THE ST. LOUIS TELEGRAM-HERALD, A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN PUBLISHERS.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF KENT COUNTY.

Printed and Published by the Telegram Publishing Company, Inc., 200 N. 1st St., St. Louis, Mo.

GRAND RAPIDS, THURSDAY, JUNE 22.

CIRCULATION LAST WEEK: Monday, June 14, 5,100; Tuesday, June 15, 4,500; Wednesday, June 16, 4,542; Thursday, June 17, 4,778; Friday, June 18, 4,034; Saturday, June 19, 4,010.

Total for six days, 30,040; Daily average, 5,006.

Frederick Altswager being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the president of the TELEGRAM-HERALD, and that the above is a true and correct statement of the circulation of the TELEGRAM-HERALD for the days and date mentioned.

FRED ALTSWAGER, STATE OF MICH., County of Kent.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of June, A. D. 1918. JOHN PERCY, Notary Public in and for Kent County.

It took a Grand Rapids man to release the State from ignominious defeat on the diamond by those contemptible Chicago fellows.

The Detroit Free Press has an editorial on the "Judgment of By-and-By." It has, however, no reference to the umpire's ruling on Saturday.

The case of supposed cholera in New York proved to have been, instead of that disease, a case of a much more destructive epidemic. It was diphtheria.

The young ladies of Milwaukee have organized a bromine brigade which is expected to make the dust fly next Friday evening, when the first annual review occurs.

Instead of going by the way of Alaska to Japan via the proposed railroad, we are inclined to think it would be more economical in the end to build a pantheon bridge across the Pacific.

CELEA Logan has been compiling facts in regard to the manner in which a large number of noted women began life. Without stopping to read her article, it is pretty safe to say that most of them began as girl babies.

A brigad of those Chicago detectives who have been scouring the country for Parsons for weeks, while we was probably staying quietly in the city, holding frequent consultations with his counsel.

The way in which the subscriptions are being added to the Irish Parliamentary fund and the enthusiasm evinced at the Irish-American gatherings doesn't indicate very much discouragement among the friends of home rule in America.

Two Yonkers editors are to fight a duel with rifles. There seems to be a conspiracy to exterminate the editors of the homelike South-west. Two have been shot within a few days, and here are two more going to kill each other.

Charles Brannan denies that the government of the Sandwich Islands is going to make a loan of $10,000,000, thus practically selling the Kingdom. The government evidently moved too fast in this matter. They should have consulted Mr. Brannan before attempting any such scheme.

If there are a few more hobbles left in England who know all about the Irish question and how to settle it, we will be surprised. The burden of the news lately has been a general airing of the opinions of a bundle of nincompoops on the Home Rule question. Experts and Quakers will do well to mumble some of them.

Every unbiased man will admit that the reasons given by the President yesterday for his refusal were such as to warrant the action. Deserving soldiers should be liberally promoted, but that is one thing, and throwing the route open to every man who shies at another. But the objection which the President raises is directed either to those who passed the bills without investigation, or to the applicants, and the fact is they are none to be commended.

The big "seed-off" which was to be given by the House of Representatives was apparently a fiasco. Instead of going down the bay on the Grand Republic to be taken off by the straits at Sandy Hook, the fleet went about the town-Atlantic Ocean at the Grand pier and the old men's enthusiasm followed had to content themselves with following in the wake of the Atlantic rapidly sped away from them with his low indistinguishable sails, mingled with the crowd on her deck.

THE BROTHERS' MARRIAGE.

The marriage of the two brothers, who were both in the army, was a subject of much interest. The marriage was celebrated in a grand manner, and the bride was a beautiful girl.
