

ALMA RECORD

THE STATE AT LARGE

C. M. Fleming Editor and Prop.

ALMA RECORD, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1903.

GENERAL NOTES

The work of repairing the slight damage done some ago to the metal apex and capstone to the Washington monument is in progress.

Mr. HOWELL calls his new novel "The Miner's Charge, or the Labor of Louisa Barker." Its publication will begin in a widely number of the Century.

Superstition still has a hold on humanity as evidenced by the following from the City of Brotherly Love: A Philadelphia woman who has a fair amount of sense on most subjects...

The kissing of Henry Ward Beecher by several pretty young ladies, after his Grant oration in Fremont Temple, Boston, the other evening, excited some surprise among the spectators.

Elder L. H. Hunt, grandfather of the noted Miss Lulu Hunt, the electric girl, predicts the end of the world in 1932.

Judge JOHN G. O'KEEFE who died in Marquette recently, was well known throughout the state. He was born in Ireland, graduated at the University in Dublin, and had a leave his native country on account of a patriotism.

At a meeting of the Detroit ministerial union held on Monday, Oct. 19, resolutions were passed setting forth that moral and Christian citizens should unanimously declare that they will not vote for any man who is not directly committed to the cause of moral reform.

At the reformatory are employed 160 men at the uniform rate of 10 cents a day. There are 140 men at the state prison not employed in industrial pursuits, and then in War on U has been respectfully advised for bids for their purchase, there have been no responses.

At the political documents issued by the workingmen of Massachusetts is one showing the wages earned at the state prison and the reformatory. Over 50 per cent of the 187 men in the state prison are employed.

At the reformatory are employed 160 men at the uniform rate of 10 cents a day. There are 140 men at the state prison not employed in industrial pursuits, and then in War on U has been respectfully advised for bids for their purchase, there have been no responses.

Judge HOWARD of Philadelphia recently issued a heavy fine upon the proprietor of a theater in that city for exhibition of pictures representing characters in a play.

French Canadians Urge Federal Union. A convention of the French Canadian residents of the Province of Quebec was held at Montreal recently.

At the recent meeting of the Loyal Legion in Philadelphia, an order composed of commissioned officers of the Union Army during the war of the rebellion, a commandery-in-chief was organized with Gen. W. S. Hancock as commander-in-chief.

At the recent meeting of the Loyal Legion in Philadelphia, an order composed of commissioned officers of the Union Army during the war of the rebellion, a commandery-in-chief was organized with Gen. W. S. Hancock as commander-in-chief.

THE STATE AT LARGE

Closed Saloon Doors. In the case of the People vs. Cum, merford, for keeping his saloon open contrary to law, appeared from the Recorder's office, Detroit, by the defendant, Chief Justice Morse of the Supreme court, delivering the following opinion, rightly interpreting the law, and shutting off all saloons, by which saloons are closed.

Morse, C. J.—The defendant was convicted of the offense of not keeping his saloon closed on the night of the 31st of January, 1888, from and after the hours of 10 o'clock in the evening until 12 o'clock in the morning of the succeeding day.

Before the jury were impeached in the Recorder's court of the city of Detroit, where the case was tried, the defendant by his counsel made a statement of the facts of the case, and that it did not do forth any offense under the laws of this state, which motion was denied and exception taken.

The defendant's counsel, the Metropolitan Police testified that the defendant kept a saloon where intoxicating liquors were sold at all hours of the day, and that the defendant had several persons enter the restaurant and bar-room, who were seated at the bar, and who were drinking beer, and that the defendant was selling beer to them, and that the defendant was selling beer to them, and that the defendant was selling beer to them.

The defendant's counsel, the Metropolitan Police testified that the defendant kept a saloon where intoxicating liquors were sold at all hours of the day, and that the defendant had several persons enter the restaurant and bar-room, who were seated at the bar, and who were drinking beer, and that the defendant was selling beer to them, and that the defendant was selling beer to them.

Other evidence was received, tending to show that the defendant was in possession of the saloon, and that he was selling beer to them, and that the defendant was selling beer to them, and that the defendant was selling beer to them.

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

The court charged the jury among other things as follows: "It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws of his country, and that no citizen is to be excused from doing any act which is prohibited by the laws of his country."

DEATHS

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

John Kunkleman and Matty Ballson of Lansing, while playing cards engaged in a quarrel which resulted in the death of Ballson.

APPLAINT AGAINST

The managers of the Datto's recent saturnalia have expended $20,000 in improving the building and its surroundings this season.

Two years ago a horse and buggy were stolen from George Brackett of Charlotte.

The Bay county supervisors are considering an appropriation of $1,000 with which to erect a building for the care of the insane.

Work at the Union mine, Crystal Falls, will resume shortly, and the general working up of the mine will begin.

A Milwaukee man has just received notice that he is one of a vast army who are entitled to a pension.

Branch county is seriously resolving the propriety of building a new court house, and will do so by a vote of her sovereignty next spring.

A Bohemian ate associated with a successful practicing on farmers at Montclair, New Jersey.

Lumbering in Montgomery county will be more extensive this winter than ever before in the history of the county.

Peter Wilson of Lee, Calhoun county, comes into the possession of $1,000,000 by the death of his father, George Wilson.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

APPLAINT AGAINST

The managers of the Datto's recent saturnalia have expended $20,000 in improving the building and its surroundings this season.

Two years ago a horse and buggy were stolen from George Brackett of Charlotte.

The Bay county supervisors are considering an appropriation of $1,000 with which to erect a building for the care of the insane.

Work at the Union mine, Crystal Falls, will resume shortly, and the general working up of the mine will begin.

A Milwaukee man has just received notice that he is one of a vast army who are entitled to a pension.

Branch county is seriously resolving the propriety of building a new court house, and will do so by a vote of her sovereignty next spring.

A Bohemian ate associated with a successful practicing on farmers at Montclair, New Jersey.

Lumbering in Montgomery county will be more extensive this winter than ever before in the history of the county.

Peter Wilson of Lee, Calhoun county, comes into the possession of $1,000,000 by the death of his father, George Wilson.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

APPLAINT AGAINST

The managers of the Datto's recent saturnalia have expended $20,000 in improving the building and its surroundings this season.

Two years ago a horse and buggy were stolen from George Brackett of Charlotte.

The Bay county supervisors are considering an appropriation of $1,000 with which to erect a building for the care of the insane.

Work at the Union mine, Crystal Falls, will resume shortly, and the general working up of the mine will begin.

A Milwaukee man has just received notice that he is one of a vast army who are entitled to a pension.

Branch county is seriously resolving the propriety of building a new court house, and will do so by a vote of her sovereignty next spring.

A Bohemian ate associated with a successful practicing on farmers at Montclair, New Jersey.

Lumbering in Montgomery county will be more extensive this winter than ever before in the history of the county.

Peter Wilson of Lee, Calhoun county, comes into the possession of $1,000,000 by the death of his father, George Wilson.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

East Saginaw and East Taylor of a $10,000 railroad to connect the two places.

GIVE THANKS

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The American people have always acknowledged with thankfulness the many benefits which have accrued to them from the friendship of Great Britain.

Therefore I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to occur on the 30th day of November, instant, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and to invite the observance of the same by all the people of the United States.

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis:

The following proclamation was issued Nov. 2, by the president of the United States at Annapolis: