

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 29, 1859.

Republican Judicial State Ticket. FOR CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT, GEORGE MARTIN, Of Kent County.

REPUBLICAN CITY NOMINATIONS. For Mayor, HIRAM H. SMITH.

For Recorder, EPHRAIM LONGYEAR.

For City Clerk, JONATHAN G. RAMSDELL.

For City Treasurer, FRANK F. RUSSELL.

For School Inspectors, F. G. RUSSELL, WESLEY EMERY.

For Overseers of the Poor, DAVID M. BARKLEY, EDMUND RAMLEY.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

Charter Election. The Republican charter ticket is in the field, and an excellent one it is. Through the efforts of the party, it is now in the hands of the people.

THE REGISTRY LAW.

Appropriate to the season, will be found upon the first page of this day's Republican, two articles, from the pen of the Attorney General, who never writes, but to the point.

Mr. Siddle's, it would seem, is about to give the utmost solicitude to the evidence elicited upon his own trial. From a correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, who speaks as understandingly as any of the press writers or editors, we learn that Mr. Siddle has employed an experienced corps of photographic artists to report the trial verbatim for publication in pamphlet form.

There are a host of reporters and correspondents here from the distant press, who intend taking notes of the trial. Not one of them has been admitted into the Court room, and there is an evident disposition on the part of certain officers of the Court to deny many of them the liberty to do so.

The District Attorney is busy collecting material from evidence, and it is not likely he will be able to bring in his evidence in time to be used in the trial.

Mr. Siddle's, it would seem, is about to give the utmost solicitude to the evidence elicited upon his own trial. From a correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, who speaks as understandingly as any of the press writers or editors, we learn that Mr. Siddle has employed an experienced corps of photographic artists to report the trial verbatim for publication in pamphlet form.

The District Attorney is busy collecting material from evidence, and it is not likely he will be able to bring in his evidence in time to be used in the trial.

Mr. Siddle's, it would seem, is about to give the utmost solicitude to the evidence elicited upon his own trial. From a correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, who speaks as understandingly as any of the press writers or editors, we learn that Mr. Siddle has employed an experienced corps of photographic artists to report the trial verbatim for publication in pamphlet form.

The District Attorney is busy collecting material from evidence, and it is not likely he will be able to bring in his evidence in time to be used in the trial.

Mr. Siddle's, it would seem, is about to give the utmost solicitude to the evidence elicited upon his own trial. From a correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, who speaks as understandingly as any of the press writers or editors, we learn that Mr. Siddle has employed an experienced corps of photographic artists to report the trial verbatim for publication in pamphlet form.

The District Attorney is busy collecting material from evidence, and it is not likely he will be able to bring in his evidence in time to be used in the trial.

Mr. Siddle's, it would seem, is about to give the utmost solicitude to the evidence elicited upon his own trial. From a correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin, who speaks as understandingly as any of the press writers or editors, we learn that Mr. Siddle has employed an experienced corps of photographic artists to report the trial verbatim for publication in pamphlet form.

The District Attorney is busy collecting material from evidence, and it is not likely he will be able to bring in his evidence in time to be used in the trial.

Is a Registry Law Needed?

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Whoever doubts that Michigan needs a Registry Law, let them read attentively the evidence just taken in the contested seat Howard & Cooper, before the Recorder of the city of Detroit. From that testimony it appears that in the second ward of the city of Detroit alone, some fifty illegal votes, colored into the record, were given by Thomas M. Howard, one of the wisest of our citizens, who stands high in the esteem of his fellow citizens, and who is a native-born citizen of Michigan.

Republican City Convention.

Pursuant to notice delegates from the several wards of the city of Lansing assembled at the school house in the second ward, on Monday evening, March 29th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for city officers.

A. R. Hill, was chosen chairman, and D. C. Leach, secretary. On motion the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Mayor with the following result:

Table with 5 columns: Candidate Name, and 4 unlabeled columns for vote counts.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Recorder with the following result: E. M. Russell was nominated for Recorder for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Clerk with the following result: J. A. Kere was nominated for City Clerk for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Treasurer with the following result: F. G. Russell was nominated for City Treasurer for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for School Inspectors with the following result: F. G. Russell and Wesley Emery were nominated for School Inspectors for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Overseers of the Poor with the following result: David M. Barkley and Edmund Ramley were nominated for Overseers of the Poor for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Assessors with the following result: J. A. Kere and D. C. Leach were nominated for City Assessors for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Commissioners with the following result: J. A. Kere, D. C. Leach, and F. G. Russell were nominated for City Commissioners for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Councilmen with the following result: J. A. Kere, D. C. Leach, F. G. Russell, and Wesley Emery were nominated for City Councilmen for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Trustees with the following result: J. A. Kere, D. C. Leach, F. G. Russell, Wesley Emery, and David M. Barkley were nominated for City Trustees for the first year.

On motion, the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for City Clerks with the following result: J. A. Kere was nominated for City Clerk for the first year.

Once More unto the Breach.

The next issue of the weekly press all over the State, Republicans of Michigan, will come to your attention, not only in the name, but in the content. It will tell you what you have done in the kitchen, for your day and principles, which comes off on Monday—It will then be seen if you have fought the good fight—if you have kept the faith.

Our opponents are busy—more than usually so, it is believed—It is true that no general excitement has been raised among the voters, but they have been constantly plied from Detroit, by a week past, by letters, secret circulars, and documents, to induce them to make common cause in a plot to defeat Judge Martin by swapping off any and all the candidates on their own tickets, in the respective townships and wards.

Who else is plotting in one township to elect certain officers, another may be at work in an adjacent township to elect another, and so on, through the State, and when the votes are counted, it may turn out that by bartering a few votes here to accommodate a locality in this place, or to humiliate a rival, to accommodate a neighbor or to gratify a pipe, an aggregate of mischief has been accomplished sufficient to weaken the confidence of the men who give him his bodyguard for years past, and have a hell conference to his loss, inspiring them to go into the great Presidential contest of 1860.

It is believed that the Republican party has a future of honor, and that of endurance; but all these may be destroyed, not only by the efforts of the Democrats, but by the efforts of the Unionists, who are now engaged in making preparations for the Presidential election, this season on a much more extensive scale than heretofore.

The next issue of the weekly press all over the State, Republicans of Michigan, will come to your attention, not only in the name, but in the content. It will tell you what you have done in the kitchen, for your day and principles, which comes off on Monday—It will then be seen if you have fought the good fight—if you have kept the faith.

Our opponents are busy—more than usually so, it is believed—It is true that no general excitement has been raised among the voters, but they have been constantly plied from Detroit, by a week past, by letters, secret circulars, and documents, to induce them to make common cause in a plot to defeat Judge Martin by swapping off any and all the candidates on their own tickets, in the respective townships and wards.

Outbreak at Auburn Prison.

Two Prisoners Fatally Wounded—One Convicted Arraigned and Threatened to Kill the first Man who entered his Cell.

We learn from a letter from Auburn, that the prisoners employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives. The Warden, Mr. Kirkpatrick, in self-defense, was driven to fire among the refractory slaves. Two of the men were killed, and one severely wounded.

The following letters from the Warden have been received in the city: WARDEN'S OFFICE, AUBURN PRISON, Auburn, March 18, 1859. Dear Sir:—It became my painful duty this afternoon to put down the lawless mob in the House of the prisoners who were in the act of revolting.

Two of these unfortunate men were shot and killed, and one severely wounded. The prisoners who were employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives.

The following letters from the Warden have been received in the city: WARDEN'S OFFICE, AUBURN PRISON, Auburn, March 18, 1859. Dear Sir:—It became my painful duty this afternoon to put down the lawless mob in the House of the prisoners who were in the act of revolting.

Two of these unfortunate men were shot and killed, and one severely wounded. The prisoners who were employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives.

From the Missouri Democrat, March 19. The Grand March to the West.

It is believed by those here able to judge of the matter, that the emigration now going West, is the largest of any former period in the history of the country, even that of 1840-45, the immensity of which, it will be remembered, caused universal wonder.

About one million in length of our wheel is closely packed by steamers, numbers arriving daily, and the emigration now going West, is the largest of any former period in the history of the country, even that of 1840-45, the immensity of which, it will be remembered, caused universal wonder.

Two of these unfortunate men were shot and killed, and one severely wounded. The prisoners who were employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives.

The following letters from the Warden have been received in the city: WARDEN'S OFFICE, AUBURN PRISON, Auburn, March 18, 1859. Dear Sir:—It became my painful duty this afternoon to put down the lawless mob in the House of the prisoners who were in the act of revolting.

Two of these unfortunate men were shot and killed, and one severely wounded. The prisoners who were employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives.

Two of these unfortunate men were shot and killed, and one severely wounded. The prisoners who were employed in the name of the State, in an attempt to revolt on Saturday afternoon. It seems one of the convicts made resistance to the officers and threatened their lives.