

CORRESPONDENCE.

Port Huron.

It is a pleasant weather. This community was thrown into great excitement Sunday morning. Mr. Hugh Todd took his little boy George to Port Huron with him on Saturday and George got lost, started for home and went down the river road about 4 miles, got in to ride with James Moore who found out George's name, took him home with him and kept him all night and brought him to town Sunday morning, where his almost heart-broken parents were looking for him. Hugh says he has learned a good lesson. Charles Martin, James Farr, J. Martin and R. Foran started for the woods to-day. We will miss the boys till spring.

Our artist has decamped for warmer quarters. Our Fall is almost a certainty. Some 22x40 and 18ft past with a wagon shop underneath. We had a Democratic speech here Tuesday night. Elder Riey is still holding his meetings at the Allen school house with success. Elder Clark and Carter, of Brockway Centre are helping him.

The following we clip from the Romeo Democrat of last week: "Yesterday the boys had lots of sport with a man named Twitchell who lives north of Capae. It seems that "Dic" Walker and other noted sporting men of Capae, had worked the old man up to believe that his old plug of a horse was a wonderful trotter, and that if he would come to Romeo he could sell her for four or five thousand dollars. When he arrived here he was introduced to Lyne Gray, who immediately caught on to the racket and offered him $2,500 for the nag. The old man said that nothing less than $5,000 would buy her, but before he sold her, he wanted to give her a speed trial on the track against the fastest time on record. This wonderful mare, called "Lady Twitchell," was then given a trial, and made a mile in 3:40. It was the greatest sporting event we have had in Romeo for some time."

A Few Facts. If one lives not according to his knowledge, life is of no avail. In excess there is discontent, and in contentment happiness. Show every appearance of deception. True merit is ever found in honesty. Beware of the ambition that builds upon sand, for of such is disappointment. "If I first you don't succeed, try again." Not once, but twenty times, if necessary.
