A MODEL INSURANCE AGENCY.

Under the above head we class the Insurance Agency of M. H. GALLAGHER...

The "solidity" of any Insurance Agency is of course entirely dependent upon the character of the companies represented...

The Home, always a favorite in the Saginaw Valley, is of itself a tower of strength. The METROPOLITAN, ARTIC, CORN EXCHANGE, ADRIATIC and LORRAINE...

In regard to the Life and Accident Insurance business of the Agency, we leave it for readers to gather the particulars...

Oil--The Spangler Well--Water Etc.

A correspondent writing from Petrolia, C. W. under date of Tuesday, Feb. 20th, says: "I have been to Saginaw and Canada No. 1, to-day. They are having a little difficulty; the collars on the pump-tube are too large for the hole, and have to be chipped off...

The firm has the solidity and capacity requisite for a first class financial concern, as well as a generous allowance of popularity based upon the intrinsic merit of all its members.

IS LUCK--At the distribution of paintings by Godfrey, Dean & Co. in Detroit a few days since, F. G. CASEY Esq., Proprietor of the St. Nicholas Restaurant in this city was the lucky recipient of the following: Landscape, Scottish Glen, by J. J. Goodison, $150.

PIONEER'S BALL, at the Everett House, on the 22d, though not quite as fully attended as its predecessors, was a decidedly pleasant affair.

Oil News--The following advices from Petrolia, C. W. are of late date and undoubted reliability. They are from a private correspondent who is "posted." He says:--"Baldy No. 1 is now the best well here, pumping steadily about 75 barrels per day."

"Why so pale and wan, Fort! Let's see! Prithies, why so pale?" The inscription you seek has only, in order to extend its area of usefulness, gone a little way up town. "It is not lost, but gone before" the spring trade opens; just to the palace of the radiant front, Everett Block, Genesee Street.

NEW BANK AT SAGINAW CITY. Miller, Braley & Co. have opened a new bank at Saginaw City, occupying temporarily the office formerly used by Newell Barnard.

THE DIRECTORY--The work of canvassing for the new Directory is progressing rapidly. Those wishing a copy had better subscribe the first opportunity, as we are informed by the Publishers that a very limited number will be issued over and above the number subscribed.

FIRE--Friday morning, Feb. 23d, a small wooden tenement opposite the F. & P. M. Railway Depot, took fire and burned down. There are painful rumors that one of the occupants an Irishman, known to have been intoxicated the night previous, was consumed with the building.
