The Lowering of the Lake Levels Looks Serious—Shot his Mother-in-Law—Some of the Things that Have Been Said and Done During the Week.

Shot His Mother-in-Law.

Joseph Przybysz, a Detroit saloonkeeper, shot and killed his wife's mother Friday morning at the instance of his wife, who thought her mother was a burglar. About three weeks ago an attempt was made to burglarize his house, but the burglars, who sought entrance by a rear window, were frightened away. Mrs. Przybysz urged her husband to get a revolver and keep it under his pillow. Just to calm her Przybysz did so. Some time ago his bride's mother was deserted by her own son, and Przybysz took her in charge. He and his mother-in-law were on the best of terms, she thinking more of him than her own son, because of his kind treatment. All three slept in the same room downstairs.

"Oh, my God!" wailed the wife this morning. "I told mother not to go out of the house. Now she's dead and my husband is in jail. Oh, what will I do?"

Mrs. Mary Zielke, the mother, who was 52 years of age, got up in the night, while her daughter and husband were asleep, and went out of the house. When she returned her daughter was awakened by the shutting of the door. She awoke her husband and whispered to him:

"Some one is in the house."

Przybysz reached under his pillow for his revolver, and when he saw a shadowy figure enter the bedroom door, he called out:

"Who's there? Who's there?"

The mother didn't answer immediately and Przybysz fired.

The bullet struck the mother right under the left arm, and she dropped dead at the foot of the young couple's bed.

Rathbun's Career.

Newell C. Rathbun, who has confessed that he planned to defraud an insurance company out of $4,000 by pretending that a corpse, shipped to Little Rock, Ark., was his own dead body, has admitted that the man who accompanied him to the hotel in Jeffersonville, Ind., and was found dead the next day, was Charles Goodman, who is said to have come from Evansville, Ind. Rathbun is a Michigan man, a son of H. A. Rathbun, of Petoskey, prominent in business and G. A. R. circles. Charles S. Hampton, formerly resident in Petoskey, says of him: "Young Rathbun, after recruiting work, went to the Spanish war, was at Porto Rico under Miles, returned to Petoskey, but soon re-enlisted. He learned the printer's trade in my office, when I owned the Petoskey Independent-Democrat. I can scarcely believe that he is in this serious trouble. To my mind, he was always more indolent than vicious."

Lake Levels Lower.

The report of the United States lake survey engineers of the mean depth of the great lakes for the month of October shows that Lake Superior has gone down in one year almost half a foot; Lakes Michigan and Huron, about a little over one-tenth of a foot, and the two latter lakes have gained but a very small fraction over the depth of 1895, when the water was very low over these lakes. Lake Erie has also gone down almost half a foot in a year, but has gained over half a foot from the low stage of 1895.

The figures show that the lake levels are slowly but surely falling. The Chicago drainage canal is said to be partly responsible for the conditions of the lake levels, and an investigation of this may be made.

Dearborn Postoffice Robbed.

Early Saturday morning burglars blew up the safe in the Dearborn postoffice and got away with something over $100 in money besides a considerable amount of stamps. It is supposed that entrance was obtained by forcing the transom. The safe was given a heavy charge of dynamite or some other high explosive and, after the blasting had been done, the burglars hurried back, secured the valuables and disappeared. A number of roomers were sleeping over the postoffice, but none of them appeared on the scene in time to catch the safe blowers.

It's Very Cold.

Marquette reported Friday: "This section of the Lake Superior country is in the grip of a fierce blizzard. Trains are delayed and car line service is demoralized. Thirty-one crafts are storm bound in the harbor with the waves washing over the breakwater." Then came this from Negaunee: "The thermometer is down to zero and the cold increasing. Over a foot of snow has fallen. It will undoubtedly put a stop to ore shipments for the season."

Owosso Hustling.

Owosso business men and farmers have been hustling for 3,000 acres of sugar beets for the season of 1902. Three days' work has resulted in 1,800 acres being pledged. As the men who agree to furnish the capital will go ahead when 3,000 acres are pledged, it is a question of but a few days when the digs will begin to move.

According to the report of Immigration Commissioner Powderly 5,188 of the 10,818 immigrants that entered Michigan during the last fiscal year were Finns and Scandinavians. About one-seventh, or 1,489 were Italians, who outnumbered the Poles in the proportion of 14 to 8. The number of English, Irish, Scotch, French and Germans combined hardly equaled the number of Italians, there being 717 Germans, 570 English, 110 Irish, 25 French and Scotch. The number of Holland Dutch exceeded the English by 22, while there were 607 Croatians, 378 Hebrews, 56 Lithuanians, 53 Magyars, 150 Slavoks and just four and one-half times as many Syrians as Scotch.

Beet Pulp for Sheep.

Four thousand sheep are to be fattened on the refuse beet pulp turned out by the Lansing Sugar Co. The sheep are the property of W. H. Gilbert, of Bay City, and L. S. Boutell, of Lansing. Pens have been prepared at the sugar factory, and about 300 will be placed in each pen. Students from the Agricultural college will have charge of each pen to assist in feeding, weighing and otherwise caring for the sheep, and the work will be done in systematic manner, all the details and results being carefully noted.

NEWS FROM ALL SECTIONS.

The Loss of Life By Storm In Great Britain.

THE ENGLISH CABINET ROW.

Princess Chimay Is Dying—Reports and Rumors From All Parts of the World of More or Less Interest to all Readers.

It Was Terrific.

It is still impossible to estimate with any exactitude the total loss of life and property resulting from the protracted gale, which swept England, Ireland and Wales, and probably the full extent of the damage will never be known. Altogether it is known that some 50 vessels have been wrecked along the British coast, and 34 of these have been absolute wrecks, involving, it is believed, a loss of more than 150 drowned. The Yarmouth lifeboat disaster alone leaves 44 fatherless children. The lifeboat was on her way to a distressed vessel, when she capsized and 11 men were drowned. A winter snap has succeeded the gale, while a severe blizzard which is raging over Scandinavia, is expected to strike the shores of Great Britain. Thursday there was a heavy snowstorm in Scotland and a fall of snow generally throughout the United Kingdom, especially in the hilly districts, where several shepherds lost their lives.

They Were Ready.

Maj. William L. Pitcher, of the Eighth Regiment of Infantry, commanding the Mindoro expedition, reports that the garrison of Abra de Ilog was attacked Sunday by a force of insurgents commanded by Lenocos. The Filipinos apparently attempted to repeat the Samar tactics, but the Americans, who were breakfasting fully armed, completely routed the insurgents, who left five men dead on the field, each having a rifle and ammunition. One American was seriously wounded. Capt. Noyes, of the Thirtieth Infantry, commanding a detachment of fifty men, has captured a deserter named Richter, of the Sixth Artillery, wearing the uniform of an insurgent lieutenant. Maj. Pitcher says he recently captured three officers and a large part of an insurgent company, all fully armed. It is believed the insurgents recently received an illicit supply of munitions of war.

The English Cabinet Row.

The rumors that there is much discussion in the British cabinet are confirmed and it is said the disagreement was responsible for the protracted session. What really happened was an onslaught upon Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, by nearly all his associates. Balfour joined Chamberlain and Lord Salisbury, while Lord Devonshire supported both in condemning the speech of the chancellor which had sent down the price of consols with a rush. The Hicks-Beach financial administration and general proposals for carrying the additional burdens of the Boer war were harshly criticised, and he was left almost alone, with all the strongest men against him. Lord Londenderry, Hicks-Beach's closest friend, intervened as a peacemaker over night, and a truce was arranged by him.

The Shining Jewels.

Preparations for King Edward's coronation are already taking definite and costly shape. Mrs. Bradley-Martin is having a tiara made in Paris, it is reported, at a cost of £250,000. It is a replica of the diadem which shone on the head of Empress Josephine. Queen Alexandra, not to be outdone by the resident Americans, is having the Koh-i-noor diamond set in her new crown. The inclusion of this stone will make her crown the most valuable in the world, a distinction now held by the king of Portugal. Peeresses are trying to outvie each other in the brilliancy of their tiaras. It is reported that King Edward, at the coronation, will confer the semi-royal title of duke of Inverness on the duke of Fife, son-in-law of his majesty.

Her throat is swollen to twice its normal size." She has been living fairly quietly for some weeks. Her apartments are elegant and luxurious, and she does not want for money. To-night the physician in charge declared an operation was necessary; but that the princess' condition prevented it

Attempted Train Robbery.

Officials of the Burlington admit that since the first of the week their night trains leaving Lincoln, Neb., have gone out with a guard armed with Winchester rifles. This precaution was taken following the discovery last Sunday of 24 sticks of dynamite together with a number of masks hidden under a bridge just outside the city. Sunday night three men attempted to board the express car as a train pulled out of Lincoln for the east but they were driven off. Monday the same three men were at Ashland and an effort was made to arrest them, but they disappeared.

Winter Gardening for Children.

To keep up the interest which the children have shown this summer in growing plants, make a sweet potato cup. Cut about two inches off one end of a well-grown sweet potato, scoop out about half of the inside and fill the hollow with water. Fasten a string about the potato, with another string attached to it to suspend it in the window. Keep the cuplike hollow filled with water and in a short time sprouts will appear. The vine will be a very pretty one. Another window green is made by soaking a sponge full of water and sprinkling it well over with grass seed. It will soon be a ball of green. If any part of the grass dies, sprinkle in more grass seed. Keep it wet.

Rheumatism and the Eyes.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18th.—Mr. R. A. Wade, the celebrated criminal lawyer of this city whose opinion on legal matters is unquestioned, has recently made public his unqualified opinion on a matter of medicine. He has no fear of being set right by any of his medical friends, for both statements have a living and indisputable proof in the person of the great lawyer himself, who as a result of Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble from which he suffered for years, became totally blind.

Physicians, the best in the country, pronounced his case incurable and hopeless, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him, restored his sight, drove away the Kidney Trouble and with it the Rheumatism and made an all-around well man of him.

Spread of Mormonism.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Vermilye told the Reformed church in New York that "the danger of Mormonism is underrated, not overrated. When the public realizes that there are two Mormon churches in Brooklyn, one in Manhattan, one in Philadelphia, a strong and growing Mormon settlement on the borders of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and that the strongest church in a section 50 miles from Jersey City is Mormon, it may be understood that the situation is menacing. It was predicted that in 50 years the Mormons would control a belt of states cutting the country in two from northeast to southwest. The prediction has been verified in 20 years instead of 50. They own land from the Rocky Mountains to the Sierras and are spreading east, as I have told you. They control four western states and at their present rate of progression in a number of others will soon have supremacy in them."

The Pope Reported Dying.

A dispatch to the London Chronicle from Rome says: "In spite of persistent and apparently well founded denials that there is any imminent danger of the pope's decease, the air is full of speculation and apprehension, indicating that his end is not considered far off. Rumors of intrigue and slate making, which it is impossible to keep from the outside world, exude from every crevice of the jealously guarded inner precincts of the vatican.

The pope's closest personal attendants include his faithful valet, Centro, one chaplain and one minor prelate, who constantly and tenderly guard his material comfort. His meals are served in his private apartment at a small table at which none other, even a crowned head, may sit down. No feminine hand may tend or soothe the august invalid.

Kruger's Gold.

An Austrian merchant just from South Africa tells London that the Boer war will not last longer than June. He believes the Boers would be glad to make peace if they obtained substantial autonomy. He says the British should not allow the burghers to retain the gold mine region, which should be permanently under British rule. This observer also declares that Kruger kept up the Afrikander bund by wealth derived from the gold industry. He says if Kruger loses his money he will soon lose his friends.

Miss Stone's Ransom.

The brigands who captured Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mme. Tsilka have reduced the amount of ransom they demand to £20,000, Turkish. Coincident with this intelligence is the information that the leaders of the band, if convinced that this is more than Mr. Dickinson will give, would accept £15,000. Even this sum is greatly beyond the cash at Mr. Dickinson's disposal. Therefore, unless the captors of the missionary further abate their demands, there is no hope of an immediate settlement.

A Mother's Heroism.

Brigida Frauenholz, of Dayton, was adjudged insane. Overwork, in her effort to save her eight children from starvation, as well as herself, dethroned her reason. She was on the verge of starvation when complaint was made that she was supposed to be losing her mind. Mrs. Frauenholz is a comparatively young woman. It is said that her husband was unable to earn enough money to support the family, and that his wife worked night and day. She was too proud to seek charity.

The President's Message.

Senator McMillan had a conference with President Roosevelt Tuesday and says the president read to him so much of his forthcoming message, as he had prepared it, as interests the middle western states, and that he was in full accord with all portions of the message that were submitted to him. The senator said he believed the president would be very conservative in his recommendations to congress, and would refrain from urging the adoption of any very radical measures.

St. Jacobs Oil for Chest-Colds, Bronchitis, Croup and Pleurisy.

An outward application for bronchial difficulties is many times far more effective than syrups, cough mixture, cod liver oil, &c., simply because it penetrates through to the direct cause, which is, as a rule, an accumulation of matter or growth tightly adhered to the bronchial tubes.

St. Jacobs Oil, possessing as it does those wonderful penetrating powers, enables it to loosen these adhesions and to induce free expectoration. Cases have been known where expectorations have been examined after St. Jacobs Oil has been applied, and the exact formation was clearly shown, where the adhesions had been removed or pulled off the bronchial tubes. All irritation of the delicate mucous membrane of the bronchæ is quickly removed by the healing and soothing properties of St. Jacobs Oil. In cases of croop and whooping cough in children St. Jacobs Oil will be found superior to any other remedy.

St. Jacobs Oil is for sale throughout the world. It is clean to use—not at all greasy or oily, as its name might imply. For rheumatism, gout, sciatica, neuralgia, cramp, pleurisy, lumbago, sore throat, bronchitis, soreness, stiffness, bruises, toothache, headache, backache, feetache, pains in the chest, pains in the back, pains in the shoulders, pains in the limbs, and all bodily aches and pains it has no equal. It acts like magic. Safe, sure, and never failing.

PRINCESS VIROQUA,
Practicing Physician and Lecturer.

"For fifteen years I have noted the effect of your Vegetable Compound in curing special diseases of women.

"I know of nothing superior for ovarian trouble, barrenness, and it has prevented hundreds of dangerous operations where physicians claimed it was the only chance to get well. Ulceration and inflammation of the womb has been cured in two or three weeks through its use, and as I find it purely an herbal remedy, I unhesitatingly give it my highest endorsement. —Fraternally yours, DR. P. VIROQUA, Lansing, Mich."—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.
