TO SUBSCRIBERS
The Record has become a member of the National Publishers Association of Minneapolis, Minn. Our subscription account has grown to such an extent that we decided to have their assistance in this matter, as we cannot attend to it properly. The association is not a collection agency so we trust no offense will be taken if asked to pay accounts through them. The association is for mutual benefit and you will assist us by complying promptly to their request.

Under the preliminary provisions of the new Chinese treaty it appears that the open-door policy, which the government has insisted upon, will result. The whole of the immense Chinese empire will be open to American business enterprise and commercial development. The profit the United States will derive from the provisions of this treaty, if our merchants go after these newly to be opened markets in their characteristic manner, is almost incalculable. The outcome of the negotiations reflects great credit upon the State Department, since this country has secured its contention, without the advantage of the "sphere of influence" from which the other powers have operated.

Bro Vandercook of the St. Louis Independent is one of the few Populists who object to be taken in under the Democratic wing and having the doctrine of Populism swallowed and buried in the coming campaign. While we can not agree with Bro Vandercook politically, we admire his independent spirit in standing by what he thinks is right and refusing to be absorbed by another party, even if he has previously joined forces with that same party in endeavoring to force a false doctrine upon the people.

In promising what they will do if they get into power, the Democrats are not by way of establishing confidence among the voters, "pointing with pride" to anything they did the last time they held the reins of government. In order to point effectively with pride to any of its performances the party must go so far back that people cannot see what it is pointing at.

After much diplomatic friction it appears that Turkey is now arranging to pay off the various items which the United States has charged against her. Minister Leishman is entitled to a good deal of credit since the operation of extracting coin from Abdul Hamid is similar to the renowned process of squeezing blood from the queenly turnip.

The first sign of sagacity in the Democratic party was the spectacle of Mr. Hill and Mr. Gorman in conference at Saratoga. They are rivals of course, but they are not as devoid of sense as some of the party leaders.

The new Virginia regulations have practically disfranchised the negroes. Although actually strongly Republican, as is the case with most of the Southern States, Virginia is in fact hopelessly Democratic.

The Democracy is beyond doubt sorely in need of a leader; but it is in yet greater need of a few fundamental principles—principles which will mean the same thing north, south, east and west. The party has not such a resource today.

Senator Callum says that President Roosevelt is assured of the Illinois delegation in the next national Republican convention. The Senator believes that Mr. Roosevelt will be nominated by acclamation.

We should suggest to some of our free-trade friends who are bobbing up as though they had been hit in the head with a brick, that the country is not yet entirely tired of the prosperity.

Ex-Secretary Whitney says that Democracy has no man and no issue. A sad condition for the old lady. The only hope is an adopted son.

Card of Thanks
We desire through the RECORD to thank the friends who assisted us during the sickness and death of our mother. Also those who furnished flowers and to the singers for their services.

(Yet to be chosen) Director of Athletics, Helen L. Coffin, Librarian.
Edgar A. Bagley, M. D., Examiner for Gymnasium Work.
This is by far the strongest faculty with which Alma has ever begun a year's work. We invite our friends to compare it with other similar institutions in the state. It is expected that one more person will be secured for the work of elocution, who will also have charge of the gymnasium work for the young ladies. We long for the hour when the bell will sound forth the welcome tidings that another year of study is to begin.
The old students will look upon the college campus with the greatest pleasure. No one could have believed that a fence around an athletic field and a grand stand on one side of the field could have made such a change in the whole scene of the campus. It makes the equipment complete for the college. A lawn has sprung up about Wright Hall as if by magic, and the trees planted in the spring are crowned with beautiful and abundant foliage. The "Dorm" is glorified by electricity and in all interior arrangements has every comfort and convenience of Wright Hall. Taking it all in all no season of summer vacation has witnessed so great changes as the one just closing.

Dress does not make the person. Nor does a clean exterior indicate a clean interior. To be well all organs of the body must work in harmony. Rocky Mountain Tea does this work. Bivins & Rhodes, 1225-1m

LOCKWOOD-SANDERSON
Under a bower of vines and flowers the nuptials of Miss Rio Lockwood and Mr. Will H. Sanderson of Eldora, Iowa, were celebrated on Wednesday, September 3, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lockwood, on West Superior-st. Alma, Mich., Rev. W. K. Spencer, D. D., officiating. The home was profusely decorated with flowers—pink and white for the parlor; golden rod and yellow for the dining room. At the appointed hour the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Mayme Hayes, was heard, and the ring bearer, Master Harry Lockwood, took his position. Then came the groomsmen Mr. Roy Lockwood followed by the groom, next the bridesmaid followed by the bride. At the hall the bride was met by the groom and they proceeded to the altar.
The bride was handsomely gowned in Gaze de-Soie and carried pink roses. Miss Aria Holliday as bridesmaid was gowned in tan silk tissue trimmed in pink ribbon and carried pink asters. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. They were recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. During the ceremony Miss Hayes rendered "Oh Promise Me" on the piano. The bride is a handsome and accomplished young lady, with a host of friends, a student of Alma college. The groom was a well known and popular young man in business and social circles in Alma during his two years connection with the ALMA RECORD and who is now with the Eldora Herald, Iowa. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ooon, Chicago; Mrs. A. Wessels, St. Louis; Miss Edith Wessels, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Throop, St. Louis; Mrs. James Snyder, Eldora, Iowa; Miss Mae Snover, Mayville, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lockwood, Pompeii, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sanderson, Greenville.

The newly married couple were accompanied by a large number of friends to the evening train on the Pere Marquette which they took, amid showers of rice and congratulations, for Eldora, Iowa, where they will be at home to their friends after September 30.

The Republican Caucus.
The Republican caucus for the township of Arcada held last Friday for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention was about as large a caucus of the kind ever held in the township. The principal interest of the caucus centered in the contest for the support of the delegation by Bert Hayes for the nomination of prosecuting attorney and Seth Tubbs for that of county clerk. Dr. E. A. Bagley was chosen chairman, W. W. Kitch, clerk, and Geo. Sharrar and C. F. Brown as tellers. A test vote was taken to decide who should receive the support of the delegation with the result that out of 210 votes cast Mr. Tubbs received 151 and Mr. Hayes 60. Mr. Tubbs being decided upon as the choice of the caucus the delegates were chosen without much contest, T. A. Ely being elected chairman of the delegation unanimously as were the balance of the delegates with but a few exceptions. The delegation was named as follows: T. A. Ely, E. A. Bagley, Bert Hayes, C. F. Brown, Chas. Meyer, J. T. Ewing, E. Andrews, S. W. Tinker, F. Altenburg, Geo. Parsons, J. W. Glass, J. A. Baker, J. J. Sartor, M. Sharrar and G. S. Young.

His Work Appreciated
That the good people of the Emerson Baptist church have appreciated the work of their pastor during the period he has been connected with them, was evidenced on Sunday last when he stepped into the pulpit to preach his farewell sermon. The following letter laid on the pulpit with $25 enclosed:
"TO OUR BELOVED PASTOR—
We desire that you will accept the enclosed gift as a small token of our love for you and of our gratitude for the work you have done.
It is with mingled sorrow and gladness that we say farewell—with sorrow because you must leave us and with gladness because you go to better prepare yourself for God's work.
That God's choicest blessing may go with you and rest upon you is the wish and prayer of the Emerson Baptist church."

From Hot to Cold.
Dysentery is prevalent everywhere in summer and is due to miasmatic poisons and begins abruptly with inflammation of the mucous lining of the large bowel. In America the disease is common, but properly treated does not result as seriously as in the tropics. Perry Davis' Painkiller is the best known remedy and the most efficacious in the treatment of dysentery.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Martha Follick died at her home near Elwell on August 25, aged eighty years, six months and nine days. Her early home was in Cortland, N. Y. In the early '60s she came to Charlotte, this state and later to Elwell where she resided until nine years ago when she moved onto a farm two and one-half miles south of Elwell. She leaves two children, Melvin Follick of Elm Hall and Mrs. Chas. Taylor of Alma. Also four step children, Mrs. Reed Latimer of Alma, Marvin Follick of Elwell, Edwin Follick of Elm Hall and Miss Jane Follick of Alma. The funeral services were held on Tuesday, conducted by Rev. H. E. Wylie, and interment made in the Pritchard cemetery.

Literary Notes.
In "A Bit of Human Nature" the complete novel of the September Lippincott's Magazine, Mrs. Ellen Olney Kirk has opened a new vein of exquisite social humor. She has been known for pleasant satire in "Queen Money" and "Margaret Kent," but in "A Bit of Human Nature" she passes from satire to charming comedy, and there is not a dry line in the novel. It relates the consternation aroused in a family which has expectations for its spoiled son. These are found to be divided with an unknown girl on the condition that the two shall marry or one refuses the other. She decides to make him decline, and her diverting efforts form the delicious humor of the story. It is one which we predict will long outlast the month of its issue.
Card of Thanks.
The children of the late Mrs. Martha Follick wish to thank the many friends and neighbors who assisted them with kind words and loving deeds during the sickness and burial of their dear mother. Also the choir and the friends who furnished the many beautiful flowers.

Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Sharrar & Mulholland's Drug Store. While I did not use many of them I felt that they strengthened and toned me up and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

MUST BELIEVE IT
When Well Known Alma People Tell it So Plainly.
When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Alma, the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble, will find profit in the reading.
Mrs. O. Mack, of Mechanic st., says: "At intervals during two or three years I had slight attacks of kidney trouble. There was a soreness across my back and when stooping or exerting myself the pain became very sharp. I had to be very careful not to catch cold or get wet, for if I did it went right to my back and was worse. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice, and I went to Bivins & Rhodes' drug store and got a box. They proved to be the very remedy for which I was looking. I noticed their good effects in two or three days and a little later the backache disappeared entirely. My husband used Doan's Kidney Pills with equally as good results. We both endorse the remedy, for we know from experience that it does all that is claimed for it."
