NOTICE.—Dr. Warner will remain in town only two weeks more. Persons wanting operations on the teeth will please call early.

DANCE.—The invitation cards have been printed for a dance in Beebe's Hall, on Friday evening of this week, given by Clewly & Thompson. Bill, $2.50, including supper.

Thanks.

Will. Hitchcock has our thanks for the ice cream treat last Monday evening. If the music was as good as the cream we are satisfied.

A. E. McClain would also tender his thanks to the Fire Company for generously filling his cistern, one day last week.

FIGHT.—On Monday David Broadwood and John McGuire, after indulging freely in cucumber, got into a fight in Campbell's saloon, on the north side, and McGuire had his finger badly bitten by the other dog, while Broadwood left the scene minus one ear, (his opponent being fond of sense,) and sought the assistance of Dr. Seaman, who dressed the place where once was that necessary organ for hearing.

A CAPTIVE.—On Saturday night last, Geo. Howard captured a large owl at Campbellville, and on Monday brought it to town and gave it to a friend who intended to stuff it. His owlishness was fastened by a stout cord for the purpose of keeping until some artificial eyes could be procured, but Tuesday morning he was found untied, and he made a dash for a window, which he went through, and lit on the drug store of C. C. Whitney, where he received a ball from a rifle, which undoubtedly made him think of "Home, Sweet Home."

We have received the Star Spangled Banner for July. With its January number this unequalled paper began its ninth year of successful publication. It is a rich, rare and racy 40 column paper, illustrated, devoted to literature, poetry, wit, humor, fun, and to exposing swindlers and humbugs. It is only 75 cents a year, and every subscriber receives gratis and prepaid, the new and superb engraving, "Pioneers of America," which cost $1,000 to engrave. Specimens can be seen at this office, or will be sent free by addressing Star Spangled Banner, Hillsdale, N. H.

EXCURSION.—On Wednesday of last week the Marine City had an excursion party on board, bound for Mackinaw, and Luckier Bros' Band, of Detroit, furnished them with music.—Among the excursionists were A. Parker and wife, of Pontiac, Hon. Wm.

Bancroft, Hon. O. D. Congor, Rev. Dr. W. Stoe, and Capt. S. D. Bottsford, of Port Huron. While the steamer lay at the dock the passengers strolled about town, visiting the Magnetic Springs, the Burrell House, and other places. The Band, which is the best in the State, gave the gentlemanly proprietor of this popular hotel a good serenade, which was duly appreciated. And about seven o'clock they headed for Mackinaw, returning the following day, when music was again heard at the Burrell House, after which they bid us good-bye.

An afflicted mother says: "A few days ago my little boy, five years old, was confined in the house in consequence of bad weather. As usual in such cases, he was extremely troublesome and fidgety, and, in consequence received a number of scoldings in the course of the morning. At last he looked up at me with a face full of indignation and exclaimed, "Mother, if all the bears in the world were one bear, and that bear had a sore head, it wouldn't be any crosser than you are."
