

CORRESPONDENCE.

Peck Notes.

We are having good hay weather at present.
The farmers have commenced harvesting their wheat in this vicinity.
The baseball match played at Brockway Centre on the 21st of July between the Elk Rangers and Brockway Centre Victors came off well. The score stood 26 to 23 in favor of the Victors. A return match will be played at Peck, on August 5th, when, we hope, our boys will have better success.

Miss Allie Gardner, of Glenora, Ont., is visiting friends in this place. Mr and Mrs Hisey, of this place, have removed to Brockway Centre. Mr Hisey will be greatly missed at this place as a good honorable citizen.

Grant Centre.

Fine prospects for the farmers this year.

The school house is being repainted and getting a general cleaning up.

J Cary is making extensive improvements on the Hill place.

Gardner is pushing work pretty lively on the new town hall.

Dr Campbell is of the opinion that his 3-year-old (Gold Dust) can't be beat.

Fair the wagon maker is apparently doing a pretty fair business. He has turned out 3 or 4 new wagons this year.

Robt Harris is doing a thriving business. He has just closed the contract for 4 tons of bridge castings and is selling a large number of plows, road scrapers and other implements. His business seems to be rapidly increasing.

Elder S Riley is working faithfully on the Grant Circuit this year. He has one church under construction and a large amount of money secured for another in the village of Jeddo. We would like to have him remain with us another year.

—We have received the Secretary's report of the Port Huron Executive Committee for relief on the work of relieving the sufferers of the Huron peninsula by the great forest fires of 1881. It gives a full report of everything which passed through their hands.

—Rev S. G. Betts commenced holding meetings on the vacant lot in the rear of the school house Monday evening. He has his camp meeting platform set facing the north, with a number of seats in front. A great deal of interest is being taken in the meetings.

—Chas Townsend closed his school in district No 6, last Tuesday, for the summer vacation. On the last day Mr Townsend made the following scholars presents for their industry, good conduct and punctuality: Eliza McElroy, Ester Beadle, Sophia Spontenburg, Frank Evans.

—A lively knock-down occurred on our streets last Monday evening after the sun had set, between two cousins whose hearts centered on one of the fair sex and were both paying their most affectionate attentions to her. John got his nose cooked in beautiful style and now struts around feeling as proud as a hen in a huckleberry patch. 'Tis too bad that we should have such young men in our community.

—Last Thursday night our quite little village was visited by burglars who entered the office of J. S. Duffie, opened the safe and took therefrom a number of papers, also the missionary jug containing $7. The papers were found in the morning under the sidewalk not in the least injured. They next effected an entrance by the use of a key through the front door of W. H. Palmer's store. Leaving one man outside to watch, the other two went inside. Before they had got fairly into operation Thos. Emery happened on the scene and scared them away. It seems that the tools used by them were taken from T. Darcy & Co's blacksmith shop but did not get a chance to use them and left them behind in their flight. The parties are unknown and no steps have been taken as yet to ferret the matter out. J. S. Duffie wishes to thank them, for the careful manner in which they handled his papers. It is a mean man who will rob a missionary fund.

—Once again we take pleasure in saying to the people of Brockway Centre and vicinity that we are in better shape than ever to furnish them with the best assortment of mixed candies ever on sale in the town for the same money, and our ice cream is as good as can be had in the state, in fact it is Ice cream, and the people are satisfied of the fact, judging from our increase of trade. We are also prepared to furnish any papers or books published, also our lunch apartment will be ready for trial at all times. Thanking you for your liberal patronage, We remain Respectfully yours, Mason & Colby, next door to Wallace's harness shop.

Another School Gone.

School No 5 at Menerey's corners died last Monday morning at nine o'clock a. m., after a long and lingering illness. One child left to mourn. Oh! How blest is the thought to the mourners, though their hearts are almost riven, yet to those whose cross is borne bravely, the fairest crown will be given.

A CROSS BEARER.

Baker's drug store, you can get a sample bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup which will relieve the most obstinate Cough or Cold, and show you what the regular 50cent size will do.
