The Hague Agreement

Submitted To Senate Yesterday.

Immediate Action Urged by the Secretary.

Explosives Thrown from Balloons

Prohibited for a Term of Five Years.

Washington, December 21.—The Senate today took the decisive step toward the making of a international treaty on the subject of the use of explosives on balloons, by the submission of the document to that body for immediate action.

The Senate unanimously declared the measure to be necessary, and the President's recommendation to that effect, and directed the Secretary of War to make a report in support of the measure.

The proposal is for the immediate prohibition of the use of explosives on balloons for a period of five years.

WITH WILL CONQUER WORLD?

Referring to Rapid Progress of America,

French Writer Makes This Remarkable Prediction.

Paris, Dec. 21.—A remarkably striking article appears in the current number of the French magazine called "La Revue Universelle," by a well-known French writer, M. de la Roche, who is known in France as a great statesman and who is a leading figure in the political life of the country.

M. de la Roche's article is devoted to a discussion of the future of America, and he states that he has no doubt that the United States will be the dominating power in the world.

He says that the United States is not only the most powerful country in the world, but also the most intelligent and the most progressive.

He further states that the United States is the only country in the world that has the power to control the world, and that it will be the only country that will be able to control the world.

M. de la Roche's article is a remarkable prediction, and it is a matter of great interest to all students of politics and of international relations.

The company is well known for its high-grade products, and is determined to maintain its reputation for quality.

The firm is located at the corner of White and Green Streets, and is open for business from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Saturday.

THE SARBON TREATY

Was Reported for Senate Yesterday.

Washington, December 21.—The Senate has reported the Saron Treaty to the House of Representatives, and it is expected that it will be passed by both houses.

The Saron Treaty is a treaty of peace between Greece and Turkey, and it was concluded at the Saron Gulf, on the 30th of November, 1912.

The treaty is a great step forward in the settlement of the Eastern Question, and it is expected that it will be a great boon to the countries concerned.

The treaty provides for the withdrawal of Turkish troops from Greek territory, and for the establishment of a frontier between the two countries.

The treaty is expected to be signed by both parties, and it is expected that it will be ratified by both houses of the Greek Parliament.

COULD NOT KILL HIM.

Royalty Who Was a Kid to Be Killed.

A young prince who was a candidate for the throne of a European country was last night the victim of an attempt on his life.

The prince was shot at by a man who was said to be a bankrupt, and who was said to have been driven to this desperate act by the hopelessness of his position.

The prince is now in a hospital, and it is reported that he is recovering from his injuries.

LIEBIG VIEWS OF AMERICAN SONGS.

Hear the Current Pianissimo in the Riordan Theatre.

American Legion in New York, January 1.—The American Legion in New York is now making arrangements for the performance of a new and original piece of music, which is to be called "Liebig's Views of American Songs." The piece is to be performed on the 31st of January, and it is expected to be a great success.

The American Legion is a national organization of veterans of the American Army and Navy, and it is devoted to the promotion of patriotism and the advancement of the interests of the United States.

The Legion has a large membership, and it is said that the piece of music is to be performed by a large and highly trained group of musicians.

The Legion is also said to be active in other ways, and it is expected that it will be a great factor in the support of the American government.
