OFFICIAL LETTER.

Harlow N. Higginbotham, President,
Ferdinand W. Park, Vice President,
Robert A. Waller, Second Vice President,
Howard O. Edmonson, Secretary.

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CHICAGO, June 19th, 1893.

The illustrations in this publication, issued by the Globe Bible Publishing Company, of Chicago and Philadelphia, are from the original photographs of the World's Columbian Exposition, the use of which is authorized and permitted by the Exposition management.

H. N. HIGGINBOTHAM, President.

We have here reproduced the official letter of the management of the World's Columbian Exposition, signed by the President. From this it will be seen that the authority for our statement is absolute and genuine, and that we come before the public with an authorized volume.

The official heads of the Exposition Management would not give the seal of their approval to anything but the best, and we think the very best none too good for our patrons. The photographs of the buildings in this book stand out clear cut as cameos against the sky. Every nice detail of ornament and design are clearly visible. Almost every mark of the chisel reveals itself clear cut as an intaglio.

A PHOTOGRAPHIC PANORAMA

MAGNIFICENT BUILDINGS.

Fresh from the hands of genius; the wondrous architecture of a wonderful world.

GLITTERING DOMES, MINARETS, TOWERS AND PINNACLES.

Reaching upward to the knees of the sky.

ARCHES

Delicate in design as spiders' webs, or massive as tunneled mountains.

INTERIORS

Exquisitely clear, each delicate detail admirably defined.

EXHIBITS

Ranging through every branch of science, art, agriculture, industry, ancient and modern.

STATUES

The frozen thoughts of noble minds.

FOUNTAINS

Jutting their jeweled jets in diamond strings.

PAVILIONS

Of all nations.

FOREIGN VILLAGES

Streets, Theatres, Cafes, Chantant, Race Types, Beauty Shows, Gondolas gliding over deep lagoons, hetero- geneous edifices, the Glittering Lake flashing back the glories of the sun, wooded islands, and a thousand other attractions of the

DREAM CITY

By Lake Michigan. A glorious book and a glorious subject.

DESCRIPTION.

This magnificent volume of over 500 massive oblong pages is illustrated with more than 250 full page copyrighted photographs, size 6x8 inches, of the World's Columbian Exposition, the use of which is authorized by the Official management. It is printed on the finest coated paper, handsomely and luxuriously bound in one royal oblong volume, size 9x11 inches. The text fills the pages opposite the pictures, and presents an unrivaled mass of instructive and descriptive matter, most beautifully and simply expressed.

Splendors Beyond Description.

Fifty nations and thirty-seven colonies are represented. Added to these are the United States Government, and the various States and Territories of the Union. The principal architectural colossal wonders are the Agricultural Building, costing $118,000; Machinery Hall, costing $1,285,000; the Administration Building, the gem of the Exposition, its cost was $4,350,000; the Manufacturers and Liberal Arts Building, which is the largest on the Exposition grounds, its cost $1,500,000, and covers 44 acres of floor; the Electricity Building, costing $401,000; the Mines and Mining Building, the Transportation Building, the Horticultural Building, the Woman's Building, the United States Government Building, the Fisheries Building, the Art Building, the Forestry Building, the Dairy Building, etc., etc., all treated with ample fullness.
