School Notes

Miss Annie Reid visited school Tuesday.

Three new pupils entered school Monday.

Mrs. Brainerd visited school Wednesday.

We understand that the Ladies Trio is to be reorganized.

There is no school today on account of the teachers association at Ithaca.

Misses Chadwick and Hood and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Ely visited school Thursday.

The high school B division of music is taking the place of the old choir for a while.

H. M. Clark, state secretary Y. M. C. A., conducted chapel exercises Monday morning.

There was no school in the Kindergarten Monday because of the illness of Miss Mitchell.

There will be a school entertainment in the high school room on the evening of Thanksgiving.

Will Spicer has entered school for the purpose of taking the twelfth grade review Arithmetic work.

Each member of the senior class is pledged to sell 20 tickets to the lecture course. The tickets will be on sale next week.

There will be a meeting of the county teacher's association in Ithaca today and tomorrow. Alma teachers will attend in a body.

The old game of "Button, Button, whose got the Button" is again being talked of in the high school. This time it is James who is the interested party in the game.

The affair at the Graham school house Friday evening was a decided success, and those who attended believe that this school certainly deserves to be called one of the most wide awake schools in the county.

Charles Porter Davis of Glendale, Ohio, a few weeks ago a guest at the Sanitarium, visited school during his stay in Alma and seemed greatly interested in the work and in the school. A few days ago Superintendent Ely received by mail from Mr. Davis a photographic group of the American poets, Emerson, Holmes, Lowell, Bryant, Longfellow and Whittier. Mr. Ely will have the picture framed and hung in the high school room, as a souvenir of Mr. Davis' visit, and a testimonial of his kindly expressed interest.

The Lecture Course.

The high school senior class has completed arrangements for the lecture course to be given in the opera house in Alma this winter. The course will open with a concert by the Heberline Concert company, to be given the last of November. The Heberline Concert company is considered the leading concert attraction on the American platform, and our citizens are to be congratulated on having an opportunity of hearing them. Just before school closes in December Rev. Thomas McClary, the famous wit, will deliver one of his inimitable lectures. In January, (about January 21) Ralph E. Macduff, lecturer, scholar and instructor, whom Rev. Geo. F. Huntling, former president of Alma college, regards as among the leading pulp it orators in the west, will lecture. The last lecture of the course will be delivered by John Dewitt Miller the universally popular orator, philosopher, scholar and wit.

The tickets for the course have been placed at the very low price of one dollar. The senior class should receive the hearty co-operation of our citizens.

Gathered to His Fathers

John K. Woodward died at the residence of his daughter at Bowen's Mills, Barry county, Monday of this week. Mr. Woodward was born in Bennington, N. Y., May 4, 1817. He came to Michigan in 1845, and settled in Layton, Allegan county, where he lived until the death of his wife in 1877, since which time he has made his home with his children, five of whom survive him: Susan, (Mrs. Corning) of Bowen's Mills, Barry county; David of Layton, Allegan county; Bert of Alma; Merritt of Seville, and Jehiel of Riverdale.

Mr. Woodward was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was not a member of any church, but his religious creed was to render to every man his due, and to exemplify the teaching of the Golden Rule.

The funeral was held Wednesday at Bowen's Mills and the remains were interred in the cemetery in that place.

EXPLANATION.

SAGINAW, E. S. Mich., Oct. 25, 1895. To the Editor of the ALMA RECORD:

In your issue of October 11th, I notice the following: "Last summer, two ladies, guests at the Sanitarium, were fined three dollars and costs each for riding their bicycles on the sidewalk. One paid her fine, but the other left town without doing so. She returned to Alma last Friday when she was informed that the matter could be settled by the payment of the fine and costs. She settled." Although you mention no names in this article, it seems to be well known in Alma that the lady referred to as "leaving town" etc., is Miss Gage. I therefore desire to state that the article is false. Miss Gage was a guest at the Alma Sanitarium, in the month of July last, she and another young woman were riding bicycles on the sidewalk of your village without any knowledge that there was an ordinance of that village prohibiting it. Subsequently Miss Gage was informed by the clerk of the Sanitarium that a complaint had been made. Still later she was informed by Dr. Lancashire of the Sanitarium that he had interceded, and that the complaint had been withdrawn. She was never arrested on any such charge, nor did she ever appear in court with such a charge against her, and she was never fined $3 nor any other sum. That after receiving the information, as above stated, she was in Alma three days prior to leaving for east for a summer's trip. That she left with the impression and the understanding that there was nothing further to be done by her or any one in the premises. That on returning to Alma for a short visit in the middle of October, as she was at the depot about to take a train, she was informed by the Treasurer of the Sanitarium that the authorities had changed their minds, and that they now desired her to pay three dollars, which she paid to Mr. Sharp, treasurer of the Sanitarium.

I have investigated the matter and am informed by a reputable lawyer at Alma that the only papers on file in the Justice's office are a complaint, and warrant that was never served upon any one, and that there was no record of any hearing nor of any fine, and that the $3 collected as above stated, less fifty cents paid to Deputy Marshal, remains with the Justice awaiting his report touching the matter.

Very Respectfully,
CHAUNCEY H. GAGE.

The regular meeting of the Alma Union will be held Wednesday Nov. 13th, 3:30 p. m., in the Presbyterian church. Subject, The Foes of Temperance. Led by Mrs. Peters.

A paper printed in the Upper Peninsula says: "The cigarette is a roll of paper, tobacco and drugs, with a fire on one end and a big fool on the other. Some of the chief enjoyments are condensed nightmare, fits, cancers of the stomach, spinal meningitis, softening of the brain, funeral processions and families shrouded in gloom."

The Carthaginians prohibited governors, magistrates, soldiers and servants from drinking anything stronger than water, and the Athenians made it a capital offence for a magistrate to be drunk.

Sentiment in Georgia seems to be growing in favor of the anti-bar-rooms, to prohibit the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. The measure is championed by Hon. Walter B Hill.

The Earl of Carlisle is a very staunch teetotaler—so much so, in fact, that wine is not allowed upon his table; and, when he came into his title and estates, the wine cellar at Castle Howard was done away. Some splendid old ale, worth a large sum of money, was run away, the taps being turned, and the casks allowed to empty themselves.
