's ranch. Mr. Robert Thompson books his leg while at work at the mill one day last week. It is a hard case, as he has a family of small children and is dependent on his labor, but much sympathy is expressed for him and it will probably take a substantial form. Sch. Minerva and yacht Emma are laid up in winter quarters. Farmers who want to find a market for their wool should call on F. C. Young for he proposes to buy about 50,000.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two double rooms for offices and a banquet hall, 24x30, with a convenient dining room for the ladies, and a waiting room for the ladies. The stairways are handsome and airy, and the roof is tiled. The walls are 15 feet high. It is beautifully free and has a handsome and airy appearance. The furniture, carpet, draperies, etc., are very nice, and everything is in excellent taste. It is heated by a furnace from the banquet room.

Brooks. Mr. Edwin Littlefield of Thorndike passed on our desk Dec. 12th, a donation of blood in yellow bloom just opening from the hind. Elson, son of Harrison Roberts of this place, has set up a harness shop in Reading, Mass. He has worked at the business for some time in Williston, New Hampshire. Mr. Fred Richards, formerly of this village but now a traveling salesman for C. A. Browning & Co. of Boston, has built a nice house at Reading, Mass., and moved his family there. Lyle Bessey has disposed of his place in Jackson and is living in Brooks Village at present. Will Bessey, who for some years lived in the Progress, has moved on to the Elijah Bennett place and will make business here these winter months. Mr. August Emerson has taken the place of his brother Hannan in the Swan & Shibley great mill. Judge Houghton and wife are spending the winter here with their son-in-law, E. A. Elliott. The friends of Charles Pierce and wife have the sympathy of the entire community. They have left their only son, a young man of 17, and promise and upon whom they depend to depend on their remaining years. The friends of Isaac Leathers will remember him to Sheffield, N. York, for appointment as deputy sheriff. David Brockett has sufficiently recovered from recent illness to attend to his general business. Mr. F. W. has increased his out going and photograph album, and purchased wood and paper boxes in great variety. Mrs. Julia M. Hesse of Cass, Me., has been in town for a few days. Charles E. Small has joined the Hiram Parson and left it in a happy mood. It will be used for dances this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there. It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

STOCKTON SPRINGS. The Penobscot Bay Land Company property was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Arthur H. Soden of Boston, for $36,000. Messrs. J. M. Ames & Son and Mr. E. F. Staples each had an invoice of flour arrive by schooner Brunette, last Saturday. S. B. Merritt, Esq., was drawn to serve on the jury in the January term, 1895. Capt. Elden S. Shute has arrived home to spend the winter with his family.

BELMONT. Mr. Horace G. Jordan, who works in Boston as driver for the Jamaica Pond Ice Co., is at home on a vacation. Miss Grace Miller of Lincolnville, who is in town last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cammett, returned home Sunday. Next time you go by Mr. Fred A. Marmer's car and he will show you some good goods. Mr. M. runs a private dairy and is a good dairyman. If you call, Fred and his good wife Nettie will tell you what they know about cows and butter-making. There will be a social at Mystic Grange Hall tomorrow evening, evening for the purpose of getting a centenary song for the centenary in the Press neighborhood. There will be a picnic supper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb have moved into their new house and they look as good as new. We wish them many long years of happiness. Past state Master M. B. Hunt, Mr. Miles Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Churchill are in Bangor attending the State Grange.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Apple harvest here has been trying to buy apples for one dollar per bushel, but very few will sell at that price. Perhaps we may give them away later in the season. It takes about one-fourth more money to satisfy stock than it did last year.

PROSPECT VILLAGE. A goodly number of Old Fellows with their ladies went to Winterport, Dec. 13th to the dedication of the new hall. Jerry Harrison has recently moved and moved on the Harrison place, recently occupied by P. Ladin. Roscoe Harriman has moved into the J. Emerson house and Pierre Ladin into the George Haley house. More apartments are needed for the stone workers.

WINTERPORT. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Emerson left on Monday for Livermore, Colorado, where they will spend the winter on Mr. Emerson's ranch. Mr. Robert Thompson books his leg while at work at the mill one day last week. It is a hard case, as he has a family of small children and is dependent on his labor, but much sympathy is expressed for him and it will probably take a substantial form. Sch. Minerva and yacht Emma are laid up in winter quarters. Farmers who want to find a market for their wool should call on F. C. Young for he proposes to buy about 50,000.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two double rooms for offices and a banquet hall, 24x30, with a convenient dining room for the ladies, and a waiting room for the ladies. The stairways are handsome and airy, and the roof is tiled. The walls are 15 feet high. It is beautifully free and has a handsome and airy appearance. The furniture, carpet, draperies, etc., are very nice, and everything is in excellent taste. It is heated by a furnace from the banquet room.

Brooks. Mr. Edwin Littlefield of Thorndike passed on our desk Dec. 12th, a donation of blood in yellow bloom just opening from the hind. Elson, son of Harrison Roberts of this place, has set up a harness shop in Reading, Mass. He has worked at the business for some time in Williston, New Hampshire. Mr. Fred Richards, formerly of this village but now a traveling salesman for C. A. Browning & Co. of Boston, has built a nice house at Reading, Mass., and moved his family there. Lyle Bessey has disposed of his place in Jackson and is living in Brooks Village at present. Will Bessey, who for some years lived in the Progress, has moved on to the Elijah Bennett place and will make business here these winter months. Mr. August Emerson has taken the place of his brother Hannan in the Swan & Shibley great mill. Judge Houghton and wife are spending the winter here with their son-in-law, E. A. Elliott. The friends of Charles Pierce and wife have the sympathy of the entire community. They have left their only son, a young man of 17, and promise and upon whom they depend to depend on their remaining years. The friends of Isaac Leathers will remember him to Sheffield, N. York, for appointment as deputy sheriff. David Brockett has sufficiently recovered from recent illness to attend to his general business. Mr. F. W. has increased his out going and photograph album, and purchased wood and paper boxes in great variety. Mrs. Julia M. Hesse of Cass, Me., has been in town for a few days. Charles E. Small has joined the Hiram Parson and left it in a happy mood. It will be used for dances this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there. It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

STOCKTON SPRINGS. The Penobscot Bay Land Company property was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Arthur H. Soden of Boston, for $36,000. Messrs. J. M. Ames & Son and Mr. E. F. Staples each had an invoice of flour arrive by schooner Brunette, last Saturday. S. B. Merritt, Esq., was drawn to serve on the jury in the January term, 1895. Capt. Elden S. Shute has arrived home to spend the winter with his family.

BELMONT. Mr. Horace G. Jordan, who works in Boston as driver for the Jamaica Pond Ice Co., is at home on a vacation. Miss Grace Miller of Lincolnville, who is in town last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cammett, returned home Sunday. Next time you go by Mr. Fred A. Marmer's car and he will show you some good goods. Mr. M. runs a private dairy and is a good dairyman. If you call, Fred and his good wife Nettie will tell you what they know about cows and butter-making. There will be a social at Mystic Grange Hall tomorrow evening, evening for the purpose of getting a centenary song for the centenary in the Press neighborhood. There will be a picnic supper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb have moved into their new house and they look as good as new. We wish them many long years of happiness. Past state Master M. B. Hunt, Mr. Miles Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Churchill are in Bangor attending the State Grange.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two double rooms for offices and a banquet hall, 24x30, with a convenient dining room for the ladies, and a waiting room for the ladies. The stairways are handsome and airy, and the roof is tiled. The walls are 15 feet high. It is beautifully free and has a handsome and airy appearance. The furniture, carpet, draperies, etc., are very nice, and everything is in excellent taste. It is heated by a furnace from the banquet room.

Brooks. Mr. Edwin Littlefield of Thorndike passed on our desk Dec. 12th, a donation of blood in yellow bloom just opening from the hind. Elson, son of Harrison Roberts of this place, has set up a harness shop in Reading, Mass. He has worked at the business for some time in Williston, New Hampshire. Mr. Fred Richards, formerly of this village but now a traveling salesman for C. A. Browning & Co. of Boston, has built a nice house at Reading, Mass., and moved his family there. Lyle Bessey has disposed of his place in Jackson and is living in Brooks Village at present. Will Bessey, who for some years lived in the Progress, has moved on to the Elijah Bennett place and will make business here these winter months. Mr. August Emerson has taken the place of his brother Hannan in the Swan & Shibley great mill. Judge Houghton and wife are spending the winter here with their son-in-law, E. A. Elliott. The friends of Charles Pierce and wife have the sympathy of the entire community. They have left their only son, a young man of 17, and promise and upon whom they depend to depend on their remaining years. The friends of Isaac Leathers will remember him to Sheffield, N. York, for appointment as deputy sheriff. David Brockett has sufficiently recovered from recent illness to attend to his general business. Mr. F. W. has increased his out going and photograph album, and purchased wood and paper boxes in great variety. Mrs. Julia M. Hesse of Cass, Me., has been in town for a few days. Charles E. Small has joined the Hiram Parson and left it in a happy mood. It will be used for dances this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there. It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

STOCKTON SPRINGS. The Penobscot Bay Land Company property was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Arthur H. Soden of Boston, for $36,000. Messrs. J. M. Ames & Son and Mr. E. F. Staples each had an invoice of flour arrive by schooner Brunette, last Saturday. S. B. Merritt, Esq., was drawn to serve on the jury in the January term, 1895. Capt. Elden S. Shute has arrived home to spend the winter with his family.

BELMONT. Mr. Horace G. Jordan, who works in Boston as driver for the Jamaica Pond Ice Co., is at home on a vacation. Miss Grace Miller of Lincolnville, who is in town last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cammett, returned home Sunday. Next time you go by Mr. Fred A. Marmer's car and he will show you some good goods. Mr. M. runs a private dairy and is a good dairyman. If you call, Fred and his good wife Nettie will tell you what they know about cows and butter-making. There will be a social at Mystic Grange Hall tomorrow evening, evening for the purpose of getting a centenary song for the centenary in the Press neighborhood. There will be a picnic supper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb have moved into their new house and they look as good as new. We wish them many long years of happiness. Past state Master M. B. Hunt, Mr. Miles Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Churchill are in Bangor attending the State Grange.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Apple harvest here has been trying to buy apples for one dollar per bushel, but very few will sell at that price. Perhaps we may give them away later in the season. It takes about one-fourth more money to satisfy stock than it did last year.

PROSPECT VILLAGE. A goodly number of Old Fellows with their ladies went to Winterport, Dec. 13th to the dedication of the new hall. Jerry Harrison has recently moved and moved on the Harrison place, recently occupied by P. Ladin. Roscoe Harriman has moved into the J. Emerson house and Pierre Ladin into the George Haley house. More apartments are needed for the stone workers.

WINTERPORT. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Emerson left on Monday for Livermore, Colorado, where they will spend the winter on Mr. Emerson's ranch. Mr. Robert Thompson books his leg while at work at the mill one day last week. It is a hard case, as he has a family of small children and is dependent on his labor, but much sympathy is expressed for him and it will probably take a substantial form. Sch. Minerva and yacht Emma are laid up in winter quarters. Farmers who want to find a market for their wool should call on F. C. Young for he proposes to buy about 50,000.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two double rooms for offices and a banquet hall, 24x30, with a convenient dining room for the ladies, and a waiting room for the ladies. The stairways are handsome and airy, and the roof is tiled. The walls are 15 feet high. It is beautifully free and has a handsome and airy appearance. The furniture, carpet, draperies, etc., are very nice, and everything is in excellent taste. It is heated by a furnace from the banquet room.

Brooks. Mr. Edwin Littlefield of Thorndike passed on our desk Dec. 12th, a donation of blood in yellow bloom just opening from the hind. Elson, son of Harrison Roberts of this place, has set up a harness shop in Reading, Mass. He has worked at the business for some time in Williston, New Hampshire. Mr. Fred Richards, formerly of this village but now a traveling salesman for C. A. Browning & Co. of Boston, has built a nice house at Reading, Mass., and moved his family there. Lyle Bessey has disposed of his place in Jackson and is living in Brooks Village at present. Will Bessey, who for some years lived in the Progress, has moved on to the Elijah Bennett place and will make business here these winter months. Mr. August Emerson has taken the place of his brother Hannan in the Swan & Shibley great mill. Judge Houghton and wife are spending the winter here with their son-in-law, E. A. Elliott. The friends of Charles Pierce and wife have the sympathy of the entire community. They have left their only son, a young man of 17, and promise and upon whom they depend to depend on their remaining years. The friends of Isaac Leathers will remember him to Sheffield, N. York, for appointment as deputy sheriff. David Brockett has sufficiently recovered from recent illness to attend to his general business. Mr. F. W. has increased his out going and photograph album, and purchased wood and paper boxes in great variety. Mrs. Julia M. Hesse of Cass, Me., has been in town for a few days. Charles E. Small has joined the Hiram Parson and left it in a happy mood. It will be used for dances this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Hall, returned last Monday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mearns, who intend to spend the winter there. It is expected that S. B. Rollins of Unity will begin a singing school here next Friday evening. Tutton, gentlemen, $1.50, ladies $1.00. Ingraham had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt a few days ago while at work on his brother's farm. The ladder on which he was standing slipped and he fell from the roof to the ground, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

STOCKTON SPRINGS. The Penobscot Bay Land Company property was sold at public auction last week to Mr. Arthur H. Soden of Boston, for $36,000. Messrs. J. M. Ames & Son and Mr. E. F. Staples each had an invoice of flour arrive by schooner Brunette, last Saturday. S. B. Merritt, Esq., was drawn to serve on the jury in the January term, 1895. Capt. Elden S. Shute has arrived home to spend the winter with his family.

BELMONT. Mr. Horace G. Jordan, who works in Boston as driver for the Jamaica Pond Ice Co., is at home on a vacation. Miss Grace Miller of Lincolnville, who is in town last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cammett, returned home Sunday. Next time you go by Mr. Fred A. Marmer's car and he will show you some good goods. Mr. M. runs a private dairy and is a good dairyman. If you call, Fred and his good wife Nettie will tell you what they know about cows and butter-making. There will be a social at Mystic Grange Hall tomorrow evening, evening for the purpose of getting a centenary song for the centenary in the Press neighborhood. There will be a picnic supper, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lamb have moved into their new house and they look as good as new. We wish them many long years of happiness. Past state Master M. B. Hunt, Mr. Miles Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Churchill are in Bangor attending the State Grange.

CELEBRATION. Miss Clara Palmer has gone to Bangor, Mass., to spend the winter with her mother. Mr. Orono Murray of Ipswich was in town last week. A sale of books and papers was given by the United Grange at their hall Thursday evening. A pleasing program was presented, attended, and a very good supper was served.

WALTON. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harding of Walton were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase spent Thanksgiving in Bangor. Bette Grange is represented in the State Grange by its master. The officers of the Grange will be installed by Prof. J. T. Chase and Bro. C. A. Devereux, Nov. 17th.

Our friends in Pennsylvania, who would like to know what kind of weather would be in the future, we would say that it is a matter of September and the roads are in the April. Other correspondents sent us a report of the dedication of Old Portland last week, but it was not possible to attend. The following items were sent to us from the building and sea credit to the order and an ornament to the building. The size is 18x22. It is painted in natural colors in elegant white glass front, and a beautiful stained glass window was presented by the ladies. The first floor contains two commodious stores, wares 15 feet high, finished in white wood with nice hard wood floors. The second story has two