HALF A MILLION LOSS

A Disastrous Fire in the Lumber Districts of St. Louis.

Twenty Million Feet Destroyed.

The Fire Burning at Midnight But Under Control—The Cause of the Fire Said to be Incendiary.

St. Louis, Mo., July 18.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon an alarm called the fire department to the foot of Bremen avenue, where are situated the lumber yards of the Knapp, Scott Lumber Company. The fire was by this time raging furiously to the northeast portion of the yards. A general alarm was at once sent in, and the entire available apparatus of the department brought to the spot. Despite all efforts to stop the progress of the flames, it was impossible to do so until about two-thirds of the area of sixty acres was burned over, and also nearly a million feet of lumber destroyed. The loss will probably amount to $500,000, partially insured. At eleven o'clock tonight the fire is under control and will probably be subdued with no further loss than above stated. The Knapp Scott Company is the oldest lumber concern in the Southwest, and will suffer severely as the stock contained cannot be replaced in time for their fall trade, which is very heavy. It is supposed that the work at an incendiary, as there were no workmen in the yard.

LET SKIPPERS TREMBLE.

That New Treaty Seems to be a Fact, but There is Much Misery Exciting It.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Nothing of an official character can yet be obtained respecting the new extradition treaty, which appears to be contemplated between the Government of the United States and Great Britain, excepting that no such treaty has been signed here, but that so nothing is being done in this direction is evident from the manner in which the officials respond to inquiries bearing upon the subject. It is believed that the draft of the document is complete, but whether it remains in the hands of State or has been forwarded to Great Britain is not known. It is supposed to be ready for signature this week, when some further developments are looked for in connection with the mysterious document.

CAST UP BY THE SEA.

A Scrap of Paper Found in the Atlantic that May Mean a Terrible Disaster.

Savo, Me., July 18.—The crew of the schooner Lark Thorne, of Cape Porpoise, Capt. G. W. Wakelind, recently picked up off Rockland a ragged slip of paper, which read as follows: "Run into by ocean steamer in mid-Atlantic March 29. We sank in a few minutes. Our bark sailed from London the 15th of February. We have no hope. Please publish this in the newspapers." On the other side could be read the words: "Millevankin, Captain Linsen, and the words: 'I am late.' The writing is very poor and bears evidence of great haste and nervousness.

TO BE KNIGHTED.

James Service, the Leading Statesman of Australia Visits Boston on His Way to England.

Boston, July 18.—Hon. James Service, who has been Premier of Victoria, the richest colony of Australia, arrived in this city last night, and will be here a few days. Mr. Service reached this country about two months ago, and has spent as long as far as he is concerned, in his present tour. He has been through the Yosemite valley and made a flying visit to New York and Canada. Mr. Service is undoubtedly the leading statesman of Australia up to the present day, and is now on his way to England, to receive the honor of knighthood from the Queen.

EUGENE IS AN L. L. O.

The Governor of New Jersey by Cable Telegrams, Kicks Up a Great Row.

Washington, Me., July 18.—A feeling of bitterness has been developed among the Abolitionists of this State, in consequence of the recent communication received from the Secretary of State, J. P. Fish, who is believed to be a member of the same. It is believed that the feeling is due to a telegram sent to Mr. Fish, in which it was stated that the Abolitionists of this State were in a state of rebellion against the Government.

A Young Chinaman Brutally Murders His Friend.

STABBING HIM FIFTEEN TIMES

The Remains of the Dead Man, Who Was Also a Chinaman, a Horrible Sight—Robbery the Cause—$500 Secured.

Boston, July 18.—Ling Chong, a celestial, for some years kept a laundry at 5983 Shawmut-ave. He had accumulated considerable money and was to sail out next week and return to China where he left a wife and child. Last night at about 11 o'clock, a young Chinaman of some fifteen years of age, who was evidently known to Chong, but seems to have been a stranger to every body else in the neighborhood, applied to Chong for a night's lodging. Chong gave it to him by the boy and took him to the window sill. About 5 o'clock this morning he was found dead, and the young man was arrested. He was found with a knife in his hand, and the wounds were from two to four inches in length and depth. His trunk had been ransacked and about $500 taken. There was no clue to the murderer.

ALBANY'S GREAT DAY.

Imposing Historical Sermons in All the Churches—Today's Grand Parade.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 18.—A heavy wind and thunder storm today played havoc with the decorations, but there still remains innumerable flags and banners still waving on every street. The incoming trains constantly add to the number of strangers already here. The celebration was begun today by religious ceremonies in nearly every church in the city, and great crowds attended. At St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church a grand solemn mass was celebrated. Bishop Walden, of Ogdensburg, was the celebrant. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. O. Wallcut, of Albany. The military company, went through a number of evolutions in the transient. In evening a musical service was held in the city hall, where the music was furnished by the Mahanwaig Indians from the Mahanwaig Reservation, Canada. At the Madison-ave. Church in the morning Rev. Mr. Demarest, of New Brunswick, preached an historical sermon to all the reformers of Albany. The sermon was followed by a religious service in all the churches. Tomorrow the great parade will take place, and in the evening there will be a grand concert with a chorus of 1,000 voices.

A PRETTY ROMANCE.

A Milkman Marries His Old Sweetheart Whom He Left Behind Thirty-Two Years Ago.

Fox Creek, Me., July 18.—A romance in real life culminated in Bingham. Thirty-two years ago Abram O. Savage, a young man, became engaged to Miss Flaviella Chaborn. Savage went to Nevada, neglected writing to his affianced, and she, thinking him lost to her, subsequently married William Bassett. Their wedded life ran smoothly for a time, but at length he went to Colorado. Unpleasant rumors of her husband's conduct reached her, and investigation proved their truth, a separation and division of property was agreed upon. Mrs. Bassett returned to Bingham and a friend of hers, Mrs. W. F. F. F., mentioned the marriage of the milkman to her. Mrs. Bassett, who had become a millionaire, at once started out to find her old sweetheart. She was successful, and after thirty-two years of waiting the early engagement was at once terminated by a quiet wedding. The couple have just started for Park slope, followed by the best wishes of the entire community.

TORN TO ATOMS.

Two Distances Engage in the Manufacture of Dynamite at Cork and are Killed.

Cork, July 18.—An explosion occurred this afternoon in a dilapidated house near the residence of a man named Crawford, a short distance from the city, tearing the building to atoms. The dead bodies of two men, employed by Crawford, were found in the debris in a frightfully mangled condition. It is supposed they were engaged in the manufacture of dynamite.

Gladstone Interviewed by a French Journalist, and He Speaks With Decision and Firmness of His Work.

Paris, July 18.—Le Figaro publishes an interview which one of its writers had with Mr. Gladstone, in which the latter is made to say: "The Liberals who are following me, and the Irish members, constitute a compact minority, whose wishes it will be all the less possible to disregard. Among the victors are some who are perhaps less informed than I am believed to be on the path of thorough reform in Ireland. If I listened to the warning of age, I would retire from public life, but I should be committing a guilty error in abandoning the field after having so much to do and inspiring so much hope. If I did not seek to oppose the one and 'carry the day,' I have worked all my life to deliver a suffering people and I mean to die as I have lived."

A FAMOUS MAN DEAD.

"Ned Hustline," the Great Story Writer, Dies of Heart Disease—A Sketch of His Career.

STAMEN, N. Y., July 18.—Edward Z. C. Hustline, the great story writer, died of heart disease at his home here yesterday afternoon. He was 64 years of age. When twelve years old he entered the government service as an apprentice on board of a man-of-war. A year later President Van Buren sent him a commission as midshipman for meritorious conduct in crossing the Atlantic on a boat run down by a Fulton Ferry boat on East river. Young Hustline was assigned to the Lexington, and in his opinion, he was a better sailor than the rest of the crew. He was a common sailor before the mast, and while on the way to join the "Fulton" he was discharged from the Lexington, and he was retained as a member of the crew. He was a man of letters, and his work as a writer was highly respected. He was a member of the New York Historical Society, and he was a member of the New York State Society of Authors.
