New! Nobby! Neat!

OUR IMMENSE STOCK OF SPRING SHOES are here already for your careful inspection. This stock was bought last fall before the advance in leather, therefore we will offer you the same Splendid Values as heretofore. Our old customers need no introduction to our celebrated J. Richardson & Co's. line of Ladies' and Children's Shoes, but we wish to impress on the public generally the importance of buying Shoes that are fully warranted by the manufacturers. Every J. Richardson Shoe is absolutely guaranteed free from imperfections in workmanship or material. We have this year a much larger line to select from than ever before. The prices are as low as ever and we consider it a pleasure to show you the goods. Don't buy a Shoe until you inspect our stock. We can please you.

Yours to please,

VILLAGE ELECTION.

Although the Election was a quiet one, a Large Vote turned out and gave James McCol 85 Majority.

The village election last Monday passed off very quietly. Although there were two tickets in the field, and a slight contest was on tap, yet there was but little discussion, and the usual large crowd about the voting place was lacking.

One feature connected with this election is rather strange. The registration of voters made on Saturday previous, resulted in 62 additions to the electoral roll. This may show two things: That many have been careless about recording themselves as voters; or a great influx of voters has taken place since the last registration. Perhaps the increase is due to both causes. The poll list also showed an increase of 124 votes over last year, when there was only one ticket in the field. In 1898 there were two tickets, yet this year's votes were 50 in excess of the number then cast. The official count for 1900 resulted as follows:

Village ticket, straight votes.....110
Citizens' ticket, straight votes..... 33

President—
James McCol.....161
J. C. Holden..... 76
Majority for McCol 85.

Trustees—
E. F. Currier.....183
W. G. Wight.....175
Wm. Mackman.....178
H. Doelle..... 65
Currier, Wight and Mackman elected.
Clerk—
E. F. Fead..... 148
Ed. Andree..... 87
Majority for Fead 61.
Treasurer—

Republican Township Caucus.

A caucus of the republican electors of Brockway township will be held at Village Hall in Yale on March 27th, 1900, at 2:00 p.m., for the purpose of placing in nomination the following officers:

Supervisor, Clerk, Treasurer, Commissioner of Highways, Justice of the Peace (full term), Member of Board of Review, and four constables.

John Sheehy,
J. C. Holden,
Harvey Tappan,
Committee.

Of Interest to Parents.

Director Tappan has sent the following to the teachers of our schools. We believe that patrons will approve of the course outlined.

To THE TEACHERS—
At close of school last night while the children were on the way home from school, I saw a little boy about 8 years old, one of the pupils, attempt to "catch on" a heavy pair of sleighs. He slipped, was caught across the small of his back by the heavy runner and pushed along in that dangerous position a distance of 50 feet, a sight to horrify and paralyze any parent. He might have been crushed to death or maimed for life.

I realize how difficult it is for you to look after these pupils after they leave your presence; but I think the parents of the community will uphold us in doing everything in our power to prevent this dangerous practice, either during school hours, or on the way to and from school. Adopt your own methods, but let us do something to stop it. If necessary, the board will aid you in every way possible.
Harvey Tappan, Director.

"Kingdom Beautiful."

The fourth treat in the Yale High School course occurred in Central Hall Wednesday evening, and consisted of a lecture by Rev. D. E. Croft, of Boston, who presented the topic of "Kingdom Beautiful." The speaker made many good points and clinched them with a wonderful array of anecdotes and witty illustrations. The general effect of the lecture upon the audience was uplifting and an inspiration to better thought and life. The hearers came away with the sense deeply impressed upon them that the "Kingdom Beautiful" was not a far away fancy land, which few could see, live in and enjoy; but each one might be kings and queens in every day life, in the soulful manner in which they might do life's noble duties. There was an immense audience present almost every seat in both floor and gallery being filled. This speaks well for Yale's taste for the higher classes of amusement, and our people's appreciation of the more solid form of mental food.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Brockway, where he has lived for about 13 years, on Sunday, March 11, 1900, Wm. Patterson, aged 72 years, 2 months, and 9 days. The deceased had been in poor health for a long time and his departure was not unexpected by his friends.

Mr. Patterson was born in County Down, Ireland, near Drommarra. He came to this country in 1858, first taking up his residence in St. Clair, Mich. During the war he enlisted in the 1st Michigan Engineers, in which regiment he served about two years. For many years he resided near Lakeport, in this county, coming to Brockway in 1887.

He was married about 33 years ago, and his widow still survives. To this union were born two children, John, who resides at home, and Mrs. Wm. Wilkes, who resides in Brockway township.

Mr. Patterson was for many years, previous to his death, a member of the M. E. church. He was a thorough Bible student, perhaps as well posted on that book's teachings as any man in the county. He was a great reader, especially the older class of books. But no class of reading was so interesting to him as works on theology and kindred topics.

He was a man of strong and clear cut opinions. Neither his church or political creed was obtained second-handed, but thought out for himself and when adopted, openly avowed. He was also a conservative man, making few changes in his opinions and relations, and as such was not liable to be blown about by every wind of doctrine. He was, in spite of his conservatism, a very radical man in views and policies. It is to be regretted that the generation of men, of whom he was a type, are fast passing away from the earth.

The funeral services occurred on Wednesday, the 14th, and the interment made in Elmwood cemetery, Rev. J. A. Howe conducting the rites. These obsequies were attended by a large company of friends and neighbors who have long known and respected the deceased.

CARD OF THANKS.—We take this opportunity of thanking the many kind friends and neighbors for their sympathy and aid during the last illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Wm. Patterson. We are especially grateful to the M. E. church and choir for assistance in the funeral service.
Mrs. Wm. Patterson and family.

A Yale Man in It.

We clip the following from the Daily Pioneer-Times, published at Deadwood, South Dakota:

Isaac Gibbard, of Rochester, N. Y., and E. B. Noble, of Yale, Mich., have purchased thirteen claims near Custer, containing the recent discoveries of kaolin clay, marble, onyx lithograph stone and mica, and have organized the Black Hills Porcelain Clay and Marble Co. Mr. Noble is president of the company; Mr. Gibbard vice president, and Fred W. Wellington, of Detroit, Mich., secretary and treasurer. The company is capitalized at 3,000,000 shares of a par value of one dollar each. It will begin operations at once upon the marble, onyx, lithograph stone, and kaolin clay, and it means the establishment of a gigantic industry in Custer county within a few months.

On the property that has been secured there are also large ledges of variegated marble, gray marble, and a red mottled marble. One of these marble ledges is 40 feet wide. There is also an immense body of tombstone granite, that polishes finely, and would make a fine stone for building purposes. In fact there is marble on the property fit for any use to which marble could be put. It has been stated by competent critics that the white marble would be equal to the finest Italian marble, by getting down far enough on it to be beyond the influence of the weather.

There is a ledge of onyx 11 feet across, and some elegant specimens have been taken out. To all appearances it is equal to any that is used in the country, and it has been opened up sufficiently to demonstrate that it can be worked commercially.

Kaolin clay is largely used in the manufacture of china and porcelain ware, and in the manufacture of particularly fine wedding paper. It is in big demand, and seventy-five thousand tons of it are imported annually to this country from Paris, for the use of the manufacturers. On the property of this company, at the base of Harney Peak, there is a vein of it twelve and a half feet in width, and going down into the earth, there is no telling how far, and analysis proves it to be a first-class article.

Wm. Orr, Newark, O., says, "We never feel safe without One Minute Cough Cure in the house. It saved my little boy's life when he had the pneumonia. We think it is the best medicine made." It cures coughs and all lung diseases. Pleasant to take, harmless and gives immediate results. Grant Holden.

As many as 4,000 dates have been found on a single palm.

"I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my family with wonderful results. It gives immediate relief, is pleasant to take and is truly the dyspeptic's best friend," says E. Hartgerink, Overisel, Mich. Digests what you eat. Cannot fail to cure. Grant Holden.
