REFRESHING.—After a long drought, the copious rain from five o'clock P. M. on Sunday, until morning, was quite refreshing.

A BIG APPLE.—R. Everett, our Supervisor, hands us a sample, a Gilliflower apple, plump sixteen inches in circuference.

FINE FRUIT.—From the fine orchard of Col. Whitney Jones, we have a couple of baskets of delicious Seckel pairs, very juicy and luscious.

FAIR IN CLINTON.—Notice is hereby given, that the Annual Fair of the Society will be held at St. Johns, on the 22d day of September inst., to continue one day only.

COLD.—We have had a few warm days, but on Monday night, the wind changed about to the N. E., and the weather become at once fit for December.

PURE JUICE.—We are favored by Dr Thayer, with a couple of bottles of "pure juice" Portwine, kept by him for medical purposes. We can recommend it, having tried it in cases of fever by persons in our own family.

REVIEW AND INSPECTION.—On Thursday last, a review and inspection of the three uniformed companies of Ingham county, took place at Mason. The companies were inspected by Gen. Cutcheins, Adjutant General of the State. The ranks were not full, and the exercise in the manual was not perfect, nevertheless the troops marched well, and in respect to soldier like deportment and appearance, the discipline was creditable.

SICKNESS AT MASON.—Much sickness exists at Mason, commencing with dysentery and terminating in dropsy. A few days since, Hon. J. W. Phelps lost a daughter; and on Wednesday last, P. McKernan, Esq., lost a son, fifteen months old; and on the same day, Hon. O. M. Barnes, another member of the bar of Ingham, lost his eldest daughter, an interesting child of about six years, a most heart-rending bereavement. Mr. Eddy, as we learn by verbal report, lost a child.

A. L. & T. B. R. R.—Upward of thirteen miles of the road-bed on this line between Owosso and Lansing is now ready for ties, and the ties on the spot. The track, in addition is nearly finished through the "Big Marsh," three miles north-east of this City. This marsh is three miles across. Upon the whole, the progress of the line is quite encouraging. Mr. Beckel, one of the contractors on the work, has given up his connection therewith, and Gen. Gibson of Ohio succeeds him.

HABEAS CORPUS.—A dangerous inebriate was sentenced to be imprisoned, a few days since, in this city, by Justice La Rue, and was put in the Lock-up. The City Clerk, who acted as counsel for the prisoner, undertook to get him released upon Habeas Corpus. Owing to some cause or other, delay occurred, and before the writ was granted by the Commissioner, the sentence was expiated, and the prisoner set free. The City Clerk, then, in his capacity of counsel for the late prisoner, sued out a writ for false imprisonment against Justice La Rue, upon the ground of imperfection in the Ordinance under which the prisoner was committed.

A POET AND JOURNALIST DEAD.—Leigh Hunt, who did what no other man could do, slander George IV., died two weeks ago in England. He wrote Abou Ben Adhem.

FLORA TEMPLE'S OWNER.—The annual income of Mr. Wm. Macdonald, the owner of Flora Temple, is said to be $80,000. He resides in Baltimore.

☞ The following communication from one of the old est and most influential men of the township of Plymouth, in Wayne county, cannot fail to command itself to the attention of all who are similarly afflicted.

PLYMOUTH, 20th August, 1859.

To the Editors of the Michigan Christian Herald:

DEAR SIRS—I feel it my duty to communicate through your journal the following facts, not only as an expression of my thankfulness to Dr. Kennott of your city, but that those suffering from like diseases may know who can alone all hope was gone.

Previous to March, 1858, I had suffered for several months from asthma and bronchetis. During these months I employed several of our regular or old school physicians, but the disease gradually wasted me away. I expectorated great quantities of dark fetid matter, had several attacks of bleeding from my lungs, had become so far reduced that I was not able to leave my room, had chills and fever with night sweats, in fact, all who saw me pronounced me in the last stages of consumption and a victim for the grave.

At this time I was informed that Dr. Kennott was helping Mr. Sexton and Mr. Booth of diseases of the lungs when they were greatly reduced. I felt anxious to see him. My brother went to Detroit and brought him to my house, when, after a careful examination, the Dr. told me there was yet hope in my case. He prescribed for me, and after taking his medicines six months, during which time I gradually regained my health, I was discharged, and am to day happy in the enjoyment of life and its blessings. I will add that I have been cured contrary to the expectation of all who saw me at the time.

Ever grateful, I am, yours, &c.,

GEORGE SCOTT

Dr. Kennott devotes his time exclusively to the treatment of chronic or lingering diseases, and will visit Lansing on the the 13th and 14th of every month.

DIED.

In Delhi, three miles from this city, on Friday evening, Sept. 16, 1859, Mr. LEWIS WRIGHT, aged 42.

The deceased was a native of Orleans county, N. Y., and had resided in this State less than three years. He was an estimable man, and much regretted by his neighbors. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by Rev. C. W. Knickerbacker, on Sunday, at one o'clock P. M. His disease was congestion, occasioned by chills. He was in the city as late as Monday, attending to business.

On Sunday, Sept. 11th, at Williamston, Mr. ELI LORANGER, aged about 70 years.

The deceased was a member of an old and respectable French family, who are scattered through Wayne and Monroe counties. He was an estimable and useful citizen.

In Mason, September 17, 1859, BENAH CONVERSE, Esq., aged 59 years.

Mr. Converse was a native of Vermont. He was one of the first settlers in Ingham county. He left his native State in 1836 or 7, and in 1838 he moved to Mason, which was then a wilderness country indeed. Here he experienced all the privations and hardships incident to settling a new country. The first year he buried his wife, and was left alone with a family of small children. Twenty years have since passed away, and the Pioneer lived to see the wilderness and the solitary places made glad, and to "rejoice and blossom as the rose." His children have grown up to respect and honor, and now the Pilgrim has gone to his rest, leaving a wife and children, as well as neighbors and citizens to mourn their loss, and revere and cherish his memory. And thus it is, that

"Friend after friend departs
Who has not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts
That finds not here an end!"

Hoofland's German Bitters—Read what is said of them.

Commercial Co., N. Y., March 21, 1857.

DR. C. M. JACKSON:

Dear Sir—In behalf of the afflicted, I pen a few lines to you. I have suffered and doctored myself, and have been to pay them in a few months. Until I commenced taking your Bitters last summer, I was not able to do anything, or even to walk any considerable length of time. Before I had taken the first bottle I felt like a new man, and now, after having used about half of them for a short time, in the most severe season of the year, I am able to labor hard every day. To say the least, I do feel I have received more benefit from the Bitters than all other medicines I have taken. I have not only used your Bitters myself, but have prescribed them to others, and in every case, they tell me they have taken no medicine as beneficial as the Bitters.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES VAN INGEN.

Prepared only by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch st., Philadelphia, and for sale by druggists and dealers everywhere throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cts. per bottle. 2w229

A DISTRESSING COUGH AND SORE THROAT CURED.—Dr. C. M. JACKSON: A short time since I was attacked with a very severe sore throat and hoarseness, accompanied with a most distressing and violent cough, which racked my system terribly. I used various remedies without obtaining relief, and finally purchased two bottles of Hoofland's Balsamic Cordial, on taking which I was entirely cured. We have since used it for other members of our family, and find that it never fails. We look upon it as the very best medicine in the world. Respectfully yours,

DONALD DODDS.

New Town, N. J., May 1, 1858.

Pimples on the Face, and Skin Diseases,

Are generally caused by Adimacule burrowing in the skin. Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment, by its powerful and penetrating qualities, destroys every vestige of them, restoring health and beauty to the skin wherever applied, removing Tan and Freckles.

INFLAMMATION SORE EYES.—A. G. Couching, of South Bend, Ind., says: "The Magnetic Ointment is the only remedy in use here for Inflamed Eyes. The Author of this remedy knows much faith in the curative powers of the Ointment, that he not only highly recommends it, but offers to forfeit the amount paid for it in each case, if it fails to cure."

PILES.—Piles, which are at this season of the year particularly troublesome, are cured at once by Trask's Magnetic Ointment; apply to the parts affected and small of the back.

NERVOUS OR SICK HEADACHE.—Apply the Ointment freely to the forehead and temples, and back of the neck, also to the soles of the feet and palms of the hands. It will relieve the severest headache in thirty minutes. Read advertisement in this paper. 2m243
