Lansing Letter.

LANSING, MARCH 3, 1887.

For the past few days the members of the legislature have not been driving ahead with as much fervency...

The rate at which the legislation has been rushed through lately is not calculated to inspire thoroughness...

The bill detaching territory from Harrisville, Alcona county, and organizing therefrom the town of Gustin...

If the prohibitory amendment is adopted at the polls there will probably be ample provision made for giving it immediate force and effect...

not so positive it will not succeed. Therefore, not to fool away their day of grace...

The committee on the Michigan soldiers' home presented their report to the house last Friday...

It has been determined the "vets" at the soldiers' home shall have no more liquor if legal enactment will keep it from them...

Considerable of a stir was created here last week by the publication of the investigating committee's discoveries at the soldiers' home...

A Valley City daily paper charged Senator Perry Mayo, of Battle Creek with being the fellow who prematurely "leaked" the discoveries...

The senate has settled down to gain, dignified work, broken only by an occasional tilt over some measure...

There has been wailing and gnashing of teeth in the senate, all because the bill introduced in that body making the senatorial term for four years...

Teachers' Association.

The public examinations of teachers for the schools of Gratiot county in the Spring of 1887...

THE GRAVES OF GREAT MEN.

Of those who have adorned the literature of our language, Chaucer, Spenser, Beaumont, Drayton, Cowley, Denham, Dryden, Addison, Prior, Congreve, Gay, Johnson, Sheridan and Campbell lie in Westminster Abbey...
