THAT GAME OF BASE BALL

MANAGER CLAPP HAS A
TO SAY ABOUT IT.

The Norway Current's Editor Relinquishes himself of a Few Funny Remarks in Italic.
The Maroons do not Deny that our Club was Treated Shabbily—Their Appreciation of Manager Clapp's Kind Treatment.
Afraid to Play Another Game—An Interesting Column—Two Says.

Editor THE DIAMOND DRILL.

DEAR SIR: Permit me to use space in your valuable paper to answer to an article appearing in the Norway Current of September 3. In the first place I want to say that Mr. Atkinson's account of the ball game and the treatment my club received while at Norway is practically true, every word of it. And if the editor of THE DIAMOND DRILL wrote his items in the first person singular, and gave the Norway ball players and their admirers a deserved scolding, he only did his duty, and there is no denying that it was his duty to tell his readers how shamefully we were treated. However, I am not writing this to clear Mr. Atkinson, because everyone knows he is in the right, but to contradict several things that Mr. Knight knows, or should know, are wholly untrue. Mr. Knight says that: "the mid-night supper to which the Maroons were invited by the fraternity, but which they did not attend. Later Manager Clapp took them into the dining room and gave them each a cup of coffee—no more, no less." Now, that is a down-right falsehood, and whoever told Mr. Knight such a story just simply lied—no more, no less. I gave the boys a good supper of which they partook copiously. When my club played at Norway I took from here between two and three hundred dollars to cover any bets that I could get. I made numerous attempts to get bets but could find no one to cover my money, except my friend Dick Flannigan, whom I refused to put up any money with, for the reason that there were three new men in the diamond, one of whom I was led to believe would deliver a ball that my boys could not hit and I did not want to chance any money entrusted to me by my friends on any such deal, but this money is still at my command to bet on a game between the Maroons proper and the Crystal Falls club. During the sixth, not the second inning as Mr. Knight states, a bluff of $10 was made, which I did not take up, because I knew that the umpire was partial to the Maroons, and I was hardly foolish enough to throw my money away in supporting my club when I could plainly see that they were being subjected to what is termed the "grand rizzle-dazzle," by the umpire, who had money on the opposing nine. Mr. Knight has it "from one of the club" that I will not play for more than $100. All I have got to say to that is this: let the Maroons come up with their $100, $500, $1,000 or more, just as soon as they can summon the courage, and you will see whether or not I will play my men for more than $100, and I mean business too. As to "Messrs. Clapp and Atkinson," as a conclusion, do not feel as though they are indebted to Mr. Browning, and if an apology is made, it should come from Browning. As gentlemen the members of my club will compare very favorably with certain members of the Maroons. I have naught but the most friendly feelings for the Maroons, with the exception of Browning, and I do not like him because he is not a gentleman, and does not recognize a gentleman when he comes in contact with one. The Maroons did not live up to their agreement and treated us dirty mean, and the reason they will not play the third game is because they know that defeat awaits them. Yours truly, LOU CLAPP.

For one so young Mr. Knight made quite an effort to defend the Norway Maroons. He had a column of stuff in his last Current which was no doubt intended to hood-wink the public and lay the editor of THE DIAMOND DRILL up for repairs. Mr. Knight might write a dozen volumes larger than dictionaries and still the people would be of the same opinion regarding the treatment the Crystal Falls base ball club received while at Norway. Knight gets funny and tries to be sarcastic, but as usual all he succeeded in doing was to make an ass of himself. "Claude" may be a victim of a distorted imagination but his account of that ball game was correct and every line of it based on facts of the most forcible kind. The editor will correct a few little irregularities which appear in Knight's last slim and untimely effort and he will refrain from using italics to bring his points out. When Mr. Warren umpired the game here he was square and did right by all parties concerned, but his actions during the game at Norway were decidedly not right by no manner of means. He made decisions that were rank and which would not have been taken had he been at any other place besides Norway, now that's true. The big "I" which Mr. Knight has so much to say about, is eminently capable of sitting in judgment over the people of Norway, on occasions of this kind. The big "I" brought out a few things that did not go down very well, more particularly to the Norway ball players. The Current's editor makes use of this remark: "We have not the space nor the wish to worry our readers with three columns of such 'stuff' as was issued from THE DIAMOND DRILL office." There are several reasons for this. One of them is that there was no occasion for him to

A HOSPITAL TALKED OF.

Rev. Father Chapuis Endeavoring to Establish Such an Institution Here.

The Catholic congregation of this place, headed by their indefatigable leader, Father Edw. Chapuis, is seriously thinking of purchasing the old James building, on the south-west corner of Fifth street and Crystal avenue, completing it and opening a hospital, with sisters of some religious order in charge. The idea is a splendid one and will no doubt be carried out. Father Chapuis is of the opinion that no trouble will be experienced in getting the institution in running order and all with whom he has spoken to on the subject are very much in favor of it. The advantages of locating a good and well kept hospital at this point are so many and manifest that there can be no doubt nor fear of its proving a great success and particularly convenient. The undertaking should, and no doubt will, receive the hearty support of our people. Many of the men working in the woods and mines near here purchase tickets of admission to hospitals at Marinette or Menominee, and when a ticket holder gets hurt, he has to be brought here to await a train and then taken to the hospital. So much travel occasions much suffering and often hastens death. The great convenience of a hospital located here is apparent. An injured or sick person can be placed in the institution here at least one day earlier than at the institutions at the mouth of the river and the suffering endured in traveling one hundred miles by rail is spared him. The hospital will have a full corps of physicians and surgeons. Such an undertaking should be carried through.

Forced to the Wall.

Austrian Co., general merchants doing business here, were forced to the wall, Sheriff McLean taking possession of their store at about noon on Thursday. The liabilities are said to be between $7,000 and $8,000 with assets to fully cover. Sprague, Warner & Co., of Chicago, are the heaviest creditors. There are creditors at Milwaukee, DePere and other places the names of which the writer was unable to learn. The crash was quite unexpected and is said to be the result of an attachment for less than $500. Mr. Austrian's friends are confident that the matter will soon be satisfactorily settled and that he will resume business again in the very near future.

Base Ball.

The Crystal Falls base ball club played a friendly game with the Florence club at that place last Sunday. Rappe and Godshall composed the battery for the visitors and a good game was played. C. C. Olin officiated as umpire and Captain O'Brien says that he is one of the best men he ever played under. He takes a great interest in the game and has all of the rules at his tongue's end. The game passed off without any unpleasantness and was witnessed by a large number of people. Following is the score by innings:

Crystal Falls.....	3	8	2	5	3	0	2	4	—total	27
Florence.....	1	1	0	4	6	6	1	4	—total	23

The Mining Prospector.

Behold the prospector who wandereth over the face of the earth.

He traverseth the hills and picketh the barren mounds with his pick.

The pangs of hunger grip his bowels in the morning, and at night he lieth down with only a blanket to cover him.

And the gray-backs come forth and rend him.

And he lifteth up a voice of lamentation in the wilderness and cries aloud unto heaven:

Why has this affliction come upon me, and why do the terrors of hell compass me round about?

And while he sleeps the porcupines devour his substance.

And when he findeth the cropings he diggeth in the ground and taketh up an option.

Then he bieth to the green valleys and saith to the capitalist:

Harken unto me, for I have struck it big. Here are the samples from the ground, and behold the mineral maketh lousy the rock with richness.

And the twain return to find others toiling on the land.

And the prospector grabbeth his gun, saying:

Get ye gone from here, for this is holy ground.

And a fire cometh out of the bushes and smites him heavily on the hip, and he calleth with a loud voice:

I am done for, take off my boot paces.

And they hasten to take off his boot paces, and the fragrance of his socks reacheth unto heaven.

And he giveth up his ghost and is gathered to his fathers.

And behold, others work the mine.
