

DID IT ALL ALONE.

Jennie Tabor, the Hudson Dynamiter, Confesses

AND EXONERATES HER LOVER.

She Intended to Blow Up The House to Kill Her Relatives—She Also Confesses Many Things.

Hudson, Aug. 17.—Yesterday officers Banks and Pease visited the home of Jennie Tabor, whose exploits have created such a sensation in this locality, in search of a dress pattern, stolen from W. F. Ball, a neighbor of Miss Tabor. This brought matters to a crisis, and the girl made a full and complete confession. She completely exonerated young Myers, whom she alleged compelled her to rob the house of George Goodwin and instigated her to blow up her sister's home. He has been released from custody. Miss Tabor produced the dress pattern, and told when she took it and also located a small amount of money left from the robbery of Goodwin's house, and said she was the only one engaged in the plot to blow up her sister's home with dynamite. She told Dr. Eaton, her attending physician, that she threw away the strychnine which it was thought she had taken and shammed the sickness.

SOLDIERS GET THEIR BOOZE. Why Will Drink From the Same Canteen.

Howell, Aug. 17.—Sheriff McCabe of Livingston county, after a conference with Quartermaster Suckert of the Michigan state troops, has concluded to do all in his power to satisfy the demand of the troops for beer, but will make it his special business to see that the state does not violate the law she has made. Captain Suckert has paid the tax of $225 and the county treasurer issued him a license to sell beer on the camp grounds at Island Lake. Mr. Suckert says he will sell only to the soldiers and everything will be sold in canteens. Prosecution Attorney Shields says the state liquor law must be lived up to, and any violation will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The only supply of the beverage will be furnished by the quartermaster.

Will Help Boom Bellaire.

Bellaire, Aug. 17.—The Bellaire State company, composed of gentlemen of Grand Rapids and St. John, has secured a valuable site, and is having timber and lumber delivered for building. They will employ a large force of men in the manufacture of staves, heading, etc. September 2 the people of this place will vote upon the question of raising funds to aid manufacturing enterprises and a large number of new plants is expected as the result. One which will employ 125 men making brick and lumber is already provided for. W. M. Davidson is only waiting to secure a suitable site for a large shingle factory, and many others will flock into Antrim county, for the people declare that its vast supply of lumber shall not be moved out in the log but manufactured at home.

Work of the Crusaders.

Mr. Pleasant, Aug. 17.—Two trains over the Toledo & Ann Arbor road, two on the Flint & Pere Marquette, one from south from Owosso, two from the west from Reed City, and one from Saginaw, each with from four to eleven coaches, all loaded with people, arrived today nearly all at the same time, bringing a vast number to swell the camp ground that had been filled to fill the camp ground. There were thirteen converts baptized during the morning services. Forty-two have been converted during their stay in the city. The converts have the choice of any church with which they wish to unite. The crusaders carry on special revival meetings for any church that will open their doors to them and go out in small bands to various parts of the country.

Michigan Ingenuity.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The following patents were granted to Michigan men today: Maurice E. Blood, Kalamazoo, seat attachment for bicycles; Elmer E. Cole and S. Hudson, machine for attaching vertical wires in wire fence; Charles R. Curtis, Fairland, hook for check rein; Peter Dennan, Mt. Montague, axle fabricator; John F. Evers, Mendon, adjustable number device; Russell A. Hani, Battle Creek, paper jogger; John A. Marvin, Lansing, truss; Henry A. Motzky, Detroit, liquid level indicator system; George W. Miller, Kalamazoo, surface casting guard; Seymour W. Peregrine, Grand Rapids, biting seat; Samuel W. Waggon, Detroit, heating and ventilating apparatus.

Michigan Crop Report.

The latest weekly bulletin of the Michigan weather and crop bureau indicates that the weather has been good for growing crops and general farm work, notwithstanding the drought that prevailed in some of the central and southern counties. This injured the crops to some extent, corn and potatoes especially. Rain is still needed in this section. In the central and northern portions of the state, corn, root and grain crops have been benefited by recent rains. Wheat and oats are about all out and threshing is about all over. The oat crop is a large one. In

Deliciousness Within the Reach of All

By the labor and ingenuity of Dr. Price, we have now before us the sweetest, freshest and most natural flavors. His Delicious Vanilla Extract surpasses in delicate flavor any other flavoring extract, while his Extracts of Lemon and Orange are really as fresh and agreeable in their flavor as the true fruits from which they are made. Any housekeeper who has once used DR. PRICE'S DELICIOUS FLAVORS in her cakes, puddings, or creams, will never return to the use of any other.

FIRST DAY IN CAMP.

The Soldier Boys Are All at Island Lake.

FIRST BATTALION DRILL

Was Held Last Night With a Good Showing—The Grand Rapids Companies Well Represented.

ISLAND LAKE, Aug. 17.—At 9 o'clock sharp yesterday morning Companies H, E and B were drawn up in line waiting for the train which was expected to leave at that hour. At 9:30 a telegram was received from Cadillac saying that the members of the Fifth regiment, from the northern peninsula, were at that hour eating their breakfast in Cadillac. This intelligence seemed to throw a gloom over the troops, as the prospect of waiting several hours was not encouraging.

General Passenger Agent DeHaven was, however, equal to the occasion, and hustled around until he had made up a train of three coaches and a baggage car, into which the troops and their baggage were hustled, and at 10 o'clock the companies were on their way for Island Lake for a week's training. To show the taxpayers of the state what could be done by the citizen soldiers they are supporting, Company H, Captain Lamper, commanding, was the strongest numerically, having seventy-two men in line, about forty-five of whom were clad in the uniform of the state, the rest wearing citizens' clothing and white caps. Company E, Captain Ed C. Bennett, contained sixty men and Captain John D. Kromer's Company B was of about equal strength.

The Trip to Camp.

The trip to the encampment ground was pleasant, although extremely dusty. Short stops were made at McConard's, Sunfield, Lansing, Weberville and Howell, but otherwise fast time was made. At Howell Private Souser of Company B and Private Letz of Company E, both in the cycle corps, were sent out to secure maps of the country which will be used in preparing the route of the forced march. They came to camp on their bicycles. The distance is twelve miles and the roads are sandy, but the trip was made in short time, again exemplifying the practicability of the cycle in military campaigns. At the Capital city, company E, 1st regiment, located at Mason and commanded by Captain Henderson was added to the train, and at 2:30 the whistle of the locomotive announces that Island Lake has been reached.

Of Island Lake proper nothing whatever can be said. In fact there is nothing in particular there. A small building by courtesy called a "depot" is located here. The main feature of this building is the sign on top of it announcing that Grand Rapids is only 111 miles away. Companies, and battalions were coming in hourly and "all day long through the dusty street sounded the tread of marching feet." Soldiers in all conditions of private life were there, dusty, tired, but happy in the prospect of a week in camp.

Laid Out the Regulars.

Four companies of regulars and a band came in yesterday morning, having marched a good mile. As dusty roads as were to be found in Michigan. They had not come through the march in very good condition being very much fatigued. Nearly a dozen had given out entirely and were brought in on ambulances. It is generally remarked that the volunteer infantry could have put these "men of war" on the shelf.

Location of Island Lake.

Island lake, so-called, is located 111 miles from Grand Rapids and 42 miles from the City of the Straits. The camp ground is admirably situated for the purpose for which they are now being used. They are located on a rise of ground bordered by Island lake on the north and south by swampy low lands, and on the east and west the land is high as far as the eye can reach.

Island lake is a beautiful sheet of water of peculiar, irregular shape, dotted here and there by islands of green, from which the town takes its name. The location of the Grand Rapids companies is as follows: Company H is on the extreme left of the regiment, Company E near the center and Company B next to Company F, Captain Mansfield, which is on the right of the regiment.

The camp has been named "Camp Winans" in honor of the chief executive of the state.

Battalion Dress Parade.

At 6:30 last night a battalion dress parade was held. Immediately after dress parade was held the first guard mount and Lieut. John C. Boon did the duties of adjutant for the first time. His soldierly appearance and familiarity with his duties caused much favorable comment. Capt. Ed C. Bennett of Company E, Grand Rapids, was senior officer of guard for last night and Lieut. Bert C. Allen of Company F, Ionia, junior officer of the guard.

Brigadier General Eugene Robinson is in camp and reclines on a cot in front of the brigadier headquarters with his crutches within easy reach. His pale face and general air of debility of the invalid commander of the Michigan brigade excite much sympathy. However, he overcomes the mustering in of all companies.

Company F of Grand Haven arrived at 6 o'clock last night and was greeted with three cheers and a tiger by its neighbor, Company B. The arrival of this company makes the second regiment complete.

Evening at Camp.

The evening at camp was passed by the militia men in renewing old acquaintances, telling stories of camp life in the past, and commenting on the future. In several places, excellent male quartets are singing national songs, and the sweet music of their voices is blended in perfect harmony with the music of the bands at the different regimental headquarters. The evening was a quiet one, and at "taps" lights were out in all tents except those wherein some one was sick, or where some one could at that particular moment open a jack pot.

At guard mount the members of the bicycle corps reported to Lieutenant Taylor, but no special duty was assigned to them.

The following Grand Rapids men are detailed for special duty on bicycle corps: Corporal Harry Hydin and Private Letz of Company E and Corporal E. E. Kemp and Private Lauser of Company B.

Captain Ed C. Bennett's wife and sister, Miss Ora, are at the residence of Ernest Vandrup, the owner of the camp ground. His residence is near the camp ground.

The Gardner & Baxter fall suits and suitings are now open for inspection. Nothing new in style and excellence has been shown here before.

Pronounced Hopeless Yet Cured. From a letter written by Mrs. E. J. Jurd, of Croton, N. D., we quote: "I was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying that I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and happy woman."
