

WISCONSIN LAW AIDS GIRL WHO APPEALS TO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

State Moves Promptly When It Finds She Is Being Worked 14 Hours a Day.

BOARD CALLS EMPLOYER'S ATTENTION TO FACT LAW IS BEING VIOLATED.

By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

PACKERS ASSESSED FOR VIOLATING POOL PACT

Veeder Tells of Penalties That Were Levied Against Individual Firms. CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The trial of the beef barons on a charge of operating a criminal conspiracy to dominate the packing industry was resumed before Federal Judge Carpenter today.

INJUNCTION HALTS C. H. HYDE'S TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—When the trial of Charles H. Hyde, former city chamberlain, charged with accepting bribes for depositing city money in certain banks, was called today, it developed that Justice Staptleton, of Brooklyn, yesterday enjoined District Attorney Whitman from proceeding with the case until Justice Lehman had handed down his decision upon Hyde's application for a change of venue.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR JULIUS ROLSHOVEN

Invitations have been issued by the trustees of the Detroit Museum of Art for a reception Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, in honor of Julius Rolshoven's paintings.

WAYNE ASSEMBLY NOW IN LEAD FOR BIG CASH PRIZE

Wayne Assembly, No. 1, O. O. T. A., has taken the lead for the $1,000 cash prize offered in The Times label and sales slip contest, and the Lady of the Lourdes church of River Rouge, is in second place for the $500 prize.

MAN LOCKED UP ON CHARGE OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

Police Think Frank Little Responsible For Other Cases Reported Recently. Frank Little, 35 years old, No. 369 Springwells-ave., is locked up in the central police station, charged with attacking 13-year-old Alberta West, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Daisy Soper, at No. 279 Howard-st.

JAILED FOR MARRYING DESPITE COURT'S ORDERS

Charles E. Baxter, of Oxford, Is Sentenced to 30 Days in Jail. PONTIAC, Mich., Jan. 2.—Charles E. Baxter, prominent Oxford merchant, was sentenced by Judge Smith this morning to 30 days in jail for contempt in marrying despite the orders of the court who forbade his remarrying within a year.

HOLIDAY SEASON IS OVER; ALL BACK ON THE JOB NOW

Good Weather Aids in Making New Year's Happy; Crowds at Social Functions. The holidays over, Detroit's half million returned to their accustomed tasks, Tuesday morning, albeit somewhat reluctantly, for it was a great Christmas and an unusually happy New Year and everyone was loath to see the season pass.

MAN LOCKED UP ON CHARGE OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

Police Think Frank Little Responsible For Other Cases Reported Recently. Frank Little, 35 years old, No. 369 Springwells-ave., is locked up in the central police station, charged with attacking 13-year-old Alberta West, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Daisy Soper, at No. 279 Howard-st.

JAILED FOR MARRYING DESPITE COURT'S ORDERS

Charles E. Baxter, of Oxford, Is Sentenced to 30 Days in Jail. PONTIAC, Mich., Jan. 2.—Charles E. Baxter, prominent Oxford merchant, was sentenced by Judge Smith this morning to 30 days in jail for contempt in marrying despite the orders of the court who forbade his remarrying within a year.

HOLIDAY SEASON IS OVER; ALL BACK ON THE JOB NOW

Good Weather Aids in Making New Year's Happy; Crowds at Social Functions. The holidays over, Detroit's half million returned to their accustomed tasks, Tuesday morning, albeit somewhat reluctantly, for it was a great Christmas and an unusually happy New Year and everyone was loath to see the season pass.

LA FOLLETTE DELAYED BY TAKING WRONG TRAIN

Continued from Page One. man in a speech which was to have been one of welcome. Politicians are wondering whether LaFollette had a suspicion of O'Bohr's intention to ask him to withdraw from the presidential race and whether LaFollette missed the train by accident or on purpose.

OHIO PROGRESSIVES STRONG FOR LA FOLLETTE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 2.—A dozen progressives of national importance, today spread out over Ohio to continue the fight for progressive principles started by Senator LaFollette on his tour last week.

TAFT WANTS ROOSEVELT TO DECLARE HIMSELF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Political circles were astounded this afternoon by a report, credited to certain well known Taft leaders, that the president has determined to force Col. Roosevelt into the open in the contest for the 1912 nomination of the Republican convention.

OPPOSITION TO GOV. HARMON INCREASING

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Opposition to Gov. Harmon's presidential ambitions was the keynote sounded by a number of Democratic state leaders who came to Columbus today to hold what they characterized as a "Progressive Democratic conference."

MOVING DAY IN FEDERAL COURT

It is moving day in the United States district court, which is now a consolidation of the old circuit and district courts. Elmer W. Voorheis, clerk of the court, is moving the offices of the former district clerk, Miss Carrie Davison, who is now deputy clerk from the Shelby-st. side of the building to the old circuit court clerk's quarters on the Fort-st. side.

MYSTERY IN MAN'S DEATH

Police believe the man who lay unconscious in Grace hospital several days before being identified by his brother, died there, Tuesday morning. Coroner Burgess was called and is investigating. There were no marks on the man's body and the coroner is at loss to know the cause of his death. A post-mortem examination has been ordered. Kiewa was 20 years old and lived at No. 639 Kirby-ave. east.

WOMAN REFUSES TO EAT

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J., Jan. 2.—Miss Annie Geshell, a patient in the New Jersey State hospital, continued her fast, begun five days before Christmas, today. The last time she ate was 65 days elapsed before she would consent to eat. During her long fast she lost a pound of weight. She declares "angels" visit her every morning at 4 o'clock and give her food and wine.

ROSEBUDS CAUSE DEATH

MICH., Jan. 2.—As a result of a fatal attack of pneumonia, which was contracted while playing with rosebuds in the fly wheel of a state having been in the city, died last night in this city, died last night in this city, died last night in this city.

GO TO EXHUME BODY; FIND GRAVE EMPTY

SANDESKY, Mich., Jan. 2.—Officers are trying to locate the body of Mrs. Katherine Ridsen, who had been housekeeper for James Tough, and who was supposed to be buried in the cemetery at Tyre, Dr. Robert MacGregor, who is in jail in Bad Axe, on a charge of homicide in connection with the death of one of the Sandesky boys, was Mrs. Ridsen's attending physician. The officers wanted to send her viscera to Ann Arbor for analysis, but the grave was found empty.

SUCCESS HUSBAND IN PULPIT

JACKSON, Mich., Jan. 2.—The second Baptist church (restored) has engaged the widow of their late pastor, Mrs. George Harding, to conduct the religious services of the church during the coming year. Mrs. Harding, who was their pastor two years, died Dec. 23. Mrs. Harding has been induced to take the work where he left it, she is to receive the same salary as was paid her husband. Mrs. Harding filed the pulpit Sunday for the first time.

WISCONSIN LAW AIDS GIRL WHO APPEALS TO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

State Moves Promptly When It Finds She Is Being Worked 14 Hours a Day. By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

BOARD CALLS EMPLOYER'S ATTENTION TO FACT LAW IS BEING VIOLATED.

By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

PACKERS ASSESSED FOR VIOLATING POOL PACT

Veeder Tells of Penalties That Were Levied Against Individual Firms. CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The trial of the beef barons on a charge of operating a criminal conspiracy to dominate the packing industry was resumed before Federal Judge Carpenter today.

INJUNCTION HALTS C. H. HYDE'S TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—When the trial of Charles H. Hyde, former city chamberlain, charged with accepting bribes for depositing city money in certain banks, was called today, it developed that Justice Staptleton, of Brooklyn, yesterday enjoined District Attorney Whitman from proceeding with the case until Justice Lehman had handed down his decision upon Hyde's application for a change of venue.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR JULIUS ROLSHOVEN

Invitations have been issued by the trustees of the Detroit Museum of Art for a reception Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, in honor of Julius Rolshoven's paintings.

WAYNE ASSEMBLY NOW IN LEAD FOR BIG CASH PRIZE

Wayne Assembly, No. 1, O. O. T. A., has taken the lead for the $1,000 cash prize offered in The Times label and sales slip contest, and the Lady of the Lourdes church of River Rouge, is in second place for the $500 prize.

MAN LOCKED UP ON CHARGE OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

Police Think Frank Little Responsible For Other Cases Reported Recently. Frank Little, 35 years old, No. 369 Springwells-ave., is locked up in the central police station, charged with attacking 13-year-old Alberta West, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Daisy Soper, at No. 279 Howard-st.

JAILED FOR MARRYING DESPITE COURT'S ORDERS

Charles E. Baxter, of Oxford, Is Sentenced to 30 Days in Jail. PONTIAC, Mich., Jan. 2.—Charles E. Baxter, prominent Oxford merchant, was sentenced by Judge Smith this morning to 30 days in jail for contempt in marrying despite the orders of the court who forbade his remarrying within a year.

HOLIDAY SEASON IS OVER; ALL BACK ON THE JOB NOW

Good Weather Aids in Making New Year's Happy; Crowds at Social Functions. The holidays over, Detroit's half million returned to their accustomed tasks, Tuesday morning, albeit somewhat reluctantly, for it was a great Christmas and an unusually happy New Year and everyone was loath to see the season pass.

LA FOLLETTE DELAYED BY TAKING WRONG TRAIN

Continued from Page One. man in a speech which was to have been one of welcome. Politicians are wondering whether LaFollette had a suspicion of O'Bohr's intention to ask him to withdraw from the presidential race and whether LaFollette missed the train by accident or on purpose.

OHIO PROGRESSIVES STRONG FOR LA FOLLETTE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 2.—A dozen progressives of national importance, today spread out over Ohio to continue the fight for progressive principles started by Senator LaFollette on his tour last week.

TAFT WANTS ROOSEVELT TO DECLARE HIMSELF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Political circles were astounded this afternoon by a report, credited to certain well known Taft leaders, that the president has determined to force Col. Roosevelt into the open in the contest for the 1912 nomination of the Republican convention.

OPPOSITION TO GOV. HARMON INCREASING

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Opposition to Gov. Harmon's presidential ambitions was the keynote sounded by a number of Democratic state leaders who came to Columbus today to hold what they characterized as a "Progressive Democratic conference."

MOVING DAY IN FEDERAL COURT

It is moving day in the United States district court, which is now a consolidation of the old circuit and district courts. Elmer W. Voorheis, clerk of the court, is moving the offices of the former district clerk, Miss Carrie Davison, who is now deputy clerk from the Shelby-st. side of the building to the old circuit court clerk's quarters on the Fort-st. side.

MYSTERY IN MAN'S DEATH

Police believe the man who lay unconscious in Grace hospital several days before being identified by his brother, died there, Tuesday morning. Coroner Burgess was called and is investigating. There were no marks on the man's body and the coroner is at loss to know the cause of his death. A post-mortem examination has been ordered. Kiewa was 20 years old and lived at No. 639 Kirby-ave. east.

WOMAN REFUSES TO EAT

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J., Jan. 2.—Miss Annie Geshell, a patient in the New Jersey State hospital, continued her fast, begun five days before Christmas, today. The last time she ate was 65 days elapsed before she would consent to eat. During her long fast she lost a pound of weight. She declares "angels" visit her every morning at 4 o'clock and give her food and wine.

ROSEBUDS CAUSE DEATH

MICH., Jan. 2.—As a result of a fatal attack of pneumonia, which was contracted while playing with rosebuds in the fly wheel of a state having been in the city, died last night in this city, died last night in this city.

GO TO EXHUME BODY; FIND GRAVE EMPTY

SANDESKY, Mich., Jan. 2.—Officers are trying to locate the body of Mrs. Katherine Ridsen, who had been housekeeper for James Tough, and who was supposed to be buried in the cemetery at Tyre, Dr. Robert MacGregor, who is in jail in Bad Axe, on a charge of homicide in connection with the death of one of the Sandesky boys, was Mrs. Ridsen's attending physician. The officers wanted to send her viscera to Ann Arbor for analysis, but the grave was found empty.

SUCCESS HUSBAND IN PULPIT

JACKSON, Mich., Jan. 2.—The second Baptist church (restored) has engaged the widow of their late pastor, Mrs. George Harding, to conduct the religious services of the church during the coming year. Mrs. Harding, who was their pastor two years, died Dec. 23. Mrs. Harding has been induced to take the work where he left it, she is to receive the same salary as was paid her husband. Mrs. Harding filed the pulpit Sunday for the first time.

WISCONSIN LAW AIDS GIRL WHO APPEALS TO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

State Moves Promptly When It Finds She Is Being Worked 14 Hours a Day. By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

BOARD CALLS EMPLOYER'S ATTENTION TO FACT LAW IS BEING VIOLATED.

By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

PACKERS ASSESSED FOR VIOLATING POOL PACT

Veeder Tells of Penalties That Were Levied Against Individual Firms. CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The trial of the beef barons on a charge of operating a criminal conspiracy to dominate the packing industry was resumed before Federal Judge Carpenter today.

INJUNCTION HALTS C. H. HYDE'S TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—When the trial of Charles H. Hyde, former city chamberlain, charged with accepting bribes for depositing city money in certain banks, was called today, it developed that Justice Staptleton, of Brooklyn, yesterday enjoined District Attorney Whitman from proceeding with the case until Justice Lehman had handed down his decision upon Hyde's application for a change of venue.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR JULIUS ROLSHOVEN

Invitations have been issued by the trustees of the Detroit Museum of Art for a reception Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, in honor of Julius Rolshoven's paintings.

WAYNE ASSEMBLY NOW IN LEAD FOR BIG CASH PRIZE

Wayne Assembly, No. 1, O. O. T. A., has taken the lead for the $1,000 cash prize offered in The Times label and sales slip contest, and the Lady of the Lourdes church of River Rouge, is in second place for the $500 prize.

MAN LOCKED UP ON CHARGE OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

Police Think Frank Little Responsible For Other Cases Reported Recently. Frank Little, 35 years old, No. 369 Springwells-ave., is locked up in the central police station, charged with attacking 13-year-old Alberta West, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Daisy Soper, at No. 279 Howard-st.

JAILED FOR MARRYING DESPITE COURT'S ORDERS

Charles E. Baxter, of Oxford, Is Sentenced to 30 Days in Jail. PONTIAC, Mich., Jan. 2.—Charles E. Baxter, prominent Oxford merchant, was sentenced by Judge Smith this morning to 30 days in jail for contempt in marrying despite the orders of the court who forbade his remarrying within a year.

HOLIDAY SEASON IS OVER; ALL BACK ON THE JOB NOW

Good Weather Aids in Making New Year's Happy; Crowds at Social Functions. The holidays over, Detroit's half million returned to their accustomed tasks, Tuesday morning, albeit somewhat reluctantly, for it was a great Christmas and an unusually happy New Year and everyone was loath to see the season pass.

LA FOLLETTE DELAYED BY TAKING WRONG TRAIN

Continued from Page One. man in a speech which was to have been one of welcome. Politicians are wondering whether LaFollette had a suspicion of O'Bohr's intention to ask him to withdraw from the presidential race and whether LaFollette missed the train by accident or on purpose.

OHIO PROGRESSIVES STRONG FOR LA FOLLETTE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 2.—A dozen progressives of national importance, today spread out over Ohio to continue the fight for progressive principles started by Senator LaFollette on his tour last week.

TAFT WANTS ROOSEVELT TO DECLARE HIMSELF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Political circles were astounded this afternoon by a report, credited to certain well known Taft leaders, that the president has determined to force Col. Roosevelt into the open in the contest for the 1912 nomination of the Republican convention.

OPPOSITION TO GOV. HARMON INCREASING

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Opposition to Gov. Harmon's presidential ambitions was the keynote sounded by a number of Democratic state leaders who came to Columbus today to hold what they characterized as a "Progressive Democratic conference."

MOVING DAY IN FEDERAL COURT

It is moving day in the United States district court, which is now a consolidation of the old circuit and district courts. Elmer W. Voorheis, clerk of the court, is moving the offices of the former district clerk, Miss Carrie Davison, who is now deputy clerk from the Shelby-st. side of the building to the old circuit court clerk's quarters on the Fort-st. side.

MYSTERY IN MAN'S DEATH

Police believe the man who lay unconscious in Grace hospital several days before being identified by his brother, died there, Tuesday morning. Coroner Burgess was called and is investigating. There were no marks on the man's body and the coroner is at loss to know the cause of his death. A post-mortem examination has been ordered. Kiewa was 20 years old and lived at No. 639 Kirby-ave. east.

WOMAN REFUSES TO EAT

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J., Jan. 2.—Miss Annie Geshell, a patient in the New Jersey State hospital, continued her fast, begun five days before Christmas, today. The last time she ate was 65 days elapsed before she would consent to eat. During her long fast she lost a pound of weight. She declares "angels" visit her every morning at 4 o'clock and give her food and wine.

ROSEBUDS CAUSE DEATH

MICH., Jan. 2.—As a result of a fatal attack of pneumonia, which was contracted while playing with rosebuds in the fly wheel of a state having been in the city, died last night in this city, died last night in this city.

GO TO EXHUME BODY; FIND GRAVE EMPTY

SANDESKY, Mich., Jan. 2.—Officers are trying to locate the body of Mrs. Katherine Ridsen, who had been housekeeper for James Tough, and who was supposed to be buried in the cemetery at Tyre, Dr. Robert MacGregor, who is in jail in Bad Axe, on a charge of homicide in connection with the death of one of the Sandesky boys, was Mrs. Ridsen's attending physician. The officers wanted to send her viscera to Ann Arbor for analysis, but the grave was found empty.

SUCCESS HUSBAND IN PULPIT

JACKSON, Mich., Jan. 2.—The second Baptist church (restored) has engaged the widow of their late pastor, Mrs. George Harding, to conduct the religious services of the church during the coming year. Mrs. Harding, who was their pastor two years, died Dec. 23. Mrs. Harding has been induced to take the work where he left it, she is to receive the same salary as was paid her husband. Mrs. Harding filed the pulpit Sunday for the first time.

WISCONSIN LAW AIDS GIRL WHO APPEALS TO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

State Moves Promptly When It Finds She Is Being Worked 14 Hours a Day. By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

BOARD CALLS EMPLOYER'S ATTENTION TO FACT LAW IS BEING VIOLATED.

By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

PACKERS ASSESSED FOR VIOLATING POOL PACT

Veeder Tells of Penalties That Were Levied Against Individual Firms. CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The trial of the beef barons on a charge of operating a criminal conspiracy to dominate the packing industry was resumed before Federal Judge Carpenter today.

INJUNCTION HALTS C. H. HYDE'S TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—When the trial of Charles H. Hyde, former city chamberlain, charged with accepting bribes for depositing city money in certain banks, was called today, it developed that Justice Staptleton, of Brooklyn, yesterday enjoined District Attorney Whitman from proceeding with the case until Justice Lehman had handed down his decision upon Hyde's application for a change of venue.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR JULIUS ROLSHOVEN

Invitations have been issued by the trustees of the Detroit Museum of Art for a reception Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, in honor of Julius Rolshoven's paintings.

WAYNE ASSEMBLY NOW IN LEAD FOR BIG CASH PRIZE

Wayne Assembly, No. 1, O. O. T. A., has taken the lead for the $1,000 cash prize offered in The Times label and sales slip contest, and the Lady of the Lourdes church of River Rouge, is in second place for the $500 prize.

MAN LOCKED UP ON CHARGE OF ATTACKING LITTLE GIRL

Police Think Frank Little Responsible For Other Cases Reported Recently. Frank Little, 35 years old, No. 369 Springwells-ave., is locked up in the central police station, charged with attacking 13-year-old Alberta West, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Daisy Soper, at No. 279 Howard-st.

JAILED FOR MARRYING DESPITE COURT'S ORDERS

Charles E. Baxter, of Oxford, Is Sentenced to 30 Days in Jail. PONTIAC, Mich., Jan. 2.—Charles E. Baxter, prominent Oxford merchant, was sentenced by Judge Smith this morning to 30 days in jail for contempt in marrying despite the orders of the court who forbade his remarrying within a year.

HOLIDAY SEASON IS OVER; ALL BACK ON THE JOB NOW

Good Weather Aids in Making New Year's Happy; Crowds at Social Functions. The holidays over, Detroit's half million returned to their accustomed tasks, Tuesday morning, albeit somewhat reluctantly, for it was a great Christmas and an unusually happy New Year and everyone was loath to see the season pass.

LA FOLLETTE DELAYED BY TAKING WRONG TRAIN

Continued from Page One. man in a speech which was to have been one of welcome. Politicians are wondering whether LaFollette had a suspicion of O'Bohr's intention to ask him to withdraw from the presidential race and whether LaFollette missed the train by accident or on purpose.

OHIO PROGRESSIVES STRONG FOR LA FOLLETTE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 2.—A dozen progressives of national importance, today spread out over Ohio to continue the fight for progressive principles started by Senator LaFollette on his tour last week.

TAFT WANTS ROOSEVELT TO DECLARE HIMSELF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Political circles were astounded this afternoon by a report, credited to certain well known Taft leaders, that the president has determined to force Col. Roosevelt into the open in the contest for the 1912 nomination of the Republican convention.

OPPOSITION TO GOV. HARMON INCREASING

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Opposition to Gov. Harmon's presidential ambitions was the keynote sounded by a number of Democratic state leaders who came to Columbus today to hold what they characterized as a "Progressive Democratic conference."

MOVING DAY IN FEDERAL COURT

It is moving day in the United States district court, which is now a consolidation of the old circuit and district courts. Elmer W. Voorheis, clerk of the court, is moving the offices of the former district clerk, Miss Carrie Davison, who is now deputy clerk from the Shelby-st. side of the building to the old circuit court clerk's quarters on the Fort-st. side.

MYSTERY IN MAN'S DEATH

Police believe the man who lay unconscious in Grace hospital several days before being identified by his brother, died there, Tuesday morning. Coroner Burgess was called and is investigating. There were no marks on the man's body and the coroner is at loss to know the cause of his death. A post-mortem examination has been ordered. Kiewa was 20 years old and lived at No. 639 Kirby-ave. east.

WOMAN REFUSES TO EAT

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J., Jan. 2.—Miss Annie Geshell, a patient in the New Jersey State hospital, continued her fast, begun five days before Christmas, today. The last time she ate was 65 days elapsed before she would consent to eat. During her long fast she lost a pound of weight. She declares "angels" visit her every morning at 4 o'clock and give her food and wine.

ROSEBUDS CAUSE DEATH

MICH., Jan. 2.—As a result of a fatal attack of pneumonia, which was contracted while playing with rosebuds in the fly wheel of a state having been in the city, died last night in this city, died last night in this city.

GO TO EXHUME BODY; FIND GRAVE EMPTY

SANDESKY, Mich., Jan. 2.—Officers are trying to locate the body of Mrs. Katherine Ridsen, who had been housekeeper for James Tough, and who was supposed to be buried in the cemetery at Tyre, Dr. Robert MacGregor, who is in jail in Bad Axe, on a charge of homicide in connection with the death of one of the Sandesky boys, was Mrs. Ridsen's attending physician. The officers wanted to send her viscera to Ann Arbor for analysis, but the grave was found empty.

SUCCESS HUSBAND IN PULPIT

JACKSON, Mich., Jan. 2.—The second Baptist church (restored) has engaged the widow of their late pastor, Mrs. George Harding, to conduct the religious services of the church during the coming year. Mrs. Harding, who was their pastor two years, died Dec. 23. Mrs. Harding has been induced to take the work where he left it, she is to receive the same salary as was paid her husband. Mrs. Harding filed the pulpit Sunday for the first time.

WISCONSIN LAW AIDS GIRL WHO APPEALS TO INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

State Moves Promptly When It Finds She Is Being Worked 14 Hours a Day. By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

BOARD CALLS EMPLOYER'S ATTENTION TO FACT LAW IS BEING VIOLATED.

By W. G. SHEPHERD. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 2.—Mrs. John Hobbs, whose family I introduced to you yesterday, became worried over the wan, tired look of her daughter, Mary, who worked in a fashionable candy store.

PACKERS ASSESSED FOR VIOLATING POOL PACT

Veeder Tells of Penalties That Were Levied Against Individual Firms. CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The trial of the beef barons on a charge of operating a criminal conspiracy to dominate the packing industry was resumed before Federal Judge Carpenter today.</