

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The Record is one of the best mediums for advertisers in Grant County, being a welcome visitor to nearly every home in this part of the county and towns adjoining.

The New York Chorus Girl.

A chorus girl at the Metropolitan Opera house, New York, cannot get married, it is stated, unless she gives the manager at least two weeks' notice, otherwise her contract becomes null.

"Coffee Coolers" in Battle.

A reporter asked Congressman Braug what he meant by the expression "coffee cooler," used in his speech against the vetoed pension bill.

AN INTERLUDE.

Fighting, she spoke, and leaning, clasped her knees: "Well, hast thou sung of living men and dead, of fair deeds done, and far lands visited."

A Norther in Texas.

Thirty-two miles further west we arrived at Fort Worth, a breeze swept city of about 25,000 inhabitants, the young rival of Dallas.

The Jansenites of Judaism.

The Slavonic novelist, M. Sacher-Masoch, has recently given an interesting lecture to a Paris audience on the Jewish sects in Galicia, in the course of which he described the Karaites, who acknowledge only the first book of Moses as their religious guide.

The Karaites consider that it is not allowed to discuss the fundamental basis of revelation. Another of their precepts is: "If you cannot do that which you would like to do you must be willing to do what you can."

The business of exporting apples is increasing. Two years ago 220,000 barrels were shipped from the port of New York; in 1885, 302,000 barrels, and last year, 349,000 barrels.

Two car loads of antelopes were distributed among the commission houses on South Water street the other afternoon. "This has been the greatest year for antelopes we have ever known," said one merchant.

Tendency Toward Insanity.

The tendency of modern civilization is toward insanity. It is increasing throughout Christendom, and far more where the boasted influences of modern education and the so-called progress are most fully realized.

A true civilization advancing in wisdom must develop the ability to correct its own evils, but the civilization that we have is drifting on, downward and help-emperor Akbar's Bonbon Book.

Of all the Mogul emperors Akbar was by far the ablest and greatest, but Shah Jehan was the most magnificent. The Emperor Akbar succeeded to the throne when he was but 14 years of age, with only the Punjab under his rule.

Worry, Not Work, Kills.

"The great man," says Emerson, "is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the serenity of solitude."

Stoves in Germany.

German stoves, by the way, are of a large, cumbersome size, resemble a furnace in shape, but are anything else in reality. One can never catch a glimpse of flame, and from their nature, if heated in the morning, begin drawing in the afternoon.

A New Material.

"Woodite" is the name of a new material which possesses the elasticity of rubber without being either inflammable or injured by salt water.
