GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—This valuable ladies' magazine, the best in the world, for March, is on our table, filled to the brim with useful, ornamental and instructive information that every lady needs, either in her household or wardrobe. It is certainly a wonder to us how any lady can get along without it. Its literature is of the highest order, and is unexceptionable in its influence upon the family circle, while its engravings are superior works of art. Its fashion plates are certainly ahead of all competitors, both in number and truthfulness of pattern, and are alone worth, to any woman of taste and refinement, double the price of the magazine, while its embroidery, music, drawing lessons, needle-work, household receipts, health department, and the thousand and one things to be found in the book, are certainly a useful addition to any family circle. By an arrangement with Mr. Godey, we are enabled to furnish this superb magazine to our subscribers for the low sum of two dollars a year, the regular price being three. Published by L. A. Godey, 323 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY.—The March number of this new and popular magazine is just received. It has met with marked success thus far, and is discussing the great questions of the war with fearlessness, tact, and ability. "Among the Pines," by Olmstead, increases in interest, and gives the reader much new information in relation to the South. Among the contributors to this number are, Hon. G. P. Disosway, R. B. Kimball, A. Oakley Hall, H. P. Leland, Bayard Taylor, Edward Atkinson and Charles G. Leland. The contents for March are rich and varied. The opening paper, "Southern Aids to the North," is well written and highly interesting. "Is Cotton King," is also a fine article. Then we have "Gen. Patterson's Campaign in Virginia," which will be read with much interest. These with other equally interesting papers, make up a readable and instructive number. The Continental is published by J. R. Gilmore, 110 Tremont street, Boston, Charles G. Leland is the editor. Terms—One copy, one year, $3,00; two copies, $5,00; three copies, $6,00.

STUDENT AND SCHOOLMATE.—This interesting little monthly has long been a most welcome visitor to our table. It is most admirably adapted to the wants of the school and family. The stories are illustrated, and well calculated to interest the youthful mind. Original dialogues, declamations, music, and carefully prepared miscellany, may be found in every number. For 1862 the publishers have greatly reduced the price of subscription to clubs, and also offer extraordinary inducements in the way of premiums. The following are the rates: Two copies, one year, $1,75; four copies, $3,00; six copies, $4,00; ten copies, $6,00. These rates of course, do not include premiums, which are as follows: For two names and $2,00, and twenty cents in stamps to pay postage, the publishers will send either a bound volume of the Schoolmate, a capital story, entitled "Little by Little," or a pair of boys Skates. For five names and $5,00, a copy of Harper's Weekly will be sent. For twelve names and $12,00, a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Address Galen James & Co., 15 Cornhill, Boston.

☞ OFF FOR THE WAR. ☜

"There's not a trade that's going
Worth showing
Or knowing,
Like that from glory growing,
For a bowld sojer boy."

Persons leaving for the seat of war should not be unmindful of their health. Disease will kill more of our gallant soldiers than the enemy's bullets. To cure fevers and other sickness peculiar to the climate and camp life, have with you a few of Herrick's Sugar Coated Pills. Millions have tested them. They never disappoint the sick. Large boxes 25 cents.

The Albany Evening Standard says: "Our popular townsman Dr. Herrick has supplied gratuitously all the volunteers which have left the city for war with his pills. He has also, with his accustomed liberality, contributed one hundred dollars towards the support of the families of the 25th Regiment, and offers more if necessary." Such a man should be respected and patronized. We are glad to learn that the sale of Herrick's Pills in Hudson exceeds that of all others combined. See advertisement on third page. aug22-18y1

"THAT STANDARD SHEET."

1862.

Great National Banner of Intellect,

FOR

AMERICAN HEARTS AND HOMES!

THE

NEW YORK MERCURY.

A New Year with an Old Friend.

ON New Year's day of 1862, that world-renowned and unrivaled gem of American journalism, the peerless NEW YORK MERCURY, will enter upon the twenty-fourth year of the most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. During the past year it has been the teacher, story-teller, mentor, and oracle of two hundred thousand American homes, from ocean to ocean—and from Quebec, in Canada, to Pensacola, on the Gulf of Mexico. Young and old, rich and poor, have reveled in its enchanting stories of wisdom, romance, art, poetry, and genial humor; and its praise is "Familiar in their mouths as household words."

The noble patriot-soldier in his tent, too, has whiled away the tedium of camp life in the absorbing review of its finding in them a fascinating mental discipline known only to those who rally to the Banner-sheet of the Grand Army of American Intellect and Genius!

In commencing a New Year, the proprietors of THE NEW YORK MERCURY can only say, that it shall be their aim to make their great family journal of American literature, for 1862, more brilliant and enchanting than ever, in its concentration of all the world's grandest and most beautiful specialities in healthful Romance, graceful Poetry, elegant and quaint Gossip, refining Knowledge, sparkling Humor, and entertaining News—until, like love, it

"——rules the court, the camp, the bower," as it already rules the happy domestic fireside.

The editorial tone and National departments of THE NEW YORK MERCURY will continue true to that lofty spirit of patriotism which has made it a necessity of the people since the War began, and kept it in enthusiastic demand when other sheets were dying all around it for want of popular support.

Already the largest Literary Journal in the world, and famous as the focus of a thousand brilliant literary reputations, its programme for 1862 will be magnificent beyond all precedent. The most celebrated pens of this country and Europe have been secured in its service, at an outlay equal to the expense of more than one national government in the Old World! and its novelettes, or continued stories, for 1862, will be the most splendid triumphs of elegant Fiction ever published. To these, too, the magic pencil of the greatest of American artists, Mr. FELIX O. C. DARLEY, will lend the aid of pictorial art.

Our story, initiatory of the New Year, is a splendid national Romance, commencing in the NEW YORK MERCURY of Saturday, January 4th, 1862, and entitled

THE RATTLESNAKE:

OR,

THE REBEL PRIVATEER.

A TALE OF THE PRESENT TIME.

BY NED BUNTLINE.

IT IS THE GREATEST NAUTICAL NOVELETTE SINCE THE DAYS OF MARRYATT.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers, it is regularly mailed every Saturday morning, for $2 a year; three copies for $5; six copies for $9; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy, free, to the getter up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post Office, County, and State. We take the notes of all specie paying banks at par. Payment must invariably be made in advance.

☞ Specimen Copies sent free to all applicants.

HERRICK'S SUGAR COATED PILLS.

THE BEST FAMILY CATHARTIC in the world, used twenty years by five millions of persons annually; always give satisfaction; contain nothing injurious; patronized by the principal physicians and surgeons in the Union; elegantly coated with sugar.

Large boxes 25 cents; five boxes for one dollar. Full directions with each box.

TALLAHASSEE, LEON CO., Florida, July 17, 1860.

To DR. HERRICK, Albany, N. Y.—My Dear Doctor:—I write this to inform you of the wonderful effect of your Sugar Coated Pills on my elder daughter. For three years she has been effected with a billious derangement of the system, sadly impairing her health, which has been steadily failing during that period. When in New York in April last, a friend advised me to test your Pills. Having the fullest confidence in the judgment of my friend, I obtained a supply of Messrs. Barnes & Park, Druggists, Park Row, New York. On returning home, we ceased all other treatment, and administered your Pills, one each night. The improvement in her feelings, complexion, digestion, etc., surprised us all. A rapid and permanent restoration to health has been the result. We used less than five boxes, and consider her entirely well. I consider the above a just tribute to you as a Physician, and trust it will be the means of inducing many to adopt your Pills as their family medicine.

I remain, dear sir, with many thanks,
S. G. MORRISON.
