A FATAL SHOT.

B. D. Nelson, Enraged By His Wife's Infidelity,

SHOOTS HER.

Dan Doddard, Her Paramour, Also Under Arrest.

Sympathy of the Entire Community With Nelson.

Tuesday morning, the startling information was flashed over the wires that another murder had been committed in Wheeler township, this time in the village itself.

Brainard D. Nelson, of Lafayette, had shot and instantly killed his wife, Sophronie, in a fit of insane jealousy, caused by his wife's conduct with a fellow named David Doddard. The shooting took place in a house occupied by Doddard and Mrs. Nelson.

From interviews with Nelson, Sheriff McCullough, Prosecutor McCall and others, we believe the following to be the facts in relation to the shooting: Nelson, who was staying at the hotel in Wheeler, saw his wife pass his boarding place, and asked her about going to St. Louis with him that day.

She had agreed to leave Doddard and rent a house in St. Louis. Nelson walked with her toward the house where she and Doddard lived, when she informed her husband that she had decided not to go to St. Louis or have anything more to do with him.

They entered the house, when she said to Nelson: "I will not go with you, you can go where you like; I shall stay with Doddard. Where he goes I will go, and where I go he will go; I never intended to go with you."

At this point, so Nelson says, overcome with anger at the duplicity of his wife, he drew a revolver, which he carried in self defense, and shot her just back of the ear, the bullet penetrating the base of the brain, and killing her instantly.

She fell forward against her boy, a little fellow about ten years old, who was standing near her at the time. The boy says that Nelson then put the revolver in his own mouth and snapped it, but it failed to go off.

He then sank to the floor and was putting his arms about the dying woman, when Doddard rushed in, seized him, threw him aside, jumped on his hand with his boot, badly injuring the hand, and taking Mrs. Nelson in his arms, was holding her when the neighbors rushed in.

Both Nelson and Doddard were at once taken into custody. A jury was impaneled before Justice Swope, who soon brought in a verdict that Mrs. Nelson came to her death by a hole through the base of her brain, caused by a shot fired from a revolver in the hands of her husband, Brainard D. Nelson.

The Record believes that there are many extenuating circumstances. Ninety-nine out of every hundred people in Wheeler and Lafayette think that Nelson was justified in what he did and that his only mistake was that he did not kill Doddard as well.

If homicide is ever justifiable under such circumstances it was probably so in this case. Ever since last spring, when under a five year lease and a bargain for board with Mrs. Nelson, Doddard came to live in the Nelson home, there have been ugly rumors of their conduct.

Can You be Convinced

That Dr. Chase's Ointment is an Absolute Cure for ITCHING PILES?

Scores and Thousands Have Been Convinced by being Cured—A Baptist Minister Tells How He Was Cured by

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

There are so many preparations recommended to cure piles, and so many that utterly fail, that most people who suffer the tortures of this loathsome disease become discouraged and despair of ever being cured.

It is just such people who, when once cured, most strongly recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment, because they recognize in it the one absolute cure for itching piles.

The evidence published here is convincing; the only better proof is a trial. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment will convince the most skeptical by stopping the terrible itching and burning. It is very seldom that more than one box is required to absolutely cure any case of blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles.

Rev. W. N. Edwards, Baptist minister, 109 Trinity Place, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I can most heartily recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment as a positive cure for itching piles. For over 15 years the piles have been a source of constant annoyance to me, and frequently the suffering has been most intense.

The benefits derived from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment have been magical and lasting, and I feel it a duty to my fellow-beings to recommend it and use my influence to make its wonderful merits known."

SEVERE STORMS RAGING

Violent Gales in the Lake Regions and Heavy Snows in Michigan and Wisconsin.

THE WIND BLOWS 54 MILES AN HOUR.

Reports of Disasters on the Lakes Are Being Received—Worst Snowstorm in Years Experienced at La Crosse, Wis.—Winter Weather at Other Points.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The storm predicted by the weather bureau arrived a little late Monday night, but soon fulfilled the forecast. Between three and four o'clock in the morning the wind gauge registered 54 miles an hour. The storm abated a little during the forenoon and at 10:30 the wind was 45 miles an hour from the southwest, veering to the westward. At the same time the gale was northwest on Lake Superior, accompanied by heavy snow, and south-west on Lake Huron.

At the Straits of Mackinac, which seems to be the center of the storm, the weather was warm and the wind at nine o'clock blew light from the south. The barometer reached the lowest point in the history of the lake marine news station.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 12.—A south-west wind has been howling up the river at the rate of 50 miles an hour since early in the day. Heavy winds are reported from all parts of the lake region, while at St. Joseph, Mich., a snowstorm is raging. Fears are entertained for the government piers there. Owing to the early warnings given, most vessel captains have remained in port, and no disasters have been reported as yet.

Vessel Sunk. Detroit, Mich., Dec. 12.—Duff & Galtfield, of Amherstburg, Ont., received a telegram from Colchester stating that a vessel had sunk about five miles southwest from there. There was a steamer standing by, the name of which could not be discerned at the distance. No particulars are yet obtainable. There is a heavy gale from the southwest.

Heavy Gale on Lake Erie. Cleveland, O., Dec. 12.—One of the heaviest gales of the year prevails on Lake Erie. The wind is blowing at the rate of 50 miles an hour from the southwest. Very few vessels have ventured out since Monday evening, the weather bureau having Monday sent out warning of the approach of the storm. Telegraph and telephone lines are badly prostrated.

Pounding on the Rocks. Sandusky, O., Dec. 12.—The steamer Point Abino, coal-laden, is ashore on Ballast island reef and will probably be a total wreck. She is pounding hard on the ragged rocks and is rapidly filling with water. Her crew is still aboard, but it is believed all will be able to reach shore.

Worst Snowstorm in Years. La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 12.—One of the worst snowstorms seen here for several years started in here Sunday and continued until Tuesday morning. Trains on all the railroads entering this city are delayed from three to five hours. Street car traffic is blocked up and telegraph and telephone wires are down in all directions.

Killed in Lodging House. New York, Dec. 12.—James Holcrow, 38 years old, night clerk in the Waverly hotel, a lodging house at Eighth avenue and Twenty-eighth street, was shot and almost instantly killed in that place at 1:30 o'clock in the morning by Martin Sweeney, 33 years old, a waiter.

WICKED-LOOKING WEAPON.

Description of the Mauser Pistol That Is to Be Used by United States Cavalrymen.

"The new Mauser pistol, with which our cavalry is about to be armed, is a horrible looking piece of machinery," said an esthetic sportsman the other day. "It doesn't resemble a firearm at all, but looks like some strange scientific instrument, such as one might see in a laboratory. Imagine a cigar box, japanned black, with a handle at one end and a short tube at the other, and there you have it. The box contains the mechanism and the tube spouts bullets. The cavalryman of the past was a dashing figure. He wore a steel cuirass and a helmet with nodding plumes, and while he carried a brace of pistols in his holsters, his real weapon was his trusty saber. Do you remember the splendid fellows who are gaudying past Napoleon in Meislonier's '1807'?"

Since then science has gradually sucked all the poetry out of war and the Mauser pistol is the last work of brutal utilitarianism. The cavalryman of the future will carry nothing but a small black walnut box, and will closely resemble a surgeon going out to operate for appendicitis. When he gets to the right spot, designated by the engineer corps, he will dismount, open the box, take out his hideous Mauser machine, hook the case to one end, so as to form a shoulder rest, spray a few quarts of projectiles in a given direction and go home again to rest after the fatigue of the fray. If the calculations of the range-finder are all right his bullets perforate somebody a mile away. That will be war a la mode. In some respects it is a great improvement on the old style, but it will inspire no poets. Imagine Tennyson writing the 'Charge of the Light Brigade' about a cavalry regiment armed with Mauser automatics."—Chicago Chronicle.

AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

At the Paris exposition the central power station will be 1,200 feet long and 120 feet wide. There will be 45,000 steam horse power and 25,000 electrical horse power. The steam will be supplied at a pressure of 142 pounds per square inch. Electricity will be supplied at voltages of 125, 250 and 500 for direct, and 2,200 for alternating currents.

The mining exhibits at the Paris exposition will be most interesting. There will be two realistic representations and demonstrations of the art of mining. A shaft five feet in diameter will serve regular mine workings, and all of the machinery will be of the regular type in actual use in mines. Visitors will also have the opportunity of visiting the catacombs under the city.

A Sure Cure for Croup.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Bivins & Rhodes, druggists.

Mr. J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., saved his child's life by One Minute Cough Cure. Doctors had given her up to die with croup. It's an infallible cure for coughs, colds, grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis, throat and lung troubles. Relieves at once. Sharrar & Mulholland.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Centerville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
