

PICTORIAL REVIEW

DETROIT TIMES

FEBRUARY 18, 1945

WHEN Commodore E. J. Moran was skipper of U.S.S. Boise he directed his light cruiser and its complement of brave men in an attack which cost the Jap fleet six warships in Solomons action. Though badly damaged the Boise rejoined sister ships. Moran, who wears Navy Cross, is sketched above as a captain.

—Drawing by Lieut. Albert K. Murray, U. S. N. R.

Fighting Yanks!