Entered at the postoffice in the city of Grand Rapids as second-class matter.

The poodle dog must go. A Long Haired young lady is followed along the street by a pet lamb.

Collector Davis is expected to appoint another deputy soon. It is rumored that Maj. Kelsey, of Iowa, will be the patriot called upon to sacrifice himself to the interests of the nation in this connection.

"Before the President makes up his mind he wants, if he can, to see the applicant in person," says the Philadelphia Times.

The new president of Bowdoin College, Rev. Dr. Hyde, is a rare combination of brain and muscle.

This census of the city of Buffalo taken by the police force shows the present population to be 202,818.

Some weeks ago, the Philadelphia Times claimed the ribbon for a Pennsylvania girl as the premium marrying person of the country for her years.

The interview had by a reporter of THE TRIBUNE, yesterday, with Congressman Comstock and E. A. Burlingame, published elsewhere in this issue, contains some very rich material for certain Democrats and Greenbackers to ruminate.

Tammany Hall or against any particular leader of it, no one can deny that it will be necessary for the Democracy this Fall to get all the votes it possibly can; and for this reason we do not think it is good policy to kick the Tammany men too rudely just at present.

Washington Critic: It is a somewhat remarkable circumstance that you never hear of a poor man having the hay fever.

Grand Traverse Herald: What has the Greenback party of Michigan received for the valuable aid rendered the Democrats in the State during the last three or four years?

Day City Tribune: The Democrats of Michigan have learned what it is to have a boss run the machine. They think the machine runs beautifully but it is uneven on the "divide."

Philadelphia Times: The Greenback party in Pennsylvania may now be regarded as finally harmonized. It has been put into a $2,500 office at Washington, and we may all be happy yet.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: One by one the friends of Emperor William are dying. Two by two the friends of Carter Harrison are going to the penitentiary. These are two great men undergoing sad and simultaneous bereavement.

Boston Record: A statesman who takes a sea-bath in black pantaloons and blue coat, "all buttoned down before," as Mr. Hendricks is described as doing on Sunday, would probably undertake to "clean the Augean stable" with kid gloves on. Let no such man be trusted.

New York Sun: Judging by the attention paid by the Herald, the Daily Advertiser, and the Evening Transcript, of Boston, to the reception recently given to Gen. Logan, we should say that a faint scent of Republicanism still lingers about the offices of those esteemed contemporaries.
